

ASCO DRAMA OHIO; CRANE WILBUR IN LEAD

'Bavu' Screened at Apollo
Next Week and 'Wandering
Daughters' at Circle.

CRANE WILBUR, who was well known to movie fans several years ago, will play the lead in a movie version of David Belasco's success, "The Heart of Maryland," at the Ohio next week.

It is a story of the Civil War days with the love interest played up. Catherine Calvert plays the chief feminine role. Tom Terris directed it.

The Circle next week will offer a new James Young production, "Wandering Daughters." Marguerite de la Motte and William V. Mong are in the cast.

At the Apollo, "Bavu," adapted from the stage play of the same name, will be the headline attraction next week. Tom Mix in "Stepping Fast," will be on view at Mister Smith's.

The Broadway will open Sunday as a movie feature house. The opening bill will feature Marguerite Snow in "The Slave Mart."

For the first half of the week, the Isis will offer Roy Stewart in "Burning Words," a drama.

"The Heart of Maryland"
Booked at Ohio for Week.

David Belasco, famous playwright and dramatic producer, whose plays have been the distinguishing mark of the American stage and later with the introduction of the screen, with the cinema, is represented the coming week at the Ohio theater with "The Heart of Maryland," a play of the Civil War, which has been picturized by Vitaphone by Albert E. Smith and directed by Tom Terris.

Crane Wilbur, picture player of a number of years ago, plays the leading masculine role, while Catherine Calvert is the leading woman. Other players include Victoria White, Marguerite Sanchez, Jane Jennings, Ben Lyon, William Collier Jr., Felix Krembs, Arthur Earl, Bernard Siegel, Henry Hallam and Warner Richmond.

The story tells of a woman torn between duty and love, how she first chooses duty but later is overcome by the all-compelling surge of love. To save her lover from capture by the Confederate troops, Maryland Calvert swings from the clapper of the warning bell. Other stirring scenes make the picture one of the most exciting of the year.

Maryland is engaged to Alan Kendrick, an officer in the Federal army, but at the outbreak of the civil war Maryland, to be true to the Southern cause, renounces her engagement while Alan is sent South to fight the Confederates. He is forced to fight his father, a general in the Southern army.

Among the other features at the Ohio the coming week will be Round II—"Fighting Blood," a news weekly and a program by Schuyler Alward's Ohio orchestra.

New James Young
Movie Due at Circle

"Wandering Daughters," a James Young production, comes to the Circle Sunday.

The story by Dana Burnett, deals with the adventures of Bessie Bowden, who, brought up in a strait-laced household, is attracted to the social life of the fast young crowd of their town. Bessie becomes infatuated with a young "parlor hound."

John Hargraves, a young man of whom her father thoroughly approves, conspires with Mr. Bowden to adopt the ways of Bessie's new "set" in hopes that this will keep Bessie interested in her own home.

Bowden transforms the old house, but spends all his money doing it. The artist elopes with a young girl whose father is quite wealthy, and Bessie turns to John Hargraves.

Marguerite de la Motte is Bessie Bowden, William V. Mong is her father, Alan Forrest is the heart-breaking artist and sculptor, and Pat O'Malley the gallant young son of toll.

Margery Daw appears as a romantic young girl whose father allows her no freedom at all with her young friends, and as a result she elopes with the fortune-hunting Austin Trull, when he is scorned by Bessie. Noah Beery is her stern, automatic father, and others in the cast are Mabel Van Buren and Alice Howell.

The overture will be Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Mikado," and the organ solo, played by Miss Dessa Byrd, is "Louisville Lou." A Circlette of News and Circle comedy complete the program.

Famous Mystery Drama
Booked at Apollo Next Week

Those who revel in a mystery plot with the element of suspense ever predominating will find a picture to their liking at the Apollo next week in "Bavu," a drama filmed from Earl Carroll's stage play, which scored a hit in New York.

It is a story of Russia during the period of terror that followed the

MOTION PICTURES

ISIS

First Half Next Week

ROY
STEWART

IN
"Burning Words"

Life in the rough! Red-blooded men—devoted women—dramatic conflict—the rugged grandeur of the Canadian Northwest—its hardy sons—fearless daughters! The heart throbs! Romance! Love!

CENTURY COMEDY

"Ain't Love Awful?"

10c—All Seats—10c

MOVIES TO PLEASE ALL PEOPLE NEXT WEEK

No. 1—Estelle Taylor as Princess Anna Markoff, in "Bavu," at the Apollo next week.
No. 2—Marguerite de la Motte and William V. Mong in "Wandering Daughters," at the Circle next week.

No. 3—Katherine MacDonald in a scene from "Money, Money, Money," the film feature at the Palace the last half of next week.

No. 4—Catherine Calvert, dressed in her quaint costume, in "The Heart of Maryland," at the Ohio next week.

No. 5—Roy Stewart in "Burning Words," to be at the Isis the first half of next week.
No. 6—Marguerite Snow in "The Slave Mart," at the Broadway next week.

collapse of the Romanoff regime. The title character, Felix Bavu, is played by the screen's "master villain," Wallace Beery. Estelle Taylor has the role of the aristocratic heroine, Princess Anna. Others in the cast are Forrest Stanley, Sylvia Breamer, Martha Mattox, Nickolai de Ruiz, Josef Swickard, Jack Rollens and Harry Carter.

The action in "Bavu" centers (Continued on Page 7.)

MOTION PICTURES

Next Week

Apollo

Ever-lasting-ly
Exciting!

BAVU

The Year's Most Sensational Mystery Thriller!

From the Play by Earl Carroll

LOOK AT THIS CAST

WALLACE BEERY
ESTELLE TAYLOR
FORREST STANLEY
SYLVIA BREMER
JOSEF SWICKARD

TWO LOVERS, one a princess of real blood and the other a peasant, brought together by the democracy of love, fight together for life, honor and happiness through one of the most tumultuous nights in the world's history. Against BAVU—against a crimson torrent of crazed men and women—against overwhelming odds—you will follow their heroic fight, and you will marvel that such gripping excitement could have been transferred to the silversheet!

Round Three of the new "Leather Pushers" Series

FOX NEWS WEEKLY

Virgil Moore's Apollo Orchestra—Lester Huff at the Organ

MOTION PICTURES

THE HEART of MARYLAND

WITH CATHERINE CALVERT
Crane Wilbur & Wm. Collier, Jr.

International
News Weekly

Round II
H. C. Whitwer's
"FIGHTING BLOOD"

To Blot Out a Mistake
She Silenced the Bell

WOULD you have the courage to swing from the clapper of a bell to prevent it tolling?

IF you like action, suspense, drama and subtle humor interwoven in a series of big spectacular scenes that are sure to thrill, you will enjoy this big picture. Your neighbors are all talking about it.

IT took six months in the making and required over 1,000 players. One of the best pictures on the screen.

Schuyler Alward and his Ohio Orchestra

The

CIRCLE

Theatre

WANDERING DAUGHTERS

JAMES YOUNG'S
SPIRITED VISUALIZATION OF LOVE'S
YOUNG DREAM

A DELIGHTFUL ADVENTURE OF JAZZ
HEARTS AMONG SHATTERED
DREAM CASTLES

The frivolity, romance, broken ideals and the faith that makes life worth while are all here—blended entertainingly by a master of emotion.

It's A First National Picture

OVERTURE
GILBERT & SULLIVAN'S GREATEST SUCCESS

"THE MIKADO"

MODEST ALTSCHULER

MUSICAL DIRECTOR

Orchestra plays Sunday, 2-4:45 and 7-9:45.

Daily, 7:30-10:15.

CIRCLETTE OF NEWS

HEAR MISS DESSA BYRD, PLAYING

"LOUISVILLE LOU"

ON THE CIRCLE GRANDE ORGAN

EXTRA ADDED COMEDY FEATURE
Buster Keaton IN HIS LATEST "The Love Nest"