WEDDINGS BETROTHALS

THE Caroline Scott Harrison chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution will give a benefit card party in the interest of their new chapter house on Pennsylvania St. July 12. Mrs. William H. Bobbitt will be in charge of arrangements.

MEMBERS of the Southern Club were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plummer today at a Fourth of July celebration at their beautiful home overlooking the river on Cold Springs Rd. During the afternoon Mrs. W. D. Long and Mrs. J. F. Edwards gave a reading "On a Southern Porch." Mrs. William H. Bobbitt, accompanied by Mrs. R. L. St. Pierre, sang Southern songs.

Dinner will be served at long tables on the lawn in view of the river. Covers for seventy-five will be laid. During the evening there will be fireworks and dancing on the veranda, lighted with Japanese lanterns.

THE wedding of Miss Lillian Hinnant, niece of W. C. Campbell, 4225 Central Ave., to William I. Jackson of Waterloo, Ill., was quietly solemnized this afternoon at the home of the bride's uncle. The house was decorated with garden flowers and smilax. Miss Louise Campbell, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of Nile green georgette and carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bride wore a gown of white lace over satin and carried a bouquet of roses and valley lilies. Dr. F. Smith read the ceremony. Robert Campbell acted as best man.

After the ceremony a dinner party was served to members of the bridal party. After a wedding trip in the West Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will be at home in Montreal, Canada.

The Alpha Chapter of Sigma Tau Sorority entertained with a garden party Monday night at the home of Mrs. Emil Elder, 4137 Ruckel St. Japanese lanterns gave the lawn a festive air. Bushes of garden flowers carried out the color scheme of lavender and yellow, the sorority colors. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. C. E. DeWitt.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Craig and son, Carl, and daughter, Mrs. Clayton Moag, have motored to their summer home on Crooked Lake, Oden, Mich.

Miss Avonelle Thorp, 3563 Birchwood Ave., entertained at two tables of bridge at her home Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Helen Meyers, 4186 Carrollton Ave., has motored to Lake Michigan as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zwicker and daughter, Miss Katherine, at their summer home. After spending the week-end at the lake, they will motor to Cleveland.

Miss Katherine Gould, 3026 College Ave., will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harvey, Cincinnati, Ohio, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bruce of Mounts-ville, W. Va., and little son, Henry, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Drew, 3268 Park Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sudbrook, 31 E. Forty-Fifth St., and daughter, Miss Gladys, have motored to Chicago, where they will visit relatives. Miss Sudbrook will spend the summer there.

Miss Marjorie Binford of Greenfield has returned from a house party at the home of Miss Margaret Georges, Montpelier, Ind.

Miss Mary Ives of Delphi, Ind., is the guest of Miss Dorothy Wiese, 5828 College Ave.

Miss Mary Ott of Rockville, Ind., is visiting Miss Mary Louise Holderman, 8704 N. Pennsylvania St. Miss Ott and Miss Holderman attended the wedding of Miss Ruth Stone to Marvin Smith in Muncie last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Plummer, 3314 Broadway, and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Plummer, 2810 Central Ave., motored to Muncie to spend the Fourth with Clifford Plummer.

Theodore Kuehne and sister, Miss Emma Kuehne of Baltimore, are visiting relatives in Indianapolis.

FOR LINGERIE

A new lightweight silk broadcloth, much more supple than the type used to make tailored blouses, is now on the market and is being used successfully for lingerie. It is obtainable in printed, as well as plain patterns.

BLACK AND WHITE

The plain little frock of black alpaca with plain skirt and belted blouse with its white collars and cuffs is frequently seen about Paris these days.

PONGEE BLOUSES

The newest blouses of pongee are collarless and are trimmed with rows of drawnwork and sometimes with flax lace dyed to match the silk.

IN ITALIAN SILK

The newest blouses have scalloped ruffles, and the seams which run up the sides are also scalloped.

She Finds Time to Win Golf Trophy

MISS BLANCHE MORGAN

Miss Blanche Morgan, cashier for the county clerk, can use golf clubs as well as an adding machine. That's how she won the Ft. Wayne trophy in the women's State golf tournament last week. She survived the first flight, defeating three opponents.

Miss Morgan is a member of the South Grove Golf Club.

LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO MRS. JOSEPH GRAVES HAMILTON.

DEAR MOTHER:

It was an unfortunate turn in events that made me arrive home just three hours after you and dad had left. I think it was horrid for dad's secretary to get sick just at this time.

I know you are most interested in my visit to Jack's mother, for, of course, you must have had some inkling of my feelings in the matter from the letter I wrote you.

Well, as Jack says, it was some visit! You remember all about my saying I did not believe Mrs. Prescott was ill at all. I think it was just a conspiracy to get Jack over there and tell him about me and get some money out of Jack.

Both Mrs. Prescott and Miss Bradford were surprised and chagrined when I made my appearance and things went from bad to worse until, as a climax, Karl Whitney made his appearance on the scene at what seems to be the ungodly hour of 9 o'clock.

It was bad enough for Karl to call upon me at all but come in the middle of the night was unspeakable.

He has probably showed you before this Alice's wireless. What did Alice mean when she said, "I shall wear the pearl ring and think of your goodness whenever I look at it?"

Surely you do not intend that Alice and Karl shall be engaged. I think Karl rather wanted me to ask him for any explanation, but I would not do that. It seemed to me it was making too much of it.

I merely said, "Karl, I think it is foolish for you to give a girl as young as Alice a pearl ring. She is too young to wear expensive jewelry." He made no reply to this.

Well, mother dear, I have to report that your daughter is a nasty little cat. Things came to a showdown at the home of Jack's mother. Right before Karl I made it perfectly clear that either Priscilla Bradford should leave the house or I would, and then I had a taste of the splendid inborn aristocracy of the Puritan blood.

With perfect politeness and kindness, in a way that I could take no offense, I was dismissed. I really admired Jack's mother more at that time than any other.

I went to the next town with Karl and arrived home to tell my troubles to Jack. He was much more angry than I.

Mother, Jack's a dear, but some way he seems very much worried lately. I cannot understand it at all. It cannot be money troubles, for in the few months we have been married he has had his salary boosted once and earned two big bonuses besides.

Did you notice, mother dear, while you were here that when he thinks no one is looking at him, a worried look comes into his eyes? It grieves me greatly that he does not confide in me, but I am not going to worry him about it.

I really have very little curiosity you know. I have always believed that any one whom you loved should be allowed to tell you as much or as little as he wished of his own affairs. I think that is a mark of your loyalty.

Curiosity, I believe, is a vice which sometimes masquerades as virtue—or would you say it is a virtue which sometimes masquerades as a vice? Like all good things in this world, it can be overdone.

We would know nothing in this world if we did not question ourselves or each other; but still a person can "butt in" to another's affairs and make unhappiness for every one. I am kind of all mixed up, but anyway, I am your

LOVING LESLIE.

Irregularity in Frocks, Paris Latest

COPYRIGHT BY M'CALLS

Whatever your life may be, your frocks must be irregular. That's what Paris has decided, at least, and all good fashions come from Paris. Uneven and diagonal effects are the thing. It doesn't matter whether they are effects of line or trimming. Perhaps it will be boucians that droop, or necklines that zig-zag—or merely beaded or embroidered designs that insist upon lopping to one side. The effect is everything.

Martha Lee Her Column

There are three kinds of husbands—those who marry too soon, those who wait too long and those who have the greatest happiness.

The third class is composed of men who do not marry until they have a little nest egg to start their homes, but whose wives help them to win success. Their struggles help cement their happiness. Of course, they must pick wives who will not shrink.

The first class is made up of men, because the men in it are usually fighting against odds too great for them.

Men in the second class frequently look upon their wives as dolls, to grace their home, instead of as flesh and blood helpmates.

Plenty of Girls

My Dear Martha—I am a young man of 23. I have a host of pretty friends and it is a great pleasure to me to be in their company. I treat them all alike and always show them the best of my day. I tell them I don't believe I will give matrimony any serious consideration until about ten years hence. I want to have a nice home on the sunny side of Easy St. in the neighborhood of the 400. Of course I intend to make some girl happy some day in every way—but two years hence, I say, I am not in a hurry to get a girl or an automobile, as there is a beautiful supply of both. Do you think I am wrong?

A GOOD FELLOW.

Ambition is a fine thing to have—in fact, a necessity if one is to move forward. But I fear you are in danger of joining the second class of husbands. You want to make your success and then choose some pretty doll to live in your home. She will have everything to make her comfortable. But will either of you be as happy as you might be if you would marry after you had started, on the right road, and that your wife could help you to the goal? I think not.

You are right to wait to get the car. But, when you meet the girl, don't give her up, or keep her waiting for years, just because you are not a millionaire. Love counts for something, you know.

Would 'Ditch' Him

Dear Miss Lee: I am a girl of 18. I have been going with a fellow for about two months. He seems to care for me, but I cannot stand him as he can hardly see. He doesn't want me to look at any of my other boy friends. He is jealous of a fellow I used to go with. This fellow is coming to Indianapolis to see me. I want to quit the fellow I am now going with. Please tell me how to ditch him. I am in a hurry.

It would be a good idea, I think, for you to "ditch" this "fellow" and the other too, and wait a few years. Let this first boy know that you are too young to give up other boy friends for any one boy. And don't take boys so seriously.

Parents Know Best

Miss Martha Lee: I do not feel as if I want to go to shows or dance at home or have boy friends. I am 15 and think I ought to be able to do some of these things. I had a job and my parents would not let me work for fear I would get out and go to shows. My father has threatened to bring me before court on account of one of my girl friends. I feel so lonely leaving home. Please advise me.

Indeed you are not homeless. How many girls, actually homeless now, regret the fact that they did not have parents like yours when they were your age!

I am sure your father would not threaten to take you to court unless he actually were afraid you would hurt your character. So do as your parents want you to now. They know best. Then, when you are a bit older and can use better judgment, they will let you go out, and you will have a much better time than if you started now.

Love Same Man

Dear Miss Lee: We are two girl chums who are together almost constantly. We are both in love with the same fellow. When one of us sees him alone, he treats her fine. But when he sees us together, he treats us rather coldly. Do you think we should give him the cold shoulder, or do you think he has just reason for his actions?

Just reasons for such inconsistency? I don't know what they could be. No, I think he is the sort of man who flatters a girl when he is alone with her, and ignores her in a crowd—one type of "trifler." Don't be over-friendly toward him, although the "cold shoulder" is not necessary.

Another Shell

Miss Lee: I am 14 years old and am going with a girl my age. She pretends she does not like me at times and tries to get me mad or jealous. I don't know what I can stand for that. Please advise me.

Play at least one game of baseball daily, take hikes frequently, swim and play tennis, and join a Boy Scout troop. Then forget the girls, except as pretty good scouts if they don't stick around too much.

Rather Risky

Dear Miss Lee: I am a woman of 61. Some woman told me I was going to marry a rich man. If I should meet up with him, would you advise me to marry him?

SWEET TULIP.

I should not. Besides, he might not ask you, you know.

"POLLY,"

You showed me how to solve one problem.

I had been dreading that dinner for a week, but we simply had to have those people to dinner and it meant such a frightful lot of work that I just kept neglecting it.

Then Polly you came along with your happy suggestion about having them dine with us at the Guaranty Cafeteria.

Everything was simply lovely; I called for table reservations so there was no trouble in getting a table. The food was just delicious from the soup to the dessert, really a lot better than I could have prepared at home.
