Old Man Loops Suffers Only Knockout of Shelby's Big Title Fight

CRITICS ALL WRONG IN ESTIMATES OF HEAVIES

Gibbons Stays Limit, but Loses, and Dempsey Proves He Can Go Distance and Retain Strength.

By HENRY FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor
SHELBY, Mont., July 5.—Jack Dempsey has his heavyweight title and about $250,000. Tommy Gibbons has no title and no more money than Wednesday, but he has the heartfelt admiration of a few thousand spectators who saw him stand up to and yet evade the tiger rushes of the champion for the full fifteen rounds.

Dempsey won the decision on points. The only knockout of the latest world's heavyweight championship battle was to the Grand Old Dope.

Some Glory for Tommy
They said Gibbons couldn't stay—but he did. With a puffed face, a split lip, sore ribs that glared a dry red, but covered a heart full of satisfaction, Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul came out of his fight with Jack Dempsey, erstwhile mauler of Manassa, with whatever glory was won beneath the broiling sun that beat upon the pine bowl here Wednesday afternoon.

Gibbons lost the decision without a lick, even after some rather strange work on the part of Jim Daugherty, third man in the ring. But he had vindicated himself beyond a doubt as a rightful challenger for Dempsey's crown, and established himself as a game sportsman.

"I held on a lot in the last three rounds and don't blame me for it," Gibbons said. "I tried to fight absolutely clean and I believe I did. I felt fine until the ninth round, when I was hit in the groin and couldn't use my left leg good after that."

While strangers and the natives of Shelby and adjoining towns were engaged last night in the wildest dissipation the town could afford, Gibbons was shooting off skyrocket and fireworks at home with his wife and three kiddies.

The fight itself was a good one, as fights go. Dempsey outwheeled Gibbons by thirteen pounds, was always the aggressor. He fought in his customary style, shoulders hunched, arms poised to strike from any angle, pursuing the slightest challenger about the twenty-one-foot ring.

Four or five times during the fight, it seemed to many spectators that Dempsey hit low. But Referee Daugherty saw it otherwise—or didn't see it.

Mc marvelled as Gibbons swapped punches with the champion in the early stages and came up round after round for more.

At the end, he had maintained his record of nearly ninety fights without having been knocked down.

It was a tired, puffed, bleeding boxer that came out of the ring after the last five or six rounds; but when he had to fight, Gibbons was always able to take and give back hard blows to the final gong.

Dempsey's form was decidedly disappointing, but he showed he could fight fifteen rounds and win.

Critics said if Gibbons stayed seven or eight rounds he would win on points. He stayed, but lost on points.

Critics said if Dempsey did not win early he would lose. He went the full route, was strong at the finish, and won.

It was a bad day for the experts and dope.

LOCAL BOWLER DIES SUDDENLY

J. Fred McCullough Succumbs to Heart Attack.

J. Fred McCullough, a well-known bowler of this city, died suddenly this morning at his home, 2539 Park Ave., at 3 o'clock from a heart attack.

McCullough was a member of the Star Clammy Dairy Lunch five, which is classed as one of the leading quintettes of the Middle West.

Many friends, including bowlers throughout this part of the country, mourn the loss of a true sportsman and comrade. Funeral arrangements are to be made later.

McCullough had paired with Jess Pritchett in doubles in much tournament play and the pair won city, State and national fame. McCullough was a member of the executive committee of the American Bowling Congress.

ST. PAUL LEADERS ARE STRUCK JOLT BY SUSPENSIONS

President Hickey Punishes Five for Alleged Part in Last Sunday's Riot.

By United Press
CHICAGO, July 5.—Five members of the St. Paul club of the American Association were suspended today by President Thomas Hickey for alleged connection with a riot at the St. Paul field Sunday. One Milwaukee player was also suspended.

Suspension and fines as announced. Cliff Markle, St. Paul pitcher, suspended indefinitely and fined $100.

Sick Allen, St. Paul, catcher, suspended indefinitely and fined $50.

Bruno Haas, St. Paul outfielder, suspended indefinitely and fined $50.

Marty Berghammer, St. Paul, second baseman, suspended five days; no fine.

Oscar Mallio, Milwaukee, outfielder, suspended five days; no fine.

The riot followed a demonstration by fans when members of the St. Paul club are alleged to have "stalled for time" in an effort to revert the score of the game to the eighth inning, when St. Paul was leading.

Tribe Goes to K. C.
The Indians were on the way to Kansas City today, after dividing the Fourth of July double-header with the Colonels at Louisville. The scores Wednesday were 6 to 5 (ten innings), Colonels, and 12 to 5, Indians. Jess Petty pitched his fifth straight victory, when he turned back Louisville in the second game.

The Tribesmen were idle today, but Friday they will hook up with the hard-hitting Blues in the new ball park at Kansas City. The Hendricks team will swing around the western half of the circuit before returning home July 25.

The team won three out of five at Louisville, which is not a bad feat in enemy territory. Jay Kirt, former Colonel, went big against his old mates.

The Hoosiers spent a bad Fourth with Umpire Daly, and Whelan was chased in the first game and Sicking in the second. Catcher Meyer of Louisville also got the gate from Daly in the opening fracas of the afternoon. Maybe the umpire had his mind on the Gibbons-Dempsey fight and failed to keep close tab on what was being shot over the plate.

The Apollo will play at New Palestine Sunday. The club under new management and has added four new players to its roster. There will be an important meeting tonight for same at 8:30 P. M., or address 1244 S. Blaine Ave. Noblesville, Ind. Semour, Greenfield and Shelbyville take notice.

The Selmers will meet the Y. P. C. Sunday at Penny Park at 3 p. m. The Selmer team has open dates July 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, and are set to be defeated. Any team desiring real opposition should call Belmont 0457 and ask for Eddie between 5:30 and 6:30 p. m.

The Acme Juniors are having a hard time getting games and are without one for Sunday. The Acme have won eleven in a row and are set to be defeated. Any team desiring real opposition should call Belmont 0457 and ask for Eddie between 5:30 and 6:30 p. m.
