Traffic Suggestions
Continue to Roll
Into Times Office

The Times traffic problem contest, which ends next Thursday night, is causing much comment among motorists and pedestrians. The result is that safety is brought to the fore. For the suggestion voted the best and most practical the Traffic Problem Editor of The Times will give a prize of $50. Send in your suggestions immediately.

Here are additional contributions:

Would Ban Autos
In Downtown Loop.

Do not let any cars drive inside of territory bounded by Capitol Ave. on the west, Pennsylvania St. on the east, Maryland St. on the south and Ohio St. on the north. Have ten miles an hour speed limit inside of the mile square, and enforce it.

C. W. CLARKE,
230 N. Hamilton Ave.

Don't Change Present System, Is Advice.

My suggestion for a safe city for the pedestrian:

Stick to the present traffic system. Don't change it every other day. By doing so the pedestrian and autoist soon will know all rules thoroughly.

NEAL MCMICK,
1125½ E. Washington St.

Cross-Town Cars and Corner Lights Uptown.

People to go with traffic.
People to keep to the right at all times.

Make all auto traffic east and west or north and south in up-town section.

Put cross-town car lines into effect so as to go straight east and west or north and south in up-town section.

Put lights on all corners in up-town section to operate from one cab so traffic will move at all corners at the same time.

Make laws and enforce them with people, street cars and autos.

WILLIAM H. LOVE,
2207 Brookside Ave.

Take Street Cars Out
Of Busiest Section.

Why should people transferring from one line to another have to walk two blocks after paying 2-cents for a transfer? For instance, a passenger on the College Ave. line leaves his car at Pennsylvania St. walks through the congestion to Illinois St. and as he reaches the proper corner his car pulls out, leaving him to wait for the next car. There is a fine belt line starting at Capitol Ave. and Ohio St. extending east to Delaware St. south on Delaware to Maryland St. west on Maryland to Capitol Ave. thence north to Ohio. Every car line taps this belt at some point along the way. By using this belt it would take all cars off Washington St. from Delaware St. to Capitol Ave., and also on Illinois, S. Meridian and Pennsylvania Sts. By using the center of the above streets for automobiles it would take care of the parking situation.

T. J. BUCKMAN,
711 E. Twenty-Third St.

Speeders Should Be Sent to Asylum.

Stop all auto traffic in the downtown district from Georgia to Ohio St. and from Capitol Ave. to Pennsylvania St., with the exception of taxicabs from 6:30 to 8 a.m. and from 11:30 to 1 and from 4:30 to 6 p.m.

To speeders and careless drivers, instead of making them pay a fine, send them to an asylum, for the desire to go at breakneck speed is a certain form of insanity. Let all speed cops wear plain clothes.

diana corporation and the secretary of the company is an honored and respected citizen of Indianapolis," said Weir. "Is it the fear of the president of the company that the secretary might let some one see the books in his absence? Let us see the books, Mr. Geist, so we may know who received this $107,000."

"We want all of the civic clubs to take active interest in the water question," said Edward O. Sneathen, president of the Federation of Community Civic Clubs, today. "All are defendants in this particular case," he asserted.

Benjamin Perk, accountant, and Edward Bemis, Chicago engineer, were in conference most of the day compiling statistics to be used in presenting the city's side of the case.

Mayor Shank today signed the ordinance appropriating an additional $3,000 to carry on the fight against increased rates.

Meet Monday

A meeting of the public utilities committee of the Federation of Civic Clubs and executive officers of the organization will meet in the office of Sneathen, 416 Indiana Trust building, at 5 p.m. next Monday, to arouse interest among the clubs in order that they will send representatives to the hearing before the public service commission July 18. Members of the public utilities committee are: Summer Clancy, chairman; T. P. Woodson and L. A. Miller. The executive officers are: Edward O. Sneathen, president; A. LeRoy Porteous, vice president; L. L. Fellows, second vice president, and John F. White, secretary.

The Brookside Civic League will hold a special meeting tonight at Spades Park. The water question will be discussed and delegates to the hearing appointed.

The following civic organizations will meet next Wednesday night to discuss the water situation: Brightwood Civic Association and McClainville Improvement Association.

The Southeastern Civic Improvement Club will meet next Tuesday night at the McKinley school.

Will Be Represented

Miss Viola M. Baxter, president of the Pleasant Run Blvd. Association, announced today that no meetings of her organization would be held, but that it would be represented at the hearing.

The Riverside Civic League and Northwestern Improvement and Civic Association will also send delegates, although they will hold no special meetings.

The Chamber of Commerce subcommittee to investigate the water company's rates will meet at the Chamber of Commerce Monday noon to make its report. The report will then be referred to the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. Members of the committee are John F. White and O. D. Haskett.

It is worth while to enter the contest, because The Times will give $50 in cash to the child most resembling Peggy.

The entrant's name does not have to be Peggy. Those who know Peggy state that she is a universal type and that many children look very much like her.

Mail picture of your entrant to the Baby Peggy Editor of The Indianapolis Times.

Pictures of entrants will be published daily.
