Norton Must Face
Criminal Charge.

P. Norton, alias H. C. Lane, 58, of Lexington, Ky., arrived in Indianapolis today in the custody of Lieutenant Sumner, from the Louisiana State prison. He will be tried in Indianapolis on an indictment charging him with forgery. Norton is alleged to have forced a check on a Newport, Ky. bank for $2,000. This check was cashed by the Commercial National Bank of Indianapolis. Norton was arrested a few weeks later in New Orleans, charged with obtaining money under false pretences. He was convicted and sentenced to serve twenty months in prison. The twenty months was up July 11.

ELKS WILL GIVE PARTY

Athenaeum Garden Chosen as Scene for Affair Friday Night.

Indianapolis Elks will have a gathering at 8 p. m. tonight for Elks and guests. The Elks' invitation workers' organization, composed of sixty active Elks, will be host.

The program will include talks by Anton Scherer, architect of the new Elks' home at Meridian and St. Clair Sts., and George A. Schneider of Cleveland, expert in club building and equipment. Mayor Shank, who is an Elk, is expected to be present. A feature will be the Elks' orchestra.
