

MENTAL WARD IS BEFORE COUNCIL

Resolution to Be Introduced by Buchanan.

Councilman Heydon W. Buchanan said today he would present a resolution before the council tonight asking that a committee be appointed to investigate the establishing of a psychopathic ward at the Central Hospital for the Insane. Under Buchanan's plan the city would furnish the money for the ward to be run under the supervision of the State.

A public hearing on several minor changes to the zone ordinance will be held by the council. Members are also to meet with the market house committee, of which John F. White is chairman, to consider plans for remodeling or erecting a new building as presented by the committee. In a recent recommendation to the board of public safety the committee reported unaltered opposition to any repair work and favored the erection of a new building.

Key Found and Used

Ward Wagaman, proprietor of a garage at 1136 S. Harding St., told police he lost one of his keys to the cash register. Some one found it for the register was opened and $24 taken.

Sister Mary, Famous Cook, Is Back in Kitchen for Benefit of Times Readers

Women Who Know of Her Recipes Happy at Return.

Sister Mary is back in the kitchen. Women readers who have met her before and have tried her famous menus and recipes will be happy, we are sure, at the prospect of her return as cooking expert for Indianapolis Times through N.Y.A. Service. And those who are yet to be introduced to her have a wonderful experience to look forward to.

General Menu

Here is the general formula Sister Mary suggests housewives follow in preparing a menu for one meal:

- One starch vegetable.
- One bulky mineral vegetable.
- One green, fresh vegetable.
- A protein—meat or a custard or similar dessert.

And remember that each person must have at least a pint of milk a day. If not taken one way, it can be furnished another.

Iceless Desserts

By SISTER MARY
HERE are some hot weather desserts for the woman who does not have ice at her disposal. While frozen desserts are out of the question any chilled dessert that must stand several hours is perfectly possible.

A good way to chill desserts is to wrap a wet cloth around the dish or pan they are molding in.

And keep in mind that any dessert containing milk and eggs is a hearty dish and plan the rest of the meal accordingly.

Mock Ice Cream
One tablespoon granulated gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water, 4 eggs, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon almond extract, 1 cup chopped hickory nuts.

Dissolve gelatin in cold water. Cook, stirring constantly, over steam until clear. Add 1/4 cup cold water and set aside to cool. Beat whites of eggs with the salt until stiff and dry. Slowly beat in the dissolved gelatin. Add sugar and flavoring. Separate into thirds. Tint one-third pink and one green, using vegetable coloring. Line a small bread pan with heavy oiled paper. Spread pink in bottom. Sprinkle with nuts. Add white and another layer of nuts. Finish with the green layer. Set aside to chill. When ready to serve lift out with the paper and cut in slices. Serve with whipped cream or a boiled custard made with the yolks of the eggs.

Boiled Custard
Two cups milk, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 4 eggs (yolks), 1/4 teaspoon vanilla.

Heat milk in double boiler. Beat yolks slightly with sugar and salt. Slowly beat in scalded milk. Return to double boiler and cook until custard coats a spoon. Remove from fire, cool and flavor. Two yolks and 1 tablespoon of flour can be used when convenient.

Maple Gelatin
One tablespoon gelatin, 1 cup boiling water, whites 4 eggs, 1 cup maple syrup.

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. When cool add to whites of eggs and stir. Beat with a Dover beater till stiff. Pour into mold and chill. Serve with whipped cream or boiled custard.

Loves to Cook

"I HAVE always loved to cook." This, in short, is the secret of the success of Mrs. Mary E. Dague, better known as Sister Mary, famous cooking expert who has come back to the kitchen to provide women readers of The Times with menus and recipes planned, tested and approved by herself.

Long before her marriage, Sister

SISTER MARY PREPARING A NEW RECIPE

Mary gained practical experience at cooking. After attending Wellesley, she got some real practice with her lessons at a famous Boston cooking institute. But her best experience at cooking was at her father's farm at Sharon Center, Ohio, where she did everything, even to curing meat.

It was during her six years on the farm that she was able to tinker about the kitchen just as a chemist does in his laboratory.

"In fact," says Sister Mary, "cooking is only chemistry—that is, putting certain things together, that react on each other to produce what's wanted. So the recipe is merely the chemical formula, and if the formula is right to begin with the product can't be a failure."

Martha Lee Says

Call to Silver Screen False Siren for Many

The "higher-ups" of Stageland and Movieland are the first to advise girls not to take up the work in which these same "higher-ups" have succeeded.

They know. They have traveled the heart-breaking road that leads to success for only a few. They have seen the thousands of girls who thought they could act, but failed. There probably is not a girl who did not some time look into her mirror and feel the call of the footlights or of the silver screen. But it is a call to be heeded only by a chosen few, fore-destined to greatness. For the others—rather should they heed the warning of those who know.

Would Be Actress

Dear Miss Lee: I am a girl of 17, in my last year of high school. I want to go into the movies when I finish school, but when I talk of it to my parents they say they think movie actors and actresses are all bad. I do not believe it. I used to dream with a girl who has become a great movie actress.

Please do not say all girls some time get stage struck or want to go into the movies. It means a great deal to my future happiness. If I cannot persuade my parents to let me go into the movies, I shall end it all and maybe, after it is all over, they will regret. Please tell me how I may be able to persuade them. Whenever I talk of it, they make me stay home from school for three months. BLUE-EYED VAMP.

I must say what you want least to hear: Almost all girls do some time feel just as you do. On what do you base your ambition? You know, it takes more than prettiness to win out in the movies. You must have a good "movie face," histrionic ability, very good health, intelligence, and per-

She Feels Snubbed

Dear Miss Lee: I am 19 years old. The other day I had a date with a fellow one year my senior. He acted as if he cared very much for me, but a few days after, I saw him and he barely spoke. I have another date with him in a few days. Do you think I should tell him? No matter what happens, I will not send him a note or call him up for I have too much pride. I never speak to a fellow first. MARGIE.

It is correct for a girl to speak first to man acquaintance. Perhaps that is the reason your friend seemed cool. Or he may just have been pre-occupied. Don't think so much about it, but go ahead and fill your other "date."

AN UNLOVED GIRL: Stay with your sisters, no matter how hard it seems, for the sake of the babies. When they no longer need you, make an agreement that you are to work, pay a certain amount of board and do so much housework. Insist that you be allowed some pleasures, because of course you cannot work always.

Ignore them when they say things that hurt, and you will find them saying such things less and less. Be pleasant, even though it actually hurts to smile. People find it hard to fuss at people who refuse to be fussed at. Try it.

Birthday Gift

Dear Martha Lee: I want to tell you your advice has helped me and my girl friends more than anything else.

Miss Lee: is a fountain pen a nice birthday present for a boy, with his name on it in golden letters? He is going to be 20 years old. I am 19. MISS BROWN EYES.

Thanks, Miss B. E. Like to be appreciated. Yes, I think a fountain pen would make a very good present.

Called 'Cranky'

Dear Miss Lee: I am a girl 19 years old. My mother died when I was 17 and I have no one to give me advice. I never kept company with any fellow. I do not believe in dances, parties and shows. About the only places I go are church, Sunday school and prayer meetings. My friends seem to think I am what they call cranky. Do you think it is unnecessary for me to have these ideas, or do you think I am sensible?

As I have no sister for a chum, I should like to have a nice young man to be company for me on Sunday evening. I do not believe in having beaux every night. SUNSHINE.

You certainly are entitled to your own ideas of life, even though they do not agree with your friends'. You probably would not be happy without these ideas.

Church and Sunday school would be the logical places for you to meet the kind of young men who would please you. You need not be "forward," but neither should you be over-shy in your friendship with the young men you meet there.
