

'PETTERS' WARNED BY STATE POLICE

Sheriff Breaks Up Parties of Auto Spooners.

Sixty-eight automobile petting parties were interrupted on country roads in Marion County during July by Sheriff George Snider, Deputy Sheriff Rolland Snider, and State Police Young and Shinn, they said today. The motorists were warned arrests would follow if the practice was not stopped.

In one case where a man and a girl, 16, were found in a car halted late at night on "Lovers Lane," a side road near the Georgetown road, Juvenile Court authorities are investigating.

Forty-two speakers were arrested and convicted during the month. Thirteen gamblers caught in open-air craps game northeast of the city on the Pendleton Pike were convicted. Sixteen were arrested on charges of operating an automobile without a State license.

HEAVY FOG HOLDS OFF RUSH OF IMMIGRANTS

Ten Vessels Race to Be First in New Monthly Quota.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Nature came to the aid of immigration officials who sought today to check the rush of would-be American residents taking advantage of the new monthly quota. A dense bank of fog off Nantucket Lightship and extending 100 miles eastward, confined the midnight race of liners to ten vessels. Another ten vessels could not reach Gravesend Bay.

REALTORS TO MEET HERE

Thousands Expected for State Convention Sept. 13-14.

More than 1,000 realtors will attend the tenth annual convention of the Indiana Real Estate Association here Sept. 13-14. Headquarters will be the Claypool. The program committee is Henley T. Hottel, secretary of the local board, and Paul O. Meredith, secretary of the State association. Program includes a smoker for men, theater party for women and inspection of Van Camp Packing Company's plant.

EVANGELISTS REORGANIZE

Cadle Tabernacle Association to Complete New Organization. Final reorganization of the Cadle Tabernacle Evangelistic Association probably will be completed at a meeting Thursday, D. L. Speicher, one of the owners of the Tabernacle building at Ohio and New Jersey Sts., said today. The new association, he said, will be known as the Indianapolis Gospel Tabernacle Association.

A Puzzle a Day

TERUENGMPF
One vowel and one consonant are needed to make a complete sentence out of the letters shown above. The consonant, however, will appear no less than ten times, while the vowel must appear seven times, making seventeen letters to be supplied. Can you find the consonant and the vowel that will do the work? The completed sentence will contain four words.

Yesterday's answer:
1. ARMY LAND 2. VAN ADE 3. CAIN FOR AIL 4. FOLD AIR 5. CONE OR

The "labels," when assembled as shown above into five groups, form the names of five different States, as follows: 1, Maryland; 2, Nevada; 3, California; 4, Florida; 5, Oregon.

FRIEDA'S FOLLIES

By M. E.
—Copyright, 1923.

I revel in basking on the beach. But she was one of those pink and white creatures Who never took a chance on the sun. Flicked under a sunshade all day. I had quite a burn. She said I looked like a cross Between a sword fish and a lobster. Then had the nerve to fall asleep Under her umbrella. I had a burning desire To get even. Who wouldn't? I removed the umbrella.

LUMBER THIEVES' LOOT

Man in Truck Seen Hauling Wood From Garage.

Charles D. Ehle, 4110 W. Washington St., today reported to police lumber valued at $500 was stolen from a garage in Lyons Ave., a half block north of Washington St. The thieves hauled away $500 worth of lumber, 3,000 feet of two-by-fours and fifteen window frames. A colored man with a truck was seen hauling the lumber, neighbors said.

RASNER ANNUAL MEET

PROBE OF FATAL ACCIDENT STARTS

Mrs. Mary Coy to Be Buried
Thursday.

A complete investigation into an accident that cost the life of Mrs. Mary Coy, 43, of 3518 W. Michigan St., was promised today by Coroner Paul F. Robinson. Mrs. Coy was killed instantly Tuesday when a Crawfordville interurban struck her automobile, said to have stalled on the tracks at Tibbs Ave.

It is believed Mrs. Coy did not see the approaching car because of trees and shrubs on the east side of the street, near the crossing, as she drove south Tibbs Ave. Long rows of freight cars are kept on Big Four Railroad tracks, which parallel the interurban tracks. Motorists have complained these prevent their seeing approaching trains and interurbans. There are two interurban and four railroad tracks at this crossing.

The funeral of Mrs. Coy will be held at her home at 2 p. m. Thursday. Burial will be at Mt. Jackson.

FARMERS VISIT PURDUE

Starting Experimental Trips at the Close of Harvest.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 1.—With the grain harvest completed in many parts of the State, groups of farmers are again starting their visits to Purdue University to familiarize themselves with the experimental work. The first group will be here Thursday from Putnam County. They will be with O. H. McNary, county agent. H. E. Ackerman, Carroll County agent, will head a group of Burlington Township farmers here Aug. 10. Several other delegations have tentative dates.

FOUR HOOSIERS NAMED

Men Chosen for Board of World's Largest Building.

Four Indiana men have been selected to the board of governors of the American Furniture Mart, which will be the largest building in the world when it is completed in Chicago. They are: Charles A. Albrecht, Indianapolis, president of the Cabinet Makers' Union; John J. Madden, Indianapolis, president of the John J. Madden Manufacturing Company; J. W. Caswell, Huntington, Ind.; and W. Edwards Showers, Bloomington, Ind. The building will be sixteen stories high, a block wide and a block and a half long and will cost $10,000,000.

Railroads Use Most Steel

Manufacturers of steel used in general construction are the smallest users of the metal, while railroads are the largest consumers, Robert Berner told the Rotary Club at the weekly luncheon at the Claypool. He described manufacture of steel at the Robert Berner Structural Steel Company, 401 S. Harding St.

INDIANA FARMERS BORROW HEAVILY

Federal Reserve System
Yields $50,722,234.

Indiana farmers, up to June 30, 1923, borrowed $50,722,234, or nearly 5 per cent of the total of $1,160,695,516 advanced in the United States through the Federal farm loan system, according to a Government report today. During the last year Indiana farmers borrowed $17,476,225—$10,686,025 from the joint stock land banks and $6,790,200 through the Federal Land Bank at Louisville, Ky. During the last year the total amount borrowed by farmers in the forty-eight States was $445,389,513. Evans Woolen, president of the Fletcher Savings and Trust Company of Indianapolis, largest of the three joint stock land banks in Indiana, said the institution had loaned a net total of $11,250,934.96 to Indiana and Illinois farmers.

TODAY IS 'KIDS' DAY'

Times Carriers and Guests of Elks
Frolic at Riverside

"National Kids' Day" turned out to be a great day for 500 Indianapolis Times' carriers.

At the invitation of the management of Riverside Park, the Times carriers visited the park this morning. Special stunts were presented and every carrier had a free ride on the "thriller" and other apparatus.

After spending the entire morning at the park, the carriers returned to the city at noon ready to make delivery of the papers.

The Elks took several hundred children to Riverside Park this afternoon. Children were being fed and entertained all over the city today.
