

TWO WOMEN HIT BY AUTO WHILE CROSSING STREET

Mrs. Helen Harper and Mrs. Emma Jessup in Hospital.

Mrs. Helen K. Harper, 73, William Penn. Apts., and Mrs. Emma Jessup, 58, 1817 Broadway, today were in the Clark-Blakeslee Hospital, 1116 N. Delaware St., suffering from injuries received when they were struck by an automobile driven by William C. Walters, 2425 N. Pennsylvania St., at Delaware and Twelfth Sts. at 8 p. m. Wednesday.

Walters, when he saw Mrs. Harper and Mrs. Jessup crossing the street, stopped. As he started his car again, the women stepped in front of it. One wheel passed over Mrs. Harper's left ankle, breaking both bones. She was also severely bruised. Mrs. Jessup suffered a cut over the left eye and her nose was injured.

Weeds Obscure View

Two automobiles were in the repair shop today and George Whipple, Lafayette Heights, was suffering from a severe scalp wound and a deep cut in his left cheek, following a collision of his automobile with a truck driven by Walter Townsend, University Heights, at Raymond and Harding Sts. The truck turned over and Whipple's car plunged into a ditch. The drivers said they could not see each other's car because of high weeds.

Carriage Is Struck

Clifford Hall, 33, 237 W. Vermont St., was arrested today on charges of assault and battery when the automobile he was driving struck a carriage occupied by Henry Tate, Mary Martin, and her daughters, Corliss Martin and Georgia Martin, all colored, 2120 W. Walnut St. The accident occurred at Capitol Ave. and North St. Mrs. Martin and her daughters were taken to home in a city ambulance, slightly injured.

Sarah Greenberg, 3, of 902 S. Illinois St., was slightly cut on the head when, according to police, she ran in front of an automobile driven by James Poole, 811 S. Illinois St., near her home.

Ben Turpin's Latest Movie Burlesque Here

Comedy is the keynote of the majority of acts scheduled to be on the new bill opening at the Palace today. Frank Wilcox, assisted by Dana Desbora and John Boyd present "An Emergency Case," a comedy of situations and dialogue that was written by Vincent Lawrence.

Jean Sothen, a former movie star who played Myra in the Fox serial "Mysteries of Myra," returns to the stage in "Girls Will Be Boys," written by Paul Gerard Smith and the music arranged by J. Edwin Liebman. Count Perrone, baritone, joins Trix Oliver, a soprano, in putting on a musical turn. "Four Bell Hops" is a novelty acrobatic number.

The screen attraction is Ben Turpin in Mack Sennett's five-reel burlesque "The Shriek of Araby," a take-off on Rudolph Valentino's famous love thriller. The usual short reel are included in the program.

Other attractions on view today include:

"The First Year" at the Murat; "The Man Without a Country," under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus at Fairview Park; "Rip Van Winkle," at the Municipal Theater at Garfield Park; "The Birth of a Nation," at the Rialto; Carl McCullough at the Lyric; "Daughters of the Rich," at the Apollo; Will Rogers in "Fruits of Faith," at the Ohio; "Slander the Woman," at the Circle; "Talking Chances," at Mister Smith's, and Conway Tearle and Zeeha Keefe in "Marooned Hearts," at the Isis.

What I Was Doing at 20

—By—

Robert H. Bryson,

PAVING ACCEPTANCE CASE NEXT THURSDAY

Donaldson Is Given More Time in Which to Take Borings.

Hearings on the Twenty-Ninth St. paving will be continued next Thursday morning at 10 a. m. by the board of works in its probe regarding acceptance of the pavement.

The third continuance to permit A. L. Donaldson, chief engineer for the State board of accounts, to testify on borings taken from Twenty-Ninth St. was granted by the board Wednesday afternoon.

Donaldson and other engineers are said to be on their way home from Evansville. Attorneys for the Mansfield Engineering Co. demanded Wednesday that the board of works make formal demand on State authorities for proper cooperation and delivery of cores taken from the paving. Counsel for property owners said the borings were in Chicago for examination.

Man and Woman Held in Raid

When Harry Howard, 42, colored, 427 N. West St., arrived home today he was arrested by Motor Policemen Lowe and Baker on a charge of operating a blind tiger. Lieutenant Cox and Jones, who raided the residence Wednesday night, said they found a gallon of white mule. They arrested Della Crawford, 42, colored. They said she told them Howard owned the liquor.

BOXING MATCHES POSTPONED UPON OFFICIAL ORDERS

Governor Believes Bouts Disrespectful to Memory of Late President.

Upon advice of Mayor Shank, Beverly Howard, colored promoter of a boxing exhibition between Tut Jackson and Jack Leslie, both colored, at Tomlinson hall tonight, today announced the bout has been postponed until Monday evening.

The mayor instructed Howard not to hold the fight tonight, after Governor McCray told the mayor he did not believe the bout should be held with the late President unburies.

Firpo Bout Aug. 17

The Governor late Wednesday ordered Sheriff George Snider to stop the bout scheduled for Wednesday night between Luis Angel Firpo and Joe Downey at the Hoosier Motor Speedway, Thirty-Eighth St. and Pendleton Pike, after the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs of Rushville, Ind. had telegraphed they did not believe the bout should be permitted before the Harding funeral rites.

Jack Druley, promoter of the Firpo-Downey bout, announced that he was in agreement with the Governor's attitude and that the bout would be held Aug. 17. Firpo left the city at midnight, after signing an agreement for the new date.

Hundreds Turned Away
Sheriff Snider and deputies, at the Hoosier Speedway Wednesday night, informed hundreds of motorists who had not heard the bout was called off of the fact. Many parties had come from far corners of the State and from surrounding States.

Had Mayor Shank not caused postponement of the Jackson-Leslie affair, Sheriff Snider said he would have stopped it.

BUSINESS HOUSES BURN

Five Buildings Razed in Disastrous Fire at Bedford.

By United Press
BEDFORD, Ind., Aug. 10.—Fire of unknown origin today destroyed five one-story frame business buildings.

The fire was discovered in the rear of a restaurant. A strong wind fanned the flames to adjoining buildings. The restaurant, a plumbing shop, a tire repair shop, a tin shop and the office of a sewing machine agency were destroyed.
