

ORDER TO ARREST LOAFERS FAILS TO STOP BURGLARIES

Thieves Grow Bold—Carry
Away Iron Bed and Porch
Swing.

Despite special orders issued two days ago by Police Chief Herman Rikhoff to arrest all "loafers" burglary reports continued to come in today.

William McGraw, 2682 Allen St., today said his home was entered while he was away and $6 and an automobile key were stolen.

Charles E. Wilson, 2555 Allen St., said his home was entered by forcing a basement window and an automobile key stolen.

Both houses were ransacked. A Mrs. Flisk, living near the Wilson home, heard a noise, but was ill and unable to reach a telephone to call police.

Household Goods Stolen

While Mrs. Nellie Aufderheld, 837 N. Delaware St., was on her front porch Thursday night, a thief entered the rear door. Bed clothing, towels, silverware and $6 were missing. Mrs. Aufderheld said one room was completely ransacked.

Cliff Arnold, proprietor of a barber shop at 3220 E. Tenth St., said a thief took $13.50. Ed Hall, 1204 W. Washington St., reported thefts of an iron bed. Mrs. Ida Gibson, colored, 629 W. Clair St., said a thief carried away wearing apparel, bedclothing, table linens and $6.

Heavy Loot

George R. Wood, 250 Leeds Ave., reported two automobile tires, valued at $40, stolen from his car, parked at Illinois and Pearl Sts.

A sixfoot wicker porch swing, valued at $20, was missing today from the home of John Shanley, 656 E. Forty-Second St. The swing was stolen while Shanley was away Thursday night.

Two pickpockets relieved Mack O'Neill, colored, 2714 Franklin Pl., of his purse, containing $13, on a street car early today. O'Neill seized one of the men, but was unable to hold him.

Sixty-Seven Arrested

Charges against Arthur Batley, 2007 Hoyne St., arrested on a vagrancy charge by two patrolmen at the Thirteenth St. bridge over Fall Creek at 2:30 a. m. Thursday, were continued in city court. Police say Batley has passed about twelve worthless checks in payment for an automobile which was found near the scene of his arrest. There were no license plates or certificate of title in the car.

Sixty-seven men and nine women were under arrest today on various charges. Most of the men were held on vagrancy charges as part of the clean-up campaign.

Charles E. Wilson, 2555 Allen St., said his home was entered by forcing a basement window and an automobile key stolen.

Both houses were ransacked. A Mrs. Flisk, living near the Wilson home, heard a noise, but was ill and unable to reach a telephone to call police.

POLICE HOLD WHITE MULE FOUND IN AUTO AS EVIDENCE

After a pursuit, Sergeant Sheehan's night rider squad caught and arrested Tom Lee, colored, 425 Muskingum St., and Henry Gordon, colored, 330 W. Michigan St., on the charge of operating a blind tiger. Police today had thirty-one half pints and a quart bottle of white mule whiskey, as evidence. The liquor was found in Lee's automobile after the police chased the car three miles, officers said.
