

WORK UNDER WAY ON FIFTH FLOOR OF 'Y' RESIDENCE

New Home to Contain Many Conveniences for Girl
Boarders.

Work is being done on the fifth and last story of the new Y. W. C. A. residence, 725 N. Pennsylvania St. It is planned to have the building ready for occupancy by the first of the year. It is to furnish a permanent home for 115 girls. Mrs. Dora O. Masten, director of the old residence, located at the same site, will be in charge of the new building.

The Y. W. C. A. residence committee, of which Mrs. J. B. McCoy is chairman, has planned carefully to make the building complete. There will be elevator service. In the basement will be a laundry for the use of the girls, a general sewing room, janitor and maids rooms and trunk rooms. On the first floor will be a large living room, dining room, reading room and offices.

The second, third, fourth and fifth floors will contain girls' living rooms. In addition there will be a hospital room on the second floor. On the two floors will be sewing rooms and on two others fudge rooms. A feature will be a roof garden with two sides built up and with the other sides closed in by vines and flowers.

Members of Mrs. McCoy's committee are Mesdames Anna Stafford, G. W. Combs, Thomas N. Shimer, J. H. Tomlin, Harry McConnell and J. J. Dickinson.

Brides Come to Center of Society Stage Once More as Preparations Are Made for September Weddings

Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Thompson of Chicago will arrive Monday to make their home in this city. They will be at home temporarily with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Marshall, 1740 Lexington Ave. Mrs. Thompson was Miss Pauline Marshall of this city before her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Baker, 3622 N. New Jersey St., are in Atlantic City.

Mrs. E. C. Rumpel, 88 Whittier Pl., will receive informally in honor of Mrs. David Lindley Murray of Pasadena, Cal., Monday afternoon from 3 to 5. Mrs. Murray is chairman of committee on credentials of

W.C.T.U. Notes

University Heights Union will meet Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Emma Jones, Otterbein Ave.

There will be an all day meeting of the superintendents at Garfield Park Wednesday. All members are invited to come and bring basket lunches. In case of rain the meeting will be held in the shelter house.

West Washington Union will have charge of an open air meeting at West Washington and Belle View Pl. Sunday at 7:30 p. m. Five churches in that vicinity will participate.

The Rev. W. E. Ciska will conduct devotions and the Rev. C. A. Wright will give an illustrated lecture. The Imperial Quartette, consisting of C. L. Hunt, Walter Ryerson, William Hayward and F. E. Ellis will sing. Mrs. F. L. Prew will give a reading and the quartette from West Washington Methodist church will sing. Mrs. Minnie Nater Bronson will give an address.

The Artman Y. P. B. have elected these new officers for the coming year: Miss Dorothy Ragdale, president; Miss Mildred Denny, vice president; Miss Jessie Davis, secretary; Glenn Miller, treasurer.

Miss Dorothy Ragdale, who is a member of the Lilly Club in the industrial federation, is spending ten days (Aug. 17-27) at the student conference of the Y. W. C. A. at Lake Geneva, Wis. For several years the local association has carried on student-industrial cooperation study through its industrial department. This study has been done by a group of girls from Butler College and a group from the Y. W. C. A. industrial federation. Miss Nordholt is representing the Indianapolis federation at this present conference.

On Tuesday night the Young Business Women's Club will meet at the home of Myra Majors, 1916 E. Washington St. The annual election of officers will be held.

Mrs. Anna Roadcap, Y. W. C. A. swimming instructor, has announced that during September a swimmer's contest will be held at the Y. W. C. A. with the American Red Cross. A button will be awarded to all beginners who are able to swim fifty feet, free style. To experienced swimmers a button will be awarded when they can do the following: Swim 100 yards, using two or more kinds of strokes; swim fifty feet back-stroke, straight front dive; surface dive.

In slight cuts, wash the wound with pure water, boiled if possible. Peroxide of hydrogen is also excellent. When properly cleaned, apply iodine or tincture of iodine in equal parts (dilute of iodine) with a small brush or swab of absorbent cotton. Put a piece of sterilized gauze or clean white cotton over the wound and bandage.

In deeper cuts, where an artery has been injured, it may be necessary to use a ligature, to tie or bind the ends of the severed artery. In severe cases a tourniquet may be needed to prevent bleeding to death.

In such a case, bind the wound between the cut and the body with a small rope, a strip of cotton or rubber bands. Insert a stick under the binder, and twist until the bleeding stops.

If the instrument is dull, incision, a jagged wound, may result. Such must be carefully treated to remove dirt or foreign matter. The flesh and cuticle must be bound together to avoid scars.

TREATMENT OF CUTS
DON'T neglect a cut, no matter how trifling. Infection frequently has resulted in loss of a finger or toe. Blood poisoning may result in weeks of sickness. The whole system may feel the effects of careless treatment.

"Clean cuts" are made by a sharp blade passing through the cuticle, or outer skin, into the vascular, or true skin. If only the capillaries or a small vein is injured, the bleeding soon stops. If deep, an artery may be severed or muscles, tendons and ligaments injured.

Sister Mary's KITCHEN

VEGETABLE HASH
To make a little meat go a long way, try mixing it with vegetables in a sort of aristocratic hash.

Many men object to "made" dishes and insist that "plain meat and potatoes is good enough." But while vegetables are in season and plentiful, they are cheap and absolutely necessary to health, and if half a pound of meat can be "fixed up" to serve four persons and at the same time furnish a more wholesome diet, why not be firm, but kind with the men folk and serve the cheaper and ideal summer food?

Baked Hash
One-half pound round steak, 1 cup chopped carrots, 1 cup chopped raw potatoes, 3 onions, 1 cup milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon minced parsley.

Put meat, carrots, potatoes and onions through the food chopper. Mix thoroughly and add milk and seasoning. Put in a casserole, cover with butter and bake an hour.

Farmer's Chowder
One-fourth pound salt pork, 2 medium sized potatoes, 1 1/2 cups milk, 2 cups corn cut from the cob, 2 onions, 2 tomatoes, 1/4 teaspoon pepper.

Cut the pork into tiny pieces. Fry a delicate brown. Add onions chopped, the potatoes pared and cut into inch dice. Cover with boiling water and cook slowly for thirty minutes. Add corn, milk, tomatoes and pepper and cook fifteen minutes longer. Dip soda crackers in cold milk and place in soup tureen. Pour chowder over them and serve at once.

Corn and Veal Ratinikins
Two cups sweet corn cut from the cob, 1/4 cup chopped left-over veal, 3 tablespoons butter, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 3 tablespoons flour, 1 1/2 cups milk, 1 teaspoon minced onion, 1 green pepper, buttered crumbs.

Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Dip pepper in boiling water, then in cold water and rub off outer skin. Remove seeds and white ribs and chop very fine. Add salt, pepper, corn, meat, onion and pepper to white sauce and mix well. Turn into buttered baking dish or a large baking dish and cover with buttered crumbs. Bake twenty minutes in a hot oven.

Snow Balls
One-half cup rice, 4 cups boiling water, 1 teaspoon salt, 4 tomatoes, 1/2 cup cold chopped meat, 1 teaspoon minced onion, 4 tablespoons shredded celery, 2 tablespoons shredded cabbage.

Add salt to boiling water and slowly add rice. Boil half an hour, drain and hold under cold water. Drain. Sauté tomatoes and slip off skins. Remove seeds and centers and chop shell. Mix meat, tomatoes, onion, celery and cabbage. Season with salt and pepper. Put a large spoonful of rice on a six-inch square of cheesecloth, flatten and spread to within one-fourth inch from the edge of the rice with meat mixture.

Roll up, stirring constantly. Dip pepper in boiling water, then in cold water and rub off outer skin. Remove seeds and white ribs and chop very fine. Add salt, pepper, corn, meat, onion and pepper to white sauce and mix well. Turn into buttered baking dish or a large baking dish and cover with buttered crumbs. Bake twenty minutes in a hot oven.

Log Off; Boy Rallies
Haskell Cameron, 13, of 523 N. Noble St., is improving at the city hospital where he was taken Friday after his right leg was severed at the knee by a freight car on the Big Four railroad at Sherman Dr. near Twenty-first St. Witnesses told police the boy and a companion were "hopping trains."

SEARCH FOR GIRL TURNS THIS WAY

Search for Miss Mazie Gilmore, pretty 16-year-old Terre Haute girl, who disappeared ten days ago, has been directed toward Indianapolis.

Fear that she may have come to harm at the hands of a former convict who was sent to prison for an attempted attack upon her some years ago was expressed by friends and relatives.

According to Mazie's sister, Miss Nellie Gilmore of Vincennes, the man swore he would "get even" when his term was up.

The man was paroled to a citizen of Indianapolis, who was made responsible for his conduct.

Neighbors of the missing girl told Terre Haute police the man Mazie feared had driven past the house in an automobile and at sight of him the girl became hysterical.

Later a prowler was chased from Miss Gilmore's home by neighbors.

Martha Lee Her Column

'Revenge Is Sweet'
Dear Mrs. Lee: I have known four years, I went with him steady last year, but we had a little argument. He got jealous.

He brought me home. He acted very nice. He said my friend told him I asked why he acted so queer after our little fuss. He did not even mention his name. He said he asked about me and not to worry why I should dislike owning up asking about him. He should have had I remembered.

We had a day the next Tuesday. Then he asked for another date and asked me to have some friends over, but he was "stung" me.

He is very, very strong for revenge. Do you think maybe I did something to make him get revenge? Should I speak and demand an apology? I want to know his friendship.

Looks as if he did plan revenge because you would not admit asking about him. Case of hurt pride. You can do nothing. You have reason to "cut" him until he apologizes. Don't be so stubborn next time.

After Quarrel
Dear Mrs. Lee: I have a boy friend who is sore at me. He has a costly pin of mine.

2. Should a young girl wear a hat in the afternoon?

3. Suggest some places boys and girls could spend evenings, besides going to shows and dances.

AN AQUISITIVE VAMP
1. If the boy does not return the pin, as he should, write him a note asking him to send it back. Hereafter, be more careful with costly pins.

2. Depends on how young she is, where she is going and where she lives. In Indianapolis, girls wear hats downtown, but frequently go without them other places.

3. Try staying at home. It's not so bad, really.

Millionaire's Son
Dear Mrs. Lee: I am a girl 18 years old. I go with a boy 19. His parents are very wealthy and he is a typical millionaire's son, wild and fast at times. However, when he goes with me he is a perfect gentleman. I like him so well I hate to see him act the way he does when he is out with other girls. I wonder whether you could tell me a way to "show him up."

The best way is to make him care enough for you to be willing to "show up" rather than lose your friendship. When you have done that, tell him he either will have to be a "perfect gentleman" away from you, as well as with you, or stop coming to see you. Then stick to your statement.

They're Not Vamps
Dear Mrs. Lee: We are two blondes, 14 years old. We have had many affairs with boys. All our boy friends brand us as vamps and have written you many letters concerning this. Although you have told many boys to keep away from us, they persist in coming back. We thank you for the advice you have given them, but tell us how we may get rid of them. We don't want to hurt their feelings by telling them to keep away from us.

TWO BLONDE VAMPS
What troubles! Really, girls, you know you do not have to be called "vamps," if you do not wish to. Conduct yourselves in an unvampiric way, and I am sure the name will not stick. Neither will the boys.

NIGHT LETTER FROM MRS. JOSEPH GRAVES HAMILTON TO HER DAUGHTER, LESLIE PRESCOTT

I forgot to mention that, in Karl's last letter which came while you were very ill, he asked my permission to give Alice what he called a modest string of pearls. I think it is preposterous, although I know that a string of pearls means nothing to him. What do you think about it? In some way Alice has found out that he wants to give them to her and she cabled me yesterday begging me to give my consent. Wire answer. MOTHER.

Night Letter From Leslie Prescott to Mrs. Joseph Graves Hamilton.

I think it would be perfectly all right. Let Alice have her pearls. She has always seemed to feel rather envious of me ever since she gave me that lovely set of imitation ones. I think at times she wanted them back. Alice is not grown up yet, although she thinks she is. We all know that Karl looks upon her as his little sister. LESLIE.

Cable From Mrs. Joseph Graves Hamilton to Alice Hamilton.

Tell Karl he has my consent to give you the pearls. Be sure it is a small string and the pearls are small. Others would not be becoming to a young girl. MOTHER.

Cable From Alice Hamilton to Mrs. Joseph Graves Hamilton.

I was so sure you would give your consent that I had already accepted the pearls from Karl. They are wonderful. You are a dear and Karl the sweetest thing that ever lived. ALICE.

Cable From Karl to Mrs. Joseph Graves Hamilton.

Thank you, my dear Mrs. Hamilton, for giving me one of the greatest pleasures of my life. Alice is very happy. Consequently so am I. KARL.

Note From Mrs. Harry Ellington to Mrs. Leslie Prescott.

Harry told me today that you were able to see visitors. I have not yet gotten over the shock of our accident.
