

WOMEN VOTERS IN ACTIVE SEASON TO SOLICIT MEMBERS

League Concludes State-Wide Summer Campaign to Further Cause.

With the aim of enrolling two thousand new members this fall, neighborhood organization meetings of the League of Women Voters, have been held in different sections of the city, to acquaint women voters with the principles of the league and to educate them for the coming party conventions.

Mrs. Richard Coleman was hostess for a tea at her home, Aug. 7, for which Mrs. Alice Foster Mullins, the State president, was the principal speaker. Miss Sylvia Levy gave readings.

A neighborhood lawn party was given Aug. 8, for the Fourth ward at the home of Mrs. N. B. Spellman, with Judge Arthur Robinson, Mrs. Gertrude McHugh, Mrs. Allen T. Fleming, and Miss Alma Slicker as speakers.

Directors Meeting
The board of directors of the Indianapolis League met for luncheon Aug. 10, with Mrs. Ira T. Holmes of Castleton. Those who attended the luncheon were Mrs. Allen T. Fleming, Mrs. Mary Knippenburg, Mrs. Albert J. Beveridge, Mrs. Clarence A. Martin, Mrs. J. W. Friday, Mrs. Marie Karver, officers of the league; Mrs. Warren T. McCray, Mrs. George Pinckney, Mrs. Richard F. Coleman, Mrs. W. T. Barnes, Mrs. John Downing, Mrs. W. W. Trench, Mrs. David Lurvey, Miss Sarah Lauter, Miss Alma Slicker, Miss Ida Curry, Mrs. LeRoy Kahler, Mrs. I. E. Hatton, Mrs. Florence Howell, Mrs. Henry Beck, and Mrs. N. B. Spellman, directors and committee chairmen. After the luncheon, the board attended a lawn party at the home of Mrs. J. W. Gordon at which members of the board were speakers.

Mrs. LeRoy Kahler was hostess for a tea Aug. 11 at the home of Mrs. Mullins and Miss Bernice Van Sickle were on the program.

Criminal Judge James A. Collins. Mrs. Hugh McGibney, Mrs. Gertrude McHugh and Miss Alma Slicker spoke at an organization meeting of the Fourth Ward League of Women Voters Aug. 13 at the home of Mrs. N. B. Spellman.

A membership party was given Aug. 21 at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hobbit. Mrs. George C. Pinckney had charge of the program, which included an address by Mrs. Alice Foster Mullins, readings by Mrs. Wayne Reddick and a group of songs by Mrs. Jessamine Barkley Pritch, accompanied by Mrs. William Herbert Gibbs.

Members of the Evansville League of Women Voters gathered informally at the Hotel McCurdy Aug. 15 to meet Mrs. Allen T. Fleming, president of the Indianapolis league, who was a visitor in the city.

"The Personality of President Harding and How Vacancies of the Cabinet Were Filled" was the topic of discussion at the August meeting of the Newburgh League of Women Voters, which was held Aug. 12 at the public library. After the business program an address was given by Nat H. Youngblood on "The Constitution of the United States."

The treasury of the Rensselaer League of Women Voters was considerably "cheered" as a result of a successful lantern slide at the H. R. Kurrie home. Music for the evening was furnished by the Rensselaer band and an orchestra composed of Linnie Bird Raines, Gladys and Lenora Carr, Al Leavel and Deles Merritt. An amusing sketch and pantomime play were presented in addition to dancing numbers by Miss Louise Grace of Chicago, and an excellent evening's entertainment was given.

Mrs. William Whinery was elected president; Mrs. William Myers, vice president; Mrs. Core Douglas, secretary; Mrs. C. E. Ehret, assistant secretary, and Mrs. Maude Robinson, treasurer, of the Hammond League of Women Voters at the August meeting. The ward chairman will be appointed by the official board.

LETTER FROM MRS. MARY ALDEN PRESCOTT TO MRS. JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT.

MY DEAR LESLIE:
I wish you would find out for me why it is that John does not answer my letters or the letters of dear Priscilla Bradford, who has written to him for me when I have been too ill to write for myself.

John never neglected me this way before he was married and I certainly do not think he should do it now. I often wonder if either he or you appreciates the fact that I took care of him and ministered to his wants long before he knew there was a girl named Leslie Hamilton in this world.

I wrote him some months ago that I was having my house painted and explained to him the reason I did so was because the one painter in the town was not busy. I also told him it was not convenient for me to pay for it, expecting, of course, he would send a check by return mail.

Although both I and Priscilla Bradford have repeatedly asked him for the money, he has paid no attention to us. I cannot understand it. John was not like this until he married you. Now this last terrible thing that he has done is simply breaking his mother's heart.

He has told you, of course, how I objected to his giving to that nameless brat the honorable baptismal name of John Alden. When I read of it from a clipping I found in the paper, for John knew better than to

Monotony May Have Made Eve Eat Apple

Adam and Eve had no one to relieve the monotony of each other's company. Perhaps that is why Eve fell for the serpent's "line."

Today, as in the days of the Garden of Eden, the tempter finds his easiest victims in places where monotony has full sway.

Two people, living entirely to themselves, no matter how devoted, are sure to irritate each other many times.

Even honeymooners may weary of each other if they never are separated.

The absence that "makes the heart grow fonder" may be just an absence of a few hours. But it helps.

Other Companions Needed
Dear Miss Lee: I am a married woman 32 years old. My husband and I always devoted we are to each other. Of course, that's the only way to be. I belong to two lodges. While we were going together, he asked that we just lodge and be together every night after we were married. He said it would be better just to go places where we could be together.

I gave up going to lodge. Last night one of the men from my husband's lodge came and asked him to go to a meeting Friday night. He wants to go just once of course. I am not going to stand in his way. Now, Miss Lee, do you think it is right for him to go? I know he loves me dearly. A DEVOTED WIFE.

Loving you ardently, your husband did not realize that he would miss the companionship of his men friends. If he gave it up entirely. He is only human to want to get back among the "fellows" once in a while. Let him go to his lodge meeting, and don't worry about him. He loves you none the less because he wishes to go.

Husband Is Drinker

Dear Miss Lee: I am a woman 27 years old and married a man 43, three years ago. My husband is a steady worker and provides but he takes spells of drinking in the evening, three and four times a week. I can you advise me on this.

BEAUTY BLUE EYES
Give your husband fair warning that he must give up either drink or you. If he does not stop, go away with the understanding that you will return when he changes his habits.

Nalley-Arnholter Wedding Is One of Loveliest Fall Events

ONE of the loveliest of fall weddings took place this afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. A. Nalley, daughter of Mrs. L. A. Nalley, 1125 Bellefontaine St., became the bride of Harold Arnholter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Arnholter, 1221 Prospect St., at the Central Christian Church, the Rev. Allan B. Philipoff officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with beech leaves, palms and ferns.

Mrs. Dorothy Knight Greene, organist, played "The Wedding Day," by Grieg, "On Wings of Song," by Mendelssohn; "I Love Thee," by Grieg, and the Barcarole from "Tales From Hoffman," by Offenbach.

Fred Newell Morris sang "My Love Is Like a Red Rose," by McDermid. Miss Helen Shrock sang "Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses," Lohengrin's Wedding March was played for the entrance of the bride and Mendelssohn's "Bridal Chorus" for the recessional.

The little ribbon bearers, Robert and Alfred Kuerst, in suits of white silk, marked the aisle with orchid and green satin ribbons.

Eight sorority sisters of the bride were bridesmaids. They wore tulle and georgette frocks in rainbow shades and bandeaus of silver ribbon. Each carried an arm bouquet of fall roses in pastel shades. They were: Elsie Neff, Alice Askins, Nina Crowder, Carney Redding, Bertha Whitworth, Almira Davis, Ruth Thomas and Pearl Remis. The ushers: Earl Woods, Walter Gurley, Harvey Tomlin, Gale Swalley, Morton Haynes and Wallace Heller.

Miss Lois Haynes, maid of honor, was charming in a gown of silver and sweet briar duchess satin with a wreath of gold leaves in her hair.

GIRLS TO ATTEND Y. W. C. A. CONCLAVE AT FOREST BEACH

Delegates Leave Monday for Advanced Conference in Michigan.

A delegation of seven girls from the industrial department of the local Young Women's Christian Association will attend a conference at Forest Beach, Mich., from Sept. 4 to 6, for advanced members of industrial departments in local associations.

An attempt will be made to crystallize the thinking of the various groups who have been discussing the questions of regional reorganization, membership, education and legislation.

The regional reorganization of the Y. W. C. A. industrial work has become an important question since the national work of the Y. W. C. A. has been reorganized from eleven fields into six regions.

The federation of the local association have been working on a questionnaire on education which was sent out by the national headquarters, for the past three months. Under legislation the discussion will relate to laws for women throughout the United States and comparison will be made of laws of different States.

Delegates: Etta Jacobs, Elia Thorpe, Jeanie Paton, Eleanor Salmon, Clara Vincent, Myra Majors and Louise Ehrhott. The secretaries in the Indianapolis industrial department, Miss Gertrude Sykes and Miss Dorothy Bean, will also attend.

A group of girls from the industrial department are spending the week-end and Labor Day at Camp Rockwood. Members: Lena Fortney, Beulah May Keating, Louise Ehrhott, Fern Bowers, Clara Snyder, Dorothy Nordholt, Clara Masterson, Patsy Badley, Laura Nard, Miss Frances Hancock, girls' work secretary, is acting as hostess.

After Labor day the Y. W. C. A. camp will be open only for week-ends. Miss Florence E. Latham, membership secretary, has returned to her work at the association after a vacation at Lake Winona.

The federation council held a called meeting Thursday night to arrange final details for the Forest Beach conference.

The regular monthly meeting of the federation council will be held Tuesday night. At that time reports will be made by the programs and educational committees as to plans for this year's work.

The Tadpoles and the Carry-On Club held their regular club meetings Friday night. Officers for the year were elected.

The program and educational committees of the federation met Friday night. The program committee made plans for the programs for Wednesday night supper meetings. The educational committee planned for the class work to be offered. The Wednesday night federation meetings will start the first week in October.

The millinery and show card lettering classes will be the only ones in the general education department in September. These will begin during the week of Sept. 17, all others will start Oct. 1.

Mrs. May King Stevenson, instructor in sewing at the Y. W. C. A., will offer this fall a course in dress design, the first week in October. The purpose of it will be to assist girls and women to plan their apparel more artistically. The class will meet for twelve weeks on Wednesdays from 7 to 9 p. m.

Mrs. Esther Miers, director of the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria, returned to her duties on Sept. 1.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE?

Physicians who examine life insurance applicants frequently detect high blood pressure. Examinations in New York by the Life Extension Institute and by war examining boards showed the same thing.

High blood pressure is a symptom that something is wrong. It means the heart has to exert undue force to drive the blood through the arteries, which have become thickened, restricted, narrower, so that they supply less blood to organs and tissue for cell building and repair.

In other words, heart and arteries are degenerating or wearing out, through some cause you have created, by improper diet, lack of exercise, or habits that tend to break down your resistance and health.

The main cause of arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries) is high living and high nervous tension. Rich and poor alike suffer.

Another cause is stimulating the adrenal glands (small organs adjacent the kidneys) by smoking. This secretion by these glands, in excess, affects the blood vessels, constricting them and increasing blood pressure. Don't invite high blood pressure by intemperance in eating or working. Seek your physician before you have to live the hygienic life you should have developed in youth.

Bond Sale Authorized

The Bloomington Water Company has been authorized by the public service commission to sell $490,000 in securities for the construction of a water plant near the city. Through a bond issue the city of Bloomington eventually will come into possession of the improvement, according to a contract between the city and the company, which the commission also approved.
