

LOCAL MAN HEADS HIBERNIAN ORDER

Gaelic Fraternity Elects
Nicholas Carroll President.

Two Indianapolis men were made officers of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Indiana at the closing session of the biennial State convention in the Hotel Severin Tuesday. They are Nicholas Carroll, Indianapolis, president, and Dennis E. Sullivan, secretary. Others elected were: John J. Meehan, Muncie, vice president; James F. McCarty, Whiting, treasurer, re-elected.

W. H. Delaney, Chicago, national secretary of the Hibernians, and P. H. O'Donnell, Chicago, national president of the American Unity League and editor of Tolerance magazine, were speakers at a banquet Tuesday night, which closed the convention. Mrs. I. R. LaPorte, Indianapolis, president of the auxiliary, was toastmistress.

MINE UNION LEADERS INVITED TO CONVE

Ku-Klux Klan Asks Indiana District
Men to Conference.

Officials of the Ku-Klux Klan have invited John Hessler, president, and William A. Mitch, secretary of the Indiana organization of the United Mine Workers of America, to a conference over alleged disputes arising in the coal fields in southern Indiana, following an appeal by Governor McCray. Officials of the Vigo Mining Company, owners of a mine seven miles southwest of Clinton, recently told Governor McCray that members of the Klan were interfering with the peaceful operation of the mine. McCray immediately wrote to Milton Elrod, editor of the Flery Cross magazine, the Klan organ, asking that a conference be held.

DIVORCEE ADVISES 'NEVER MARRY AT ALL

Changes Commandment to Girls and Asks Separate Maintenance

By United Press
CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—Mrs. Peggy Coward Drussel who advised girls not to marry a man "older than yourself" when she was divorced last March from Judge J. L. Coward, Port Chester, N. Y., today changed the commandment to "never marry at all."

Mrs. Drussel filed suit for separate maintenance against J. D. Drussel, present husband, charging Drussel posed as a man of wealth and then tried to get money from her. She also claims he has been posing in Louisville as a single man.

COURT AIDE DIES; STRICKEN IN AUTO

Funeral Plans for H. A. Couch
Not Complete.

Funeral arrangements for Harry A. Couch, 52, of 85 N. Irvington Ave., reporter in Federal Court at intervals during fifteen years of residence here, who died suddenly Tuesday, have not been completed.

Mr. Couch suffered tubercular hemorrhage while driving in his auto on Alton Ave. near Washington St.

Mr. Couch was a shorthand reporter and had worked at his occupation for twenty-five years in Omaha, Neb.; Dallas, Waco, and Galveston, Texas. He was born in Kansas. He gave up active work three weeks ago.

Mr. Couch was a member of Oriental Lodge of Masons, and of the Kiwanis, Optimists and Century Clubs. He was a veteran of the Spanish-American War.

Surviving: The widow; a daughter, Hallie; a sister, Mrs. Hallie C. Ingram of Fresno, Cal.

SAFETY OF QUAKE VICTIMS DOUBTED

William Kaylor Escapes at Tokio, Mother Told.

Although anxiety and fear of some Indianapolis persons as to the fate of relatives and friends in the devastated area of Japan has been relieved by messages, others are still in doubt. William G. Taylor, representing the Westinghouse Airbrake Company in Japan, has escaped injury, according to a telegram received by Mrs. Mary G. Kaylor, his mother, 746 Fletcher Ave.

Mrs. John Culbertson, 5759 E. Michigan St., has received no word from her sister, Mrs. R. H. Stanley, who with her husband has been in Y. M. C. A. work in Tokio.

A Methodist missionary, Miss Case, who lived east of Indianapolis, is believed to be on a furlough in the United States, according to Bishop Frederick D. Leete.

Mrs. L. D. Stanley, Belmont Apt., Delaware and Michigan Sts., fears for the safety of her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Stanley Robinson, living at the Grand Hotel at Yokohama.

ILLINOIS REPUBLICANS FAVOR ENDING FEUD

Seek Candidate to Steer Clear of Factional Disputes.

By United Press
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 5.—Republicans in Illinois are in favor of ending the political feud which has been rending the party for the past four years, by nominating a candidate who will steer clear of the factional dispute.

Either former Governor Lowden or Secretary of State Louis Emerson is most generously looked to as the best qualified leader.

Frank L. Smith and John H. Harrison also are prominently mentioned.
