

McAuliffe Explodes Fistic Bomb; Fears Dempsey Has Lost K. O. Punch

OLD RING STAR ASSERTS CHAMP LACKS STRENGTH

Fails to Stop Awkward Sparring Partner in Exhibition—Efforts to Become Artistic Boxer Criticized.

By JACK McAULIFFE, Former World's Lightweight Champion.
NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—As sure as the sun ever rose, for the first time in the history of fistiana we will have a non-English speaking champion of the world on the night of Sept. 14 if Jack Dempsey does not change his training methods. His system employed at Saratoga Springs does not look good to me.

When Dempsey met Jess Willard he could out-sack any man in the world. I did not see him in the Brennan fight and in his fight with Tom Gibbons, but I was at a loss to understand how Gibbons stayed with him. As he socked in Toledo no man in the world could stay up in front of him for six rounds.

Old Strength Missing
After watching him train for three weeks in Saratoga I believe he has lost his punch because he has lost his strength, wind and endurance.

Two weeks ago in Schenectady I was the third man in the ring when Dempsey boxed an exhibition with Jules Rioux, his big sparring partner. He tried with all his might to knock out Rioux with a right cross, but he could not. I lengthened the last round at his request and he could not stop him.

Trying to Be Clever
Dempsey has sidetracked his cave-man stuff and he is trying to be an artist. Dempsey is not a boxer. His forte is speed and sock. He has tried to make himself clever and he has lost much of that speed and hitting power. Dempsey must get back to his Toledo form. He has been exhibiting three weeks at Saratoga and doing himself more harm than good. I doubt very much that he can get himself in the proper shape in another week and I really believe he is going to lose the fight unless he quits burning himself out and conserves his strength.

BASEBALL TITLE GAMES SATURDAY

City Association Finals at Two Parks.

The Class AA and Class A championships of the City Amateur Baseball Association will be decided Saturday.

Fairbanks-Morse, champions of the Commercial League, and the Brookside Old Fellows, champions of the Fraternal League, will play at Washington Park for the AA crown. First Baptist and Morris St. M. E. will meet at Penny Park for the Class A title.

There should be a real mound duel if those two fine left-handers, Wagner of Fairbanks-Morse and Redmond of the Redmond team, are at top form at present. If Wagner is feeling fit he will give the 1922 champs a battle.

Walter Jarvis, president of the local association, will leave Saturday for St. Louis to complete arrangements for the series between the local champions and the Mound City champs.

INDEPENDENT AND AMATEUR BALL

The 1920 Cataracts will meet at 225 E. Washington St. at 8 o'clock. The Cataracts will travel to Bloomington Sunday. For out-of-town games, address W. Day, 2401 Hillside Ave., or call Webster 1895.

The Lincoln A. A. will meet the Carmel Braves at Carmel Sunday at 2:30. All Lincoln players report at Willard Park at 9:30 a. m. Sunday for practice. Pringle, Thompson, Fio and Bennett take notice. For game Sept. 16, write H. G. Johnson, 411 Harrison St.

The Lincoln Highways (hunted) have open dates in September and are ready to meet the best clubs in the State. Huntington, Marquette, Shelbyville, Battleville, Brookville, Muncie, Wabash and Bloomington take notice. The Highways have won fourteen and lost four games. Address H. L. Coleman, 618 N. Senate Ave., or call Main 6722.

The Keystone will play the Beech Grove-Turner team Sunday. The Keystone will hold a meeting Friday evening at their grounds. The Keystone are playing under a new management. For games call Drexel 6200 between 12 and 4 and ask for Carl Fairbank.

The Fountain Square A. A. holds a park permit for Sunday. They are desiring strong opposition, call Drexel 2760, and ask for Otto.

The Favorite A. C. and Indianapolis Stars will meet in a double-header at Douglas Park Sunday. The first game will start at 1:30. All players are asked to report promptly.

$100,000 TO MEET GREB

Champ's Terms Too High for Promoters at Newark.

By United Press Staff.
NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 6.—Jack Dempsey demands the modest sum of $100,000 to enter the ring with Harry Greb, newly crowned king of the middleweights.

Therefore Jack Dempsey will not appear in the first bout at the Broad Athletic Club's new stadium at Dreamland Park with Greb as his opponent.

LOCAL BOWLERS START

Four Leagues Get Under Way on Wednesday Night.

The local bowling season got under way for a long season Wednesday night with four leagues smashing away at the maples. The loops to start were Delaware, Grotto, Washington and One Piece Hifocal. Capitol League No. 2 takes the alley tonight.

Football Rule Book
Spaulding's Intercollegiate football guide book for 1923 was received in Indianapolis today and is ready for distribution at the local Spaulding branch store.

The guide is edited by Walter Camp. It carries the rules, a resume of the 1922 season and many grid squad pictures.

Marathon Golf

NICK MORRIS

Nick Morris of San Antonio, started playing golf under a full moon at 12:40 a. m. and after nineteen hours and ten minutes called it a day. In that time he covered 290 holes. His average was eighty-five strokes to the round. Who is next?

SATURDAY LAST DAY FOR TIMES CONTEST ENTRIES

Plans for Local Elimination Competition to Be Announced Soon—Winner Gets Trip to Cleveland.

Entries for The Times contest to decide the best amateur baseball player in Indianapolis must be in by Saturday morning. Entries not received in this office by the Saturday A. M. mail cannot be considered. Everyone that wishes to enter has had plenty of time. A trip to Cleveland awaits the player chosen from this city.

The conditions of the contest exclude the seniors, and for this reason the good amateurs have a better chance than ever. If there are any who are passing up this chance it is a pity. The winning player will be looked over by his league scouts in the Cleveland competition on Oct. 1.

Perhaps some lucky sandlotter will be signed to league contracts. At any rate, it means a trip to the Ohio city at the expense of The Times. NEA service, which is handling the Cleveland arrangements, promises a fine time in that city. The national winner goes to the world's series.

Further plans and the local elimination competition will be announced very soon. Watch The Times for contest developments.

BANTAMS BOX DRAW IN FISTIC SCRAP AT FORT

Sparks and Dugan Mix in Main Event; Other Bouts.

Rain let up long enough Wednesday night for Kid Sparks, Terre Haute bantam, and Jackie Dugan of Louisville to go ten rounds to a draw at the Ft. Harrison weekly fight show.

The bantams saved most of the action for the final round and were mixing it fast and furious as the final bell rang. Up to the tenth Dugan had the better of the argument.

"Rapid" Waters, Ft. Thomas (Ky.) lightweight, went on with Danny Cohen, a welterweight, who substituted on short notice for Piggy Young. The fighters agreed that if both were on their feet at the end of the eighth the bout would be called a draw. That's what happened. Waters had the better of it.

Reamer Roberts, local bantam, got a technical knockout when Johnny Sawyer in a prelude when Sawyer failed to answer the bell in the third.

"Cholly" Young knocked out Hub Newkirk in the third round. "Matinee" Keith got the decision over "De Valera" O'Brien in a four-round affair.

Big League Liners

The Cincinnati Reds, with their star hurler, Adolfo Luque on the mound, dropped a game Wednesday to the Pirates in Pittsburgh, slid back a half game from their second place berth and widened the gap between them and first place to four full games. Lee Meadows twirled for the Pirates.

Victory Wednesday placed Pittsburgh only one game behind Cincinnati.

The Yankees, in the American League, took occasion Wednesday to fatten their lead, making it four straight from the Athletics. Babe Ruth contributed his share to the performance by pounding out his thirty-third homer.

Washington won from the Red Sox in Boston. There were only three games in the majors Wednesday.

Fernside Triangles
The Fernside Triangle basketball squad will hold an organization meeting Friday evening at the Fernside gym. Any one wishing to try for this season's squad is welcome.

COLORED TITLE CONTEST

Championship of Industrial League to Be Decided Saturday.

The championship of the Colored Y. M. C. A. Industrial Baseball League will be decided Saturday at Douglas Park, when the Citizens Gas team and Kingsmen meet.

Three teams were tied for the lead when the league closed. Last Saturday the National Malleable Casting team was eliminated by Citizens Gas.

SEVEN EVENTS ON HUGE RACE CARD AT STATE FAIR

Continued Rain Interferes With Harness Program—Start at 12:30.

If rain doesn't cease falling hereabouts shortly the State Fair Races will have to start some morning before daylight to complete the day's program. Seven events were on the card today including two unfinished races of Wednesday.

It was up to the weatherman again and even though the sun were to shine the harness racers were due to step on a muddy track. The first event today was scheduled for 12:30 p. m.

Special Match Carded
The special match race between Sanardo, driven by Pop Geers, and Johnny Quick, driven by Fred Egan, which was postponed Wednesday, was again on the program today. Everyone was hoping for a break in the weather as it has been a mighty discouraging week to the horsemen.

Other new events today were the 2:05 pace, 2:15 trot, 2:08 pace, and 2:10 pace.

In the old event finished on Wednesday, the 2-year-old trot, Trux proved the easy victor. The colt was never headed throughout the afternoon.

The Winner Is "In"
The 2:08 trot was finished as far as the winner is concerned because Walter Sterling III took the first two and in the three-heat plan this places him at the top of the summary no matter which horse wins the final.

Summaries of Wednesday's events: Two-Year-Old Trot (two in three; purse $800)—Trux, b. c. (McMahon) 1; Colman Bosworth, b. c. (McDonald) 2; Elawald's Girl, ch. f. (G. McDonald) 3. Time—2:08.4.

2:08 Trot (The Horseman stake; three heats; purse $500)—Walter Sterling, b. g. (Stokes) 1; Frederick K. b. g. (Childs) 2; J. J. David, b. g. (Valentine) 3. Time—2:13.4.

Three-Year-Old Trot (two in three; purse $1,000)—The Senator, ch. c. (McDonald) 1; Eureka Harvester, b. f. (Gates) 2; Lord Elfric, b. f. (Traynor) 3. Time—2:11.4.

2:15 Trot (The Wolverines)—Bronze Frisco, blk. c. (Wolverton) 1; Time—2:15.4.

GALA TIME FOR PENNSY BOOSTERS AT LOGANSPORT

All-Day Athletic Affair Saturday—Indianapolis Has Strong Entry List.

By Times Special
LOGANSPORT, Ind., Sept. 6.—Eight thousand Pennsylvania Railroad athletes and boosters are expected to attend the third annual outdoor athletic meet of the Employees' Athletic Association of the company at the Pennsylvania Railroad System Athletic Field, this city, Saturday.

The meet will be an all-day affair.

Contests in the following events will be staged: Tennis, baseball, golf, track and field events, rifle shooting, trapshooting, swimming, quoits and horseshoes. Of more than ordinary interest is an inter-regional baseball contest in which the Chicago nine, champions of the northwestern region, will play the Columbus, Ohio, team, holders of the southwestern region championship.

Music and Dancing
Music for the occasion will be provided by five military bands composed of talented musicians, all employees of the company. The day's program will begin at 3 a. m. and will conclude with a dance in the evening.

A line-up of athletes entered in the various contests to be staged shows 700 participants in line for competition in the various events. Indianapolis and the Indianapolis division of the Pennsylvania Railroad System will be represented by a coterie of ers recently defeated the best of the Indiana general division and of other points on the southwestern region.

The Indianapolis aggregation will be headed by Messrs R. D. McKoon, superintendent Indianapolis division; P. A. Kriesse, chairman of athletics, Indianapolis division, and G. G. Rugan, president of the Indianapolis Division Athletic Association.

A special train will carry the local group to Logansport.

INDIANS NOW IN SEVENTH PLACE

Defeat at Columbus Enables Millers to Move Up.

By Times Special
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 6.—In seventh place again. That is where the Indians were today as a result of falling a victim to Harry Weaver's slants here Wednesday. The score was 3 to 0, Columbus.

While the Indians were losing here the Millers were winning at Milwaukee and the Millers moved into sixth position.

Burwell opposed Weaver on the mound Wednesday and his support was erratic and his mates failed to hit the ball. Only four hits were obtained off Weaver. Evidently Harry is starting to pitch for next year's contract.

Frank Schreiber, another former Indian, was the batting star of the day, with three singles. Christenbury, Brown and Campbell were the only hitters able to solve the Senator twirler's goods.

Columbus scored two markers in the third and one in the eighth. Campbell played well at third for the "Tribesmen."

The Indians and Senators will play a double-header Saturday in the wind-up battles of the current series.

A. A. Features

In the Association Wednesday the Saints and Blues, pennant contenders, divided a double-header, the Saints thereby maintaining a two-game lead.

Tom Sheehan, the league's leading pitcher, was knocked out after one inning in the second Saint-Blues fracas.

East of the Millers tied Brief of the Blues for the season's home-run honors. East poked his twenty-seventh circuit blow at the expense of the Brewers.

BUTLER GRIDDERS ON DECK MONDAY

First Thud of Pigskin Due Next Week.

Coach Pat Pag returned Wednesday to the Butler camp from mPawPaw, Mich., where he spent his vacation.

Monday is the football gunshot day for all schools of the Indiana conference and at that time Pag will meet about 100 eager men who are ready to get into the harness.

"This is going to be one of the hardest years in Indiana football," said the coach today. "Butler will have to improve thirty per cent in order to finish a successful season. Butler last year was building a reputation, but this year she has to maintain her position, which will be twice as difficult."

"It will be a big job to get a formidable team in shape in about two weeks for Hanover which is played Sept. 22."

Butler's chances in Indiana championship honors are fair. Something more definite on the prospects can be ascertained Monday at the first practice.
