

DRASTIC ACTION IS PROMISED IN RUM BRIBE PLOT

Eleven Are Under Arrest in Million-Dollar Conspiracy.

By United Press
NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Drastic action today was promised by United States District Attorney Hayward, following arrest of eleven men in a gigantic bribery conspiracy to secure protection from prohibition agents. A daring attempt to flood New York with New Jersey beer started with a $1,000,000 bribe fund put up by New Jersey brewers, declared Hayward. The brewers, Hayward said, had protection not only from the law, but rival brewers in Pennsylvania, who were attempting to cut in on the New York business.

SEEK CHECK WORKER

J. M. Sims Wanted in Connection
With Closing of Hope Bank.

By Times Special
HOPE, Ind., Oct. 19.—An effort is being made to find J. M. Sims, said to be responsible for the closing of the State bank here pending an audit of its books.

Sims, said to be an oil stock salesman, kited checks amounting to $30,000. He is known to have tried to sell certificates of deposits on the Hope bank at Shelbyville and Edinburgh.

It was because of inquiries by prospective purchasers that led to an investigation of the bank's book and its closing. He was last seen in Indianapolis the day before the bank was closed. His whereabouts have not been learned.

STOKES CO-RESPONDENT WILL DEFEND WIFE

Former U. S. Counsel Testifies in Favor of Millionaire.

By United Press
NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Edgar T. Wallace, named as the principal co-respondent in W. E. D. Stokes' suit for divorce from his wife, was on his way East today to take the stand in Helen Elwood Stokes' defense.

Cross-examination by Mrs. Stokes' attorney did not shake the testimony of Horace G. Knowles, former United States counsel, who said he saw the wife of the aged millionaire in the apartments of Wallace on different occasions.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to serious complications.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Advertisement.
