PARK PROGRAM IS GENERALLY O. K.D BY CIVIC LEADERS

Recreation and Health Plans Meet Club Approval.

General approval of the 1924 park program, adopted last week, was given today by leaders of active civic clubs of Indianapolis.

"It impresses me very favorably," commented the Rev. C. B. Baker, 201 N. Addison St., president of the Hawthorne Community Association. "I'm especially interested in the expanding of small parks and constructing parks and swimming pools that lead into the small neighborhoods. I'm in favor of the program as outlined."

Miss Viola M. Baxter, 1605 Olive St., president of the Pleasant Run Blvd. Association, presiding over the proposed construction of Pleasant Run Blvd. from Meridian St. to Bluff Rd. and from Meridian St. to Garfield Park.

"It looks to me like it would be a fine program," said Mrs. J. D. Hoss, 1723 Brookside Ave., president of the Speeds Community Protective Association. "I think the beautification of grounds around the city hospital is very fitting."

Warns Against Overburdening
Clarence E. Weir, 2423 Broadway, president of the College Ave. Civic Association, Indiana, presiding over the proposed park board, thought that beyond the ability of the public to pay, it is planning to do."

"Those who started our park system did a very fine thing, but we must be careful and see that the public is not burdened with taxes."

"I endorse the program in general," said John F. White, 1545 Lexington Ave., president of the South-eastern Civic Improvement Club. "Although there may be some features that ought to be changed, I endorse the Pleasant Run Blvd. plans and think that they ought to be carried out immediately. I also believe the improvements for Garfield Park ought to be carried out."

Wise Program—A. L. Porteus, 1723 Brookside Ave., president of the Federation of Community Civic Clubs, says: "I endorse the program in general."

A. LeRoy Porteus, 2313 Coyner Ave., president of the Brookside Civic League, says: "I think it is a very wise program. I am glad to see Brookside Park is to have a swimming pool."

Sam W. Ingle, 3178 N. Sherman St., secretary-treasurer Brightwood Civic League, endorses the program with a few objections. "I approve anything that is for the benefit of children," he said. "As for clubhouses, I think they are not necessary."

POLICE INVESTIGATE WINDOW SMASHING

One Held When Car Is Found Without Certificate of Title

Investigation into the smashing of a large plate glass window at the Indiana Dental College, Walnut and Pennsylvania Sts., Wednesday night is being made by detectives today.

Claude Eaton, 225 N. East St., is charged with failure to have a certificate of title and two men who escaped from John S. Crabb, 880 W. Twenty-eighth St., watchman at the place, are objects of a search.

Crabb told the police the men were well dressed and he believed they had been headed for an automobile parked in the alley, after they hurled a rock through the window.

After the auto was pulled to headquarters Eaton came in and admitted it stolen. Police say the license plates on the car were taken out for another make of auto.

MAN CAPTURED IN ALLEY

Shots Fired in Chase Arouses Neighborhood Residents

A chase in which four policemen fired several shots in the air in an effort to halt an escaping prisoner, caused excitement at New York and Illinois Sts., Wednesday night, and resulted in the capture of Albert Moore, 25, of Frankfort, Ky.

He is held at the city prison pending investigation of an overcoat theft at the home of Mrs. Jane Fagg, 23 E. St. Joseph St.

Detectives Emmert Egnbright and Denny Houlihan, arrested Moore in the E. M. C. A. While they were waiting for a patrol, he broke for freedom. Traffic Officers Bushong and Cline joined the chase. Moore was finally captured when he ran in a blind alley in the rear of the Marion Club.

Christmas Seal Conference

Plans for the annual Christmas seal sale by the Marion County Tuberculosis Association were formulated today at a luncheon at the Hotel Lincoln. Dr. Alfred Henry, president, was in charge. The seal sale institute was also scheduled to be held at the Lincoln today, to be addressed by Theodore J. Werle, secretary of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

$66 Cows

Seventy-two head of pure-bred registered Hereford cattle from the Governor McCray herds at Kentland, Ind., brought an average of only $66.20 each in auction sale at the State fairground Wednesday afternoon. The McCray cattle were not the finest in the herds, however. Beef cattle frequently sell for $100 and more at the local stock yards.

Fred Probst of Broad Ripple was the principal buyer, bidding in nineteen head at from $50 to $60. Thomas Taggart purchased two at $125 each.

In 1921 he was appointed general manager of the Claridge Hotel, one of the newest in St. Louis, with 400 rooms. His success in two years of service there won him the Indianapolis position.

HALF MILLION OF STATE FUND, NOW EMPTY, IS ASKED

Merry Juggling Brings Cry From Highway Board for Loan Return.

The State highway commission today requested of the State general fund immediate payment of a $500,000 loan made recently to carry the latter through an emergency.

With a balance of $368,000, and facing approximately $704,000 in payments falling due on contracts in the near future, the highway body saw fit to recall at least $500,000 of the $1,250,000 owed it by the general fund. Members of the State board of finance had expected to meet late today to find some means of raising the money necessary to repay the $500,000.

The meeting was postponed on account of the absence of State Treasurer C. W. Davis, a member. The other members are Governor McCray and State Auditor Robert Bracken.

The general fund had a balance Monday of $271,312.87, which will scarcely take care of the State's pay roll today of about $140,000 and current bills amounting to nearly $60,000.

At any rate, the general fund cannot pay the debt and its current bills at the same time without some help.

Money Needed for Road Use
John D. Williams, director of the highway commission, conferred with State Auditor Bracken late on Wednesday and informed him of the needs of the commission. Bracken said the only way to raise the money would be through a bank loan to the general fund.

Last month the highway commission received about $1,300,000 in gasoline tax collections. No sooner had the money been received than the fund was touched for a $400,000 loan to the general fund. The loan falls due Nov. 10, but Williams informed Bracken that the commission cannot wait until then. Carrying out the present road construction program will require considerably more funds than the commission now has on hand, Williams said.

General Fund Creditors
Books in Bracken's office show the general fund's creditors as follows:

Highway commission, $1,250,000; banks, $1,750,000; auto theft fund, $400,000; Purdue University endowment fund, $340,000.

So urgent have been the demands on the general fund, the State sent a call Wednesday to all county treasurers asking advance payments on tax collections ordinarily not payable until Dec. 31.

During this last twenty years, State disbursements, which represent expenses of the commonwealth, have advanced from approximately $6,000,000 annually to more than $30,000,000, according to figures compiled by Carl Cue, deputy State auditor.

In 1903 the State spent $5,918,875.99 and in 1923 the expenses were $30,453,928.94. Five years ago, in 1918, the expenses were $13,393,227.71. Receipts for the fiscal year which ended Oct. 1 totaled $31,198,435, records show.

Wherever Americans go Indiana is known as:

The home of Lew Shank and his race horse.

Dryest State in the Union.

Having a typical American population.

Native State of Beveridge and Ralston.

Seat of Governor McCray.

This is according to the impression gathered by Rear Admiral Albert P. Niblack, U. S. N., retired, after forty-seven years of service, who is visiting his sister, Miss Sarah Niblack, 109 W. North St., at the old home of his father, Judge W. E. Niblack.

He was the guest at a luncheon at the University Club at noon today given by Dr. Carlton B. McCulloch. A few of his old friends were present.

"I want to get out and hunt up old Ben Willoughby who, I hear, is now a judge of the Supreme Court. I haven't seen him for forty-five years—since we were boys together down at Vincennes," he said.

The admiral, who was in charge of the American fleet in the Mediterranean during the war, said it was "quite a sensation" to be out of harness and go where he pleased.

A keen student and author of several books of a historical nature, he discussed national politics with precision.

"You know, history shows that we have always had two major parties, and every thirty years they box the compass completely in policy, each having worked around until they stand for exactly what the other stood before."

Admiral and Mrs. Niblack were to leave this afternoon for East Creek, Mich., where they will be the guests of Dr. J. H. Kellogg, an old friend. From there they will go to Asheville, N. C., where they will live.

How I Was Wrecking the Lives of My Children

And Suffering Indescribable Tortures Myself Day and Night. A Mother's Terrible Confession.

For some time I had noticed that my two children, a boy of nine and a girl of ten, were becoming highly nervous, irritable and very disobedient. I tried various punishments, even whipping, but they kept growing worse. My own nerves were all on edge—the least thing would set me into a rage. I was too weak to work or enjoy life, too nervous and irritable to do anything but lie in bed. I suffered from severe heart palpitation and indigestion. I could not sleep at night. I had an almost constant dull aching pain in the back of my neck and head, and frequently a very disagreeable sense of fullness in the front part of my head. I often had severe pains across my back, which made me think I had kidney trouble. I could not begin to describe all the tortures and terrible pains which I suffered.

Finally I went to a doctor and told him my story. After studying my case, he told me I was the cause of my children's condition. He told me how the system only manufactured so much nerve force, and that this vital fluid of life was stored in the nerve cells, much like electricity is stored in a storage battery and is just as quickly exhausted.

I was told my own nervous condition had been a constant drain on the nerve force of my children, and that the constant nervous strain and anxiety I subjected them had wrecked their highly sensitive nervous organizations. Later all this I found out to be true, because after I regained my own nervous poise, and realized my worn out, exhausted nervous centers, and the same was done for my children, I found them to be the happiest, sweetest children in the world—their whole dispositions entirely changed.

The above is a hypothetical case, which a physician says may well illustrate thousands which exist today. Homes are wrecked, children ruined, all through exhausted nerve force. Very few people realize the terrible physical and mental torture often caused by a depletion of the nerve-vital fluid.

In such a case you need to put more nerve force into your nerves and more iron into your blood. This is best accomplished by the use of Nuxated Iron. This valuable product contains the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force in a form which most nearly resembles that in the nerve and brain cells of man.

It also contains organic iron like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. This form of iron will not blacken nor injure the teeth nor upset the stomach. It is an entirely different thing from metallic iron which people usually take. Nuxated Iron may therefore be termed both a blood and nerve food.

Over four million people are using Nuxated Iron annually, and from the remarkably beneficial results which it has produced, the manufacturers feel so certain of its efficacy that they guarantee satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. For sale by all druggists.—Advertisement.

RUM RAIDS BRING EIGHT ARRESTS IN 24-HOUR WARFARE

Evaporated Evidence Wins Dismissal for One Defendant.

Eight raids, nine arrests and the issuing of two arrest warrants and the dismissal of a case in city court because of evaporated evidence marked the progress of the booze warfare in the police department during the past twenty-four hours.

Two quarts of wine turned to nothing and a small amount of whiskey became destroyed in the case of Isadore Kobay, 529 N. Capitol Ave., arrested Dec. 18, 1922, at 428 W. Washington St.

Judge Pro Tem. Thomas Whallon dismissed the long pending affidavit.

Police allege they found liquor on the property of William Johnson, 21, colored, 815 Indiana Ave., and Henry Jones, colored, 25, of same address, Bernice Carpenter, colored, 39, of 332 W. Tenth St.; Joe De Graffenreid, 53, colored, 556 Indiana Ave., and Ethel Rogers, 28, colored, 624 E. Miami St.

Meyer Gojas, 18, of 1008 S. Illinois St., is charged with blind tiger, inciting a riot and resisting officers.

Warrants were issued for David Epstein, 610 S. West St., and Hester Murphy, 353 Indiana Ave., after officers say they found liquor at their places in their absence. In the raid on 815 Indiana Ave., Jerry Evans, colored, 325
