

FOUR INJURED IN FIRE TRUCK-AUTO CRASH AT CORNER

Rail Engine Strikes Man in Car—Is Found Unconscious.

Five persons, injured in two automobile accidents Thursday night, are in a serious condition at the hospital today.

50 Persons have been killed in 50 accidents in Marion County this year.

1537 Have been involved in traffic accidents. It is your duty to make the streets safe.

Injuries to the shoulders and body: Mrs. Mary Gilbreath, 70, injuries to head and body: Mrs. Lillian Bauder, 21, a wrenched back and possibly internal injuries, and her 2-year-old son Charles, with cut about the head.

They were all injured when their car was struck by squad wagon No. 2 from engine house No. 30, at New Jersey and South St., driven by George Oakes, 557 Sanders St., at Virginia Ave. and Bradshaw Sts. The fire squad was on the way to an alarm at State and Orange Sts., and were going south on Virginia Ave.

Truck Misses Phone Pole

Payne, who had parked his machine at the corner, cranked his car and evidently did not hear the warning of the siren, bell or the shouts of Patrolmen Brumfield and M. O'Brien, who were near by.

He started to turn. The fire wagon swerved to miss a machine that swung to the curb, struck Payne's car, turned it over and stopped at Grove St., after running between a telegraph pole and store front.

Witnesses said Payne evidently failed to hear the warnings police said.

Other members of the squad, uninjured, are: Wayne Hunter, Arthur Moar and Henry S. Hart.

Another Driver Found Senseless

Walter Brantlinger, 41, of 2915 N Olney St., has a severe scalp wound that may result in a minor skull fracture developed when his auto was struck by a Bell switch engine at Sixteenth St., Sherman Dr. and the Belt Railroad Thursday night.

Oliver Gaines, 2705 N. Gale St., engineer, and Fred Sheehan, 3241 Roosevelt Ave., fireman, said that they were running twenty miles an hour and sounded warnings.

Brantlinger was found unconscious.

Charles Coonfield, 1706 S. Harding St., was arrested today on the charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, speeding and operating a blind tiger, the result of crashing into the back end of a city asphalt wagon, on N. West St., driven by Logan Pierson, 1403 E. Sixteenth St.

WRECKED CARS TO WARN MOTORISTS

Police Safety Squad Starts 'No Accident' Campaign.

Churches, schools, and civic organizations will cooperate in the "No accident" campaign to be launched by the accident prevention bureau of the police department next week.

Wrecked automobiles will be placed in safety zones on the circle as warnings to the speeding or careless driver. A clock will be placed on the Circle which will daily record the number of accidents in the city. Each day the city hospital ambulance will make a tour of the city and set the new number of accidents.

Motion pictures of accident prevention will be shown at each performance at Keeth's. Trafficman Owens will explain the pictures. A parade of 1200 school officers will be held Friday afternoon. More than twenty floats will be in line.

Local pastors will promote the "no accident" campaign in sermons Sunday, and filling station attendants will urge safe driving upon all customers.

The Hoosier Motor Club is preparing 6,000 stickers bearing the inscription "I am pledged for Safety and Courtesy" which will be pasted on auto windshields.

RECEIVES $1,750 ANNUITY

Colored Man Rescues Girl From in Front of Train.

By Times Special

HAMMOND, Ind., Nov. 2.—An annuity of $1,750 for four years has been given Clifford Hawkins, colored, for saving the life of Miss Maria Hackett, by her father, E. J. Hackett, East Chicago, a coal operator.

Hawkins rescued the girl from in front of an approaching train when the girl's foot had become trapped in a switch frog.

FASCISTI ANNIVERSARY

Italian Consul Discusses Party's Growth to K. of C. Club.

The Fascisti movement was discussed by Dr. Vincent La Penta, royal Italian consul for Indiana, at the luncheon of the Knights of Columbus at the Spin-Arms today. Today is the anniversary of the Fascisti march on Rome.

Kentuckian Is Reslated

Albert Moore, Frankfort, Ky., was to face new charges in city court today. He was reslated on charges of grand larceny and entering a house to commit a felony. He was arrested Wednesday on a vagrancy charge. Police say he entered the home of Mrs. Jane Fagg, 23 E. St. Joseph St., and wore an overcoat.

Judge Among Judges in Proverb Contest

HERO OF POLAND TO BE HONORED GUEST SATURDAY

Legion to Entertain Gen. Josef Haller, Noted Figure in World War.

Gen. Josef Haller, hero of the new Polish nation, and supreme commander of the armies of Poland, will arrive in Indianapolis at 9 a.m. Saturday as the guest of the American Legion.

On his arrival General Haller will be greeted by a committee, including Brig. Gen. Dwight M. Aultman, commandant at Ft. Harrison, and Lemuel Boles, national adjutant of the American Legion.

Following his arrival General Haller will be taken on a tour of the city, stopping at the Legion national headquarters, where a reception will be given in his honor. At noon a luncheon will be given at the Claypool under the auspices of the Army and Navy Club.

Immediately after the luncheon General Haller will go to Ft. Harrison, where he will review the troops. In the evening a dinner will be given at the University Club. This will be followed by a theater party at English's.

Included in General Haller's party will be:

Lieut. S. H. Rodney, secretary of the distinguished guests committee of the legion; Capt. Lucian Z. Adamczak, special aide; Lieut. John Roskoz, aide; Bowman Elder, Indianapolis, chairman of the national legion distinguished guests committee; Lieut. Col. L. Briggs, U. S. A., special aide detailed by the War Department; Lieutenant Colonel Starzynski, president of the Polish Army Veterans' Association of America; Col. V. R. C. King, special aide representing the legion; Capt. Josef Siercinski, aide; Lieut. R. Hamaz, aide, representing the Polish Veterans' Association.

General Haller, a professional soldier, was one of the foremost leaders in bringing about a free Poland. He led the army when fighting was necessary and when the time for reconstruction came he was the leader of reconstruction work. It is said he is looked upon as the George Washington of Poland.

ONE DRINK COSTS LIFETIME SAVINGS

Ex-Soldier Tells Police He Is Robbed of $300.

Vincent Safranek, ex-soldier, a tailor at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, was robbed of $300, his lifetime savings, early today when rendered unconscious by one drink of liquor supplied him by a colored man and woman, according to his statement to police.

Safranek told Sergeant Sheehan and squad, who were summoned by a taxi driver, who found Safranek at North St. and Seneca Ave., that he was lured to a room by two colored persons on promise of good whisky.

The money was in an inside pocket.

Police expect to arrest the couple.

DEMOCRATS OUTLINE SUCCESS MEASURES

County Chairmen of Thirteenth District Meet at South Bend.

By Times Special

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 2. Measures which would insure success for the Democratic party in 1924 were outlined at a meeting of county chairmen of the Thirteenth congressional district here Thursday.

The judges:

Edward J. Gausepohl, president of E. J. Gausepohl & Co.

James A. Collins, judge of Marion County Criminal Court.

George Buck, principal of Shortridge High School.

If you have not entered the popular Times Proverb Contest, get in today. You may obtain the first six proverb pictures and a list of 2,000 proverbs either at The Times office or at any store with the sign "Times Proverb Station." Use the pictures thus obtained to catch up with the current issue of The Times and then clip the pictures from The Times thereafter.

You may be the winner of the $1,000 prize or of some one of the many other cash prizes.

RECEIVER TAKES CHARGE

Herbert Fleber Appointed to Manage Realty Company.

By Times Special

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 2. Measures which would insure success for the Democratic party in 1924 were outlined at a meeting of county chairmen of the Thirteenth congressional district here Thursday.

Edward J. Gausepohl, president of E. J. Gausepohl & Co.

James A. Collins, judge of Marion County Criminal Court.

George Buck, principal of Shortridge High School.

If you have not entered the popular Times Proverb Contest, get in today. You may obtain the first six proverb pictures and a list of 2,000 proverbs either at The Times office or at any store with the sign "Times Proverb Station." Use the pictures thus obtained to catch up with the current issue of The Times and then clip the pictures from The Times thereafter.

You may be the winner of the $1,000 prize or of some one of the many other cash prizes.

DIES IN AUTO MISHAP

Son of Ft. Wayne Newspaper Man Killed at Boston, Mass.

By Times Special

FT. WAYNE, Ind., Nov. 2.—According to dispatches received here today, Morton B. Williams, son of Harry M. Williams, a local newspaper man, has been killed in an automobile accident in Boston, Mass.

Williams, his body covered with bruises, staggered into his home at dawn. Johnson was still missing.

STATE OSTEOPATHS ELECT

Three local osteopaths were elected officers in the closing sessions of the Indiana Osteopathic Association at the Lincoln Thursday.

They were Dr. Roland McCabe, president; Dr. Walter Graw, secretary, and Dr. Kate Williams, treasurer. Dr. E. R. Porter of Noblesville was elected vice president. Dr. J. G. Morrison, Terre Haute, and Dr. J. C. Gulmyer, Elkhart, were elected trustees.

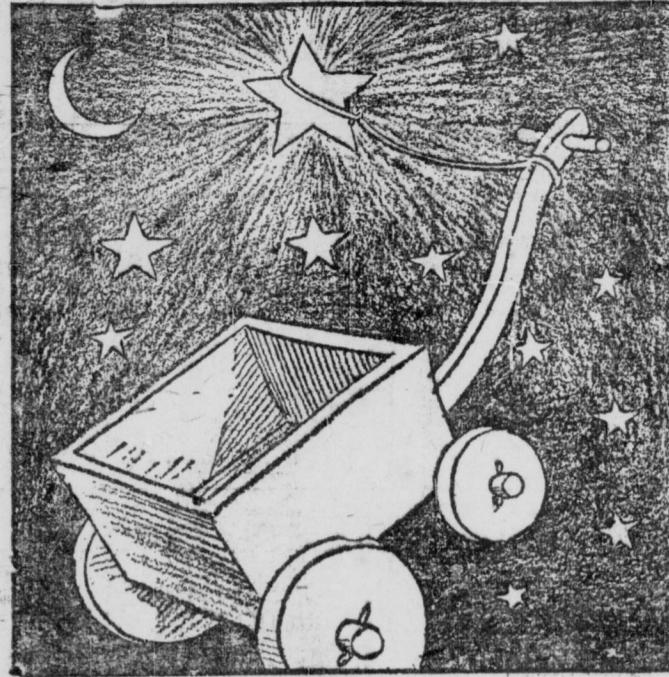

An Honest Man

A letter containing $1.35 stolen from William Fansler, Acton, fifty-seven years ago, has been received by his son, Fred Fansler, owner of an elevator at Acton. The letter bore no name.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets. The box bears the signature of E. W. Grove, 300.—Advertisement.

PROVERB PICTURE NO. 5—NOV. 2

The answer is

My name is

I live at

City State

FIRST PRIZE $1,000 CASH

Second Prize	$500 Cash
Third Prize	$250 Cash
Fourth Prize	$100 Prize
Fifth Prize	$75 Cash
20 Prizes	$5 Each

RULES GOVERNING CONTEST

Prizes will be awarded for the best and most appropriate answers from among those submitted by contestants. First prize will be awarded to the person who submits the largest number of such answers, second prize to the person submitting the second largest number of such answers, etc., in the event of a tie, care and neatness displayed in preparation of answers will be considered.

Answers must be sent in a complete set of 60 proverb pictures in order to qualify for any prize.

Answers are not to be sent until the entire 60 proverb pictures have appeared in The Times.

Answers may be submitted for each proverb. Where more than one answer is submitted to any proverb all will be thrown out.

Only one set of answers may be submitted by any one person and only one member in any one family can win a prize.

Answers must be submitted in one set to The Proverb Contest Editor on or before Nov. 19, 1923.

Employees of The Times or members of their families cannot participate in this contest.

The Indianapolis Times will deposit each drawing and correct answer with the B. Smith, who presides and causer of the Fletcher American Bank in advance of each publication.

There will be three judges—an educator, a judge of our courts and one business man of Indianapolis. Names to be announced later. The decision of the judges will be final in all matters related to the contest.

Watch The Times for further information to be published daily.

RITES SATURDAY FOR WILLIAM W. ROCKHILL

the police. No trace of the men could be found.

MOTHER!

"California Fig Syrup"

Dependable Laxative for Sick Baby or Child

Hurry Mother! Even a bilious, constipated, feverish child loves the pleasant taste of "California Fig Syrup."

It never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow!

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.—Advertisement.

The petition stated that Lyle Laub, president of the Realty Finance and Building Company of Indianapolis, was taken in charge by Herbert Fleber today. He was named receiver in bankruptcy by Judge Albert B. Anderson in Federal Court Thursday after a bankruptcy petition against the company had been filed by Barron G. Collier, Inc., of New York City, William Waters and W. K. Stewart & Co., both of Indianapolis.

The petition stated that Lyle Laub, president of the company, had disappeared. It also charged that while insolvent the company conveyed real estate to James P. Goodrich as trustee and L. H. Wright as trustee.

The petition stated that Lyle Laub, president of the company, had disappeared. It also charged that while insolvent the company conveyed real estate to James P. Goodrich as trustee and L. H. Wright as trustee.

The petition stated that Lyle Laub, president of the company, had disappeared. It also charged that while insolvent the company conveyed real estate to James P. Goodrich as trustee and L. H. Wright as trustee.

The petition stated that Lyle Laub, president of the company, had disappeared. It also charged that while insolvent the company conveyed real estate to James P. Goodrich as trustee and L. H. Wright as trustee.

The petition stated that Lyle Laub, president of the company, had disappeared. It also charged that while insolvent the company conveyed real estate to James P. Goodrich as trustee and L. H. Wright as trustee.

The petition stated that Lyle Laub, president of the company, had disappeared. It also charged that while insolvent the company conveyed real estate to James P. Goodrich as trustee and L. H. Wright as trustee.

The petition stated that Lyle Laub, president of the company, had disappeared. It also charged that while insolvent the company conveyed real estate to James P. Goodrich as trustee and L. H. Wright as trustee.

The petition stated that Lyle Laub, president of the company, had disappeared. It also charged that while insolvent the company conveyed real estate to James P. Goodrich as trustee and L. H. Wright as trustee.

The petition stated that Lyle Laub, president of the company, had