

MAN IN SNIDER CASE ARRESTED

Kafader Held on Charge of Contributing to Neglect.

George N. Kafader, 24, of 1941 Ludlow Ave., an attorney, who has been sought in connection with the finding of Mrs. Helena Snider, 23, of 1549 N. Meridian St., in a Danville (Ill.) hotel, Oct. 25, is under $500 bond today in Juvenile Court. He was arrested Thursday on a warrant charging he contributed to the neglect of the 3-year-old son of Mrs. Snider, wife of Roland C. Snider, deputy sheriff. Kafader gave himself up.

Mrs. Snider faces trial in Juvenile Court on charges of neglecting the boy, Nov. 7, a hearing for the temporary custody of the baby will be held before Superior Judge Clinton H. Givan as a preliminary to a divorce suit filed by Snider after his wife's trip.

METHODISTS MEET NOV. 13

Arrangements have been completed for the annual meetings of the synod of the Methodist Episcopal church, the Indiana convocation of pastors and laymen of the M. E. church, and the Indiana Epworth League institute to be held jointly in the city Nov. 13 and 14, Bishop Frederick D. Leete announced today. Approximately 6,000 delegates will be entertained.

Problems affecting Methodism in Indiana will be discussed. Among speakers will be Dr. Ernest C. Wareing of Cincinnati, Ohio, editor of the Western Christian Advocate; Dr. Clarence True Wilson of Washington, secretary of the board of temperance and morals; and Dr. Alfred F. Hughes, president of Evansville, Ind.

Chicago Rabbi Here

Special services will be held tonight at the Congregation Knesseth Israel Church with Rabbi M. Forster, Chicago, in charge. Rabbi Forster also will have charge of services Saturday morning.

Tent-home Is Destroyed

His tented home at 3136 N. Gale St. destroyed by fire Thursday night, George Bostick, colored, was rushing work on the house he is building with his father at 3133 N. Gale St. today. An open-air kitchen was used to prepare food for the men. A coal oil stove exploded in the tent while Bostick and his wife were at church. The father saved a few furnishings.
