

Gregory Kelly Booked in Comedy at English's

By WALTER D. HICKMAN

GREGORY KELLY in a new comedy, "A King for a Day," by Caesar Dunn, comes to English's next week, Thursday night, Nov. 22, for a three-day engagement. Kelly plays the part of a young shoe clerk by the name of Andy Whitaker. While he struggles to get ahead in his business he falls in love. Andy is not much of a love-maker. He suddenly comes in demand as a parlor ornament when he inherits a cool half million.

The cast includes John T. Doyle, Arnold Lucy, Madeline Fairbanks, Grace Valentine, Frances Brandt, Edward E. Weaver, George H. George, Morris Black and others.

The new play is headed for Chicago and New York.

Prison Sentence Lifted
The State Supreme Court has reversed the two-fourteen-year prison sentence of Henry Schoenrock, former cashier of the Beech Grove State Bank, convicted by the Marion Criminal Court, on charges of embezzling $1,000 in Liberty Bonds belonging to Charles Lancaster. The court held the charges did not constitute a public offense.

KING TUT VICTIM OF WHITE PLAGUE

Christmas Seals Might Have Saved Egypt's Ruler.

King Tut-Ankh-Amen was one of the earliest known victims of tuberculosis, according to Murray A. Auerbach, executive secretary of the Indiana Tuberculosis Association.

"If Tut-Ankh-Amen had known 5,200 years ago what we now know about tuberculosis, he might have continued to ride through the streets of Thebes in that wonderful golden chariot for possibly fifty years more," Auerbach said today.

"A modern doctor would have detected the first symptoms and ordered his Royal Highness back to nature, rest and rational diet, medical supervision, away from the fast pace of court life for a few months."

The annual Tuberculosis Christmas Seal Sale in Indiana will start in ninety-two counties within a few weeks. It is expected to bring $200,000 in penny sales to the relief of "White Plague" victims in the Hoosier State in 1924.

Why suffer from Rheumatism?

THERE is a certain unexplainable feeling that goes with hale and hearty old age—it is a feeling of happiness, of care unknown, of reborn youth.

But rheumatism—that deadly malady which has caused so many to surrender to the woes of pain and suffering—caused so many to forego the pleasures of life—caused so many to be dependent. Why suffer from it?

To be helped about—crutches, canes and willing hands always needed to assist you here and help you there. Rheumatism will vanish the same as skin disorders—the same as sallow complexion—the same as that run-down condition when S. S. S. is used. S. S. S. builds red blood cells by the score. Your nerve power is strengthened.
