

SCOTTISH RITE IN FESTIVE EVENING AS LODGE CLOSES

Four Thousand Attend Party at Murat Temple in Celebration.

The Murat Temple was the scene last night of the annual post-initiation soiree of the Scottish Rite. Four thousand members and guests divided their attention among a card party in the first floor card room, dancing in the banquet hall below, and a vaudeville and musical entertainment in the Egyptian room. Refreshments were served in the ballroom following motion pictures which closed the vaudeville. The boys of De Molay, sponsored by the Scottish Rite, staged the Egyptian room attraction.

Committees: Cards, Arthur Gimber; vaudeville, Brewer T. Clay; orchestra, and Glenn Howe, the acts; dancing, Frank G. Laird; general, Bert A. Boyd, Walter V. Bozell, Frank B. Flanner, Alfred D. Hitz, George W. Thompson, Henry T. Hearsey and Granville A. Richey.

Robert G. McClure, secretary of the Scottish Rite, said that it was the biggest party ever staged by the Rite. It came as the finale to the fall convocation, during which 170 candidates received Masonic degrees from the fourth to the thirty-second.

The four constituent bodies of the order were in charge of the entertainment: Adoniram Grand Lodge of Perfection, William J. Dobyns, thirteenth potent master; Saharlah Council, Princess of Jerusalem, Oscar L. Pond, sovereign prince; Indianapolis Chapter of Rose Croix, Obie J. Smith, most wise master, and Indiana Sovereign Consistory, Calvin W. Busch, commander in chief.

Dalton Writes

In the December number of leading American magazines numerous Indianapolis writers have contributed.

In the Christmas issue of McClure's, Test Dalton, Indianapolis author and playwright is represented in a leading article under the title of "The Lincoln I Knew." It is by Joseph Christian in collaboration with Test Dalton and E. Albert Apple.

Christian drove Lincoln and Douglas in an old circus wagon across Iowa when the "political rivals spoke from the same platform," the article states.

Dalton has a valuable lot of data on Lincoln as he has recently completed a play dealing with Lincoln under the title of "The Mantle of Lincoln."

The magazine article includes many pictures never before published and reveals unchronicled episodes of the Civil War days.

Says—Now Stiff Joints Must Go!

New Discovery Limbers 'Em Up and Even the Creaking Ceases.

Yes: It's true—the world progresses. All you have to do nowadays to limber up that stiff, rusty knee joint is to squeeze a half inch of miracle working substance from a tube.

Then rub it on the offending part for about a quarter of a minute or until it soaks through the skin and disappears on its errand of mercy.

Then read the evening newspaper and go to bed.

The chances are that your misbehaving knee joint will lose its "creak" while you are dreaming about the "high" fences you used to leap when you were a youngster.

"And in the morning," says one who has tried the new discovery, "you'll feel so happy that you'll want to jump into your sportiest clothes and walk briskly down the street just to show the neighbors that you are as old as they think you are."

Joint-Ease: They call this wonder working substance, for the reason that when ordinary remedies fail to limber up the stiff, inflamed rheumatic joint, or reduce the swelling Joint-Ease succeeds.

It's a good name for a good, clean, stainless prescription that in just a few months has proven to a multitude of people that lame, swollen, distorted joints can speedily have the kinks taken out of them and work as smoothly as ever.

But Joint-Ease is for bothersome joints, whether in knee, ankle, hip, shoulder, spine or finger, and for that purpose its sale is immense.

Hook Drug Company has a big supply of it and druggists everywhere report a big demand.—Advertisement.

Tarkington and Nicholson Represented in French's Standard Library Editions

BY WALTER D. HICKMAN

INDIANA authors are represented in French's Standard Library editions of several thousand plays.

Booth Tarkington is represented by "The Wren," "Clarence" and others. Meredith Nicholson and Kenyon Nicholson are represented by "Honor Bright," which is well known to Indianapolis audiences through the medium of the Stuart Walker players.

Samuel French, 28-30 W. Thirty-Eighth St., New York City, is known as the "oldest publisher in the world" of plays. French holds a unique position in this field of literary and dramatic publications.

Play reading at home is becoming more popular with the American public. It is through French that amateurs obtain the right to present in public these printed plays.

The standard library edition is dedicated to the reading public only and no performance or recitation is permitted unless rights are secured.

Among the copies I have received from French's play library are: "Passers By," "The Third," "Kindling," "A Man Thinks," "The Wren," "Clarence," "The Show Shop," "A Pair of Silk Stockings," "Grumpy," "Passing of the Third Floor Back," "The Thirtieth Chair," "Mr. Pim Passes By," "Honor Bright," "Laugh and Grow Wise" and others.

Many Widely Known Writers
Represented in the List

The large range of the French publications include both American and English authors.

Among the many writers not repeating those I have mentioned, included in the list of plays published by French are: Clyde Fitch, William Gillette, Augustus Thomas, George Broadhurst, Percy MacKaye, Louis N. Parker, Jerome K. Jerome, Hermann Sudermann, Rida Johnson Young, Rachel Crothers, Arthur Law, J. Hartley Manners, James Forbes, William C. De Mille, Israel Zangwill, Henry Bernstein, Channing Pollock, Harry Durant, Charles Klein, Charles Kenyon, Edgar Selwyn, Winchell Smith, Margaret Mayo, A. E. Thomas and many others.

This department has been asked many times where copies of plays may be obtained. I find Samuel French to be the best medium.

Each copy of a play contains the original play bill of the piece as well as numerous illustrations and stage directions.

The type is large enough to be read with ease.

Ford Trucks Are Bought On Performance Records

If you were to ask a hundred—or a thousand—Ford truck owners why they use Ford trucks in preference to all others, they would likely say, "Because the Ford stands up."

They know that under the endless grind of daily service the Ford stays on the job month in and month out, with very little mechanical care, and with practically no expense for repairs or replacements. They buy to get performance.

A few might add that the Ford is the lowest priced truck on the market. But they would emphasize the work this truck does, not its initial cost, in accounting for the fact that there are more Ford Trucks in use today than all other makes combined.
