

PAY BOOST FOR ALL OR NONE IS MAYOR'S THEORY

Increase for Policewoman Rachael Bray Opposed in Letter to Chief.

Policewoman Rachel Bray, recently promoted to sergeant, should be reduced or every woman employed by the city should be given an increased salary, Mayor Shank informed Police Chief Rikhoff in a letter today.

Miss Bray, who is in charge of the accident prevention bureau of the police force, was promoted Dec. 31 by the board of safety on recommendation of Rikhoff.

"We have women in the city hall who do four times as much work, and a lot more responsible work than Miss Bray does," said Mayor Shank, "and I'm opposed to picking her out and giving the increase."

Miss Bray's new pay is approximately $2,000 a year.

"Some of these girls at the city hall work late every night for $90 a month, and it's not right to refuse them a pay boost," said the mayor.

After the letter was sent the mayor said he would ask the board of safety to reconsider the promotion.

LAST PROVERB TO BE RUN SATURDAY

Take Your Time, You Have Until Jan. 19 to Answer.

The last proverb picture appears this Saturday. However, do not hurry. You have until Jan. 19, at noon, to have the proverb answers in the Times office. The prizes total $2,500 and are worth working for. If any proverb pictures are missing you may obtain them for 2 cents per copy. The first fifteen will be supplied without cost. You may enter the contest today by getting the complete list of proverb pictures from the Proverb Editor.

Mailing the proverb pictures to The Times is one of the most important things. Mail the proverb pictures and answers flat. Wrap securely and see that only one answer appears on each proverb picture. Be certain that the package carries ample postage. Send the proverb answers to the Proverb Editor, Indianapolis Times, Indianapolis, Ind. Be sure to write your name and address in the upper left hand corner of the package. This is the only identification mark which will insure its return to you in case it may be lost in the mails.

Judge James A. Collins, E. J. Gausepohi and George Buck, will begin to judge the contest soon after the last entries are received Jan. 19. Although, you are given two weeks in which to prepare your answers, you must be sure to have them in the office of The Times by noon, Jan. 19. Those arriving after that time will not be accepted. You may bring them in person to the Proverb Editor, if you desire.

ELIXIR RESTORES WOMAN TO LIFE

By United Press

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Adrenalin chloride may become the elixir of life for persons with heart trouble, Dr. Arthur G. Frey, Chicago, said today.

With the aid of adrenalin Dr. Frey on Thursday restored life to Mrs. Emma Wolf, Cairo, Ill., whose heart stopped beating for ten minutes.

Mrs. Wolfe was to have undergone a major operation," said Dr. Frey. "Apparently it was a case of death due to fright. After ten minutes I injected adrenalin chloride into the heart with a hypodermic needle."

"Within thirty seconds," he said. "The patient's heart resumed beating and in half an hour, she had regained consciousness.

Dr. Frey cannot say definitely whether Mrs. Wolfe actually died.

ANOTHER WOMAN IS INVOLVED IN HOLLYWOOD CASE

Confession of Greer Leads to Questioning of Mabel Normand's Companion.

By United Press

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4.—Confession of Horace A. Greer, chauffeur who shot Courtland S. Dines, today involved another woman in the mystery surrounding the assault Tuesday night while the Denver oil man was entertaining Edna Purviance and Mabel Normand, Greer's employer.

Arraignment of Greer was ordered for today by Detective Capt. Herman Cline.

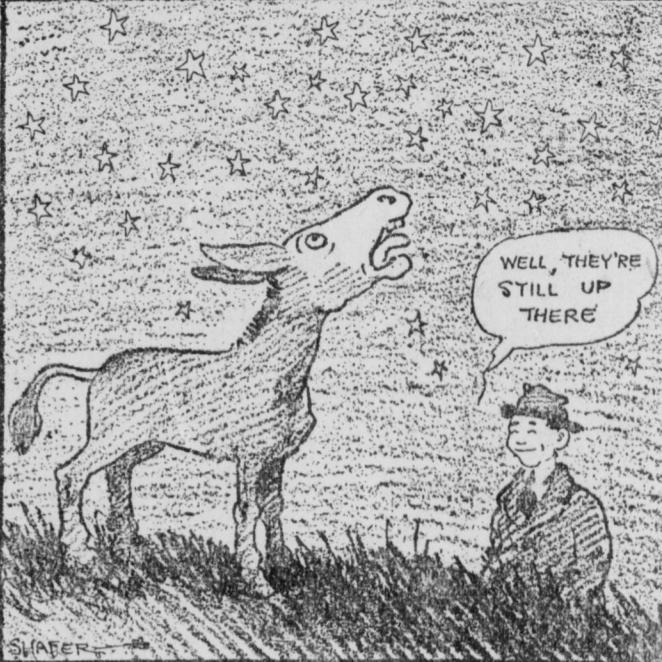

It is expected Greer will ask bail, which will be set at $10,000.

Detectives interrogated Mrs. Edna Burns, companion of Miss Normand. Following Greer's statement as he was leaving for Dines' apartment, Mrs. Burns saw him take the revolver with which the shooting was done and admonished him to "be careful."

"Within thirty seconds," he said. "The patient's heart resumed beating and in half an hour, she had regained consciousness.

Dr. Frey cannot say definitely whether Mrs. Wolfe actually died.

Man, Once Legally 'Dead', Dies on Gallows

OLSMOM (Penitentiary), Cal., Jan. 4.—With the stroke of 10 today Alex Kels, once legally "dead" and "buried" with the honors of a respected dead man of Lori, Cal., died in actuality.

At that hour he was hanged, paying for the murder of Ed Messervy, itinerant laborer from Illinois.

As the rumble of the dropping trap heralded the passing of his life, Mrs. Kels became the widow for the second time.

And insurance companies will pay to her $100,000 in insurance—so

Kels will have accomplished through the workings of the law the thing he sought to bring about when he murdered Messervy and permitted burial of the body as that of his own, though in doing it he has become "the man who died twice."

Kels, his final hope gone when Governor William Richardson on Wednesday refused him a reprieve, spent his last days quietly. He did not storm at his fate, but whispered words of penance to a priest. He prayed strength might be given his wife. He accepted his fate in silence and smoked countless cigarettes.
