

JOHNSON TO OPEN INDIANA CAMPAIGN OUTSIDE CAPITAL

Clarence Martin, Manager, Announces First Speech Within Few Weeks.

MARTIN

Hiram Johnson, candidate for the Republican nomination for President, will start his Indiana campaign with a speech in some city, not yet chosen, outside of Indianapolis, Clarence R. Martin, campaign manager, stated today.

Martin said Johnson probably will make only one speech at that time, returning to the State later.

Martin was appointed by Frank Hitchcock, Johnson's national campaign manager.

Johnson is an Indianapolis lawyer and was campaign manager for Albert J. Beveridge in 1922.

Not Much Money

"Headquarters will be opened in a downtown hotel within two or three weeks, after organization work gets under way and headquarters really are needed," Martin said. "We are not going to spend much money," he declared.

A campaign manager will be appointed in each district in Indiana. In the larger districts, two managers will be named. Special attention will be given to the organization of young men, ex-service men, according to Martin.

Johnson's name will be placed on the ballot for the primary election in May. He was a candidate in Indiana in 1920, running second to Gen. Leonard Wood in the primary.

Not in Governor Fight

In the last city election Martin made speeches in behalf of Mayor Shank.

"This appointment doesn't mean we will have any choice in the nomination for Governor," Martin said. "All the candidates are good men."

Johnson's entrance into the Indiana campaign makes certain the entrance of either President Coolidge or Senator James E. Watson. It is expected Watson will announce soon he will not be a candidate and that Coolidge will enter the primary.

How to 'Scour' Clothing Shown

State Dyers and Cleaners to Dance at Claypool Tonight.

A practical school in scouring and bleaching garments was the feature today of the fifteenth annual convention of the Indiana Association of Dyers and Cleaners at the J. D. Eastman Company's dry cleaning plant, 818 Dorman St. Roy Denny, Chicago, editor of the National Cleaner and Dyer, gave demonstrations, assisted by R. C. Hopkins, of Boston, Mass.

Should the school prove a success efforts will be made to establish classes in dry cleaning and dyeing under the direction of the State department of public instruction, officers of the association said. Classes may be established at Purdue University.

A dinner-dance for the delegates and their friends will be given at the Claypool tonight. Wednesday night business session will be held at the Claypool. The convention closes Friday night with a stag dinner at the Claypool.

RILEY MEMORIAL HEADS LUNCHEON WEDNESDAY

Reports on 1923 Fund Activities to Be Received.

Directors of the Riley Memorial Association will meet with the State executive committee at luncheon at the University Club Wednesday.

Reports on activities of 1923 and results of campaigns conducted in several counties for funds for completing the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Crippled Children will be given.

Plans will be furthered for the annual meeting Jan. 22 at the Claypool, when Dr. George Edgar Vincent, president of Rockefeller Foundation, will speak. Tickets for this meeting may be obtained from E. H. Martin, 307 National City Bank building.

WOMAN IS OUT ON BOND

Caught in Car With Liquor—Dennis She Violated Prohibition Laws.

Miss Evelyn Johnson, alias Thelma Patterson, 20, of Clinton, Ind., who was arrested last week in an automobile containing 105 gallons of grain alcohol, is at liberty today under a Criminal Court bond of $5,000. She pleaded not guilty to violating liquor laws. She is also held under $500 bond in Juvenile Court, charged with contributing to the neglect of a child of Lawrence Burnett, 2063 Central Ave.

The affidavit was filed by Burnett's wife and charges the girl lives at the Central Ave. address. The car, seized by the sheriff, was registered in the name "Loretta Burnett," said to be a sister of Lawrence.

All for a 'Spoonful'

A "spoonful" of liquor sent Martin Koss, 2937 W. Tenth St., to the Indiana State Farm for ninety days and cost him $300. According to Lieutenant Cox that much white mule was saved when most of it had been poured out in a ridd on Koss' saloon Dec. 31.

Letter Mentions Friendliness of 'Most Tibetans'

Relatives Have Missive Written Before Bandit Invasion in China.

The home life of the little colony of missionaries in the Batang Valley, China, previous to the invasion of Tibetan bandits who besieged Batang is described in a letter to the Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Martin of Greenwood, from their niece, Mrs. Frederick McLeod, Mrs. McLeod, her husband and their three children, well known here, may have left Batang before the bandit invasion. They are missionaries.

The letter, written some time ago, says:

"We like Batang very much. It is a pretty place naturally—a valley protected by high mountains on all sides. We are 9,000 feet high. The climate is delightful. We have good, clear cold water coming down from the mountains, and fine gardens. We have potatoes, peas, lettuce, onions and radishes planted now and a fine crop of strawberries coming on."

Tibetan Servants

"I have planted flowers in our yard: cosmos, nasturtiums, sweet peas and pansies. Everything grows well here and the season is earlier than at home. We haven't had any real cold weather since we got here and the summer is pleasant."

"Our house is comfortable and pleasant. It is like the native houses on the outside—hard clay and stones. Inside it is like a United States home. The walls are plastered and some are tiled. The furniture, made by native carpenters according to United States patterns, is good."

"We have a Chinese cook—a good one—a Tibetan woman to scrub and wash and carry water, and Tibetan gardeners. Servants are cheap here and they need the money we pay them."

"Jolly and Friendly"

"Roderick and I are busy learning the language, which is interesting, and I think we are getting along very well. I know the names of all the things about the house and can talk a good bit to Sanjedroma, the Tibetan woman who does our work. She, like most of the Tibetans, is very jolly and friendly and a good worker."

"They are quite good looking, especially the women. Unlike most heathen folks, the women seem to rule the roost and instead of being disappointed at the birth of a girl, they prefer them to boys."

"They neglect their children sadly, though, through ignorance, and most of the babies die. They are so dirty and insanitary."

PRICE RISE IS PREDICTED

Speakers Before Breeders Declare Hog Supply Diminishing.

Substantial increases in hog prices within a year was predicted by Fred H. Moore of the national livestock and meat board, Chicago, at the annual convention of the Indiana Duroc Breeders' Association, at the Severin today.

He said the available supply is diminishing, because breeders are becoming discouraged.

Other speakers were O. L. Reddish, superintendent of swine, Indiana State board of agriculture; G. G. Carter, Fairmount, Ind.; Dr. E. A. Cahill, Zionsville, Ind.; and R. J. Evans, secretary of the American Duroc Jersey Record Association.

NOTHING FURTHER IS HEARD FROM BANDIT CAPTIVES

Woman Kidnaped When Chinese Raid Mission and Shoot Foreigners.

By United Press

PEKING, Jan. 8.—Maj. John McGruder and Capt. Woodrow Woodbridge proceeded today to the Howan province to seek the whereabouts of Julius Kilen, woman captive of Chinese bandits who has disappeared.

When last seen Mrs. Kilen was mounted on a white horse, towering high above the squat figures of the bandits who swarmed about her on foot as they led her steady away over the hills. The woman was captured when bandits raided a mission and shot several foreigners, imprisoning others.

Nothing further has been heard from the besieged city of Batang, near the Tibet frontier, where foreigners are surrounded by bandits and their principles and purposes are outlined in a letter received today from J. R. Martin, 1905 Orange St.

He said: "Every man or woman who drives an automobile should join The Times Safety Club, and your paper is to be highly recommended by all safe and sane drivers for its honest and earnest endeavors to make the streets and public highways safe for every one."

If the motorists do not take it upon themselves to reduce the number of fatal accidents it will be only a question of time until we will have speed governors placed on all machines manufactured and sold.

"Then the motorists who have been the greatest offenders will be the first to 'hollow.' I firmly believe there are any number of drivers who should not leave for Tibet in September were graduates of the College of Missions here last spring, except Dr. and Mrs. Whorley. They were well known here, however, and were present at commencement exercises at which the others graduated."

PETERSON BELIEVED SAFE

Several Other Persons Known Here Member of Party.

Belief that the party of thirteen missionaries including Mrs. R. A. Peterson, daughter of the Rev. Charles M. Fillmore, 1914 Commerce Ave., who left Indianapolis Sept. 1, for Tibet, had not arrived at the bandit-infested territory was strengthened today by a checking up of letters from the expedition and the route they were to take.

Members of the group are: Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Peterson and two children; Mr. and Mrs. C. Ogden and two children of California, Ky.; Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Whorley of Columbus, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Emerson of Ohio; and Miss Grace Young of Colorado.

Sailed for China Sept. 23

The nine missionaries and four children sailed for Hongkong, China, Sept. 23, and from there they went by coast vessel to Haithong, French India China. They then traveled by rail to Yunnanfu, from where the Rev. Fillmore received a letter in December. The letter stated the expedition would remain in Yunnanfu until after Christmas.

Since Yunnanfu is a distance of 1,200 miles from Tibet, an eight-week journey by caravan, the Rev. Fillmore expressed the belief his daughter and her companions could not have advanced far.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Martin, of Greenwood, Ind., aunt and uncle of Mrs. Rhoderick A. McLeod, who have been in Tibet since 1917 with the group that was trapped by the bandits, also said they believed their niece, her husband and three children, Lora, Duncan, and Shelton, might have escaped by leaving Tibet earlier than was expected.

Intended to Leave Feb. 1

The last letter received by Rev. and Mrs. Martin in December stated the McLeods would leave Tibet Feb. 1, Rev. Martin said, but according to Mrs. Charles Davis, 307 N. Arlington Ave., a cousin of Mrs. McLeod, a letter she received later stated they would leave Jan. 1. Since their names were not reported among those captured, it is believed the letter of Mrs. Davis explained their most recent decision.

Will Launch Offensive

Spokesman for the revolutionists declared not only would De La Huerta continue to get sufficient munitions of war, but predicted the revolutionaries would soon launch a major offensive to dislodge Oregon from power.

The presidential proclamation declaring an embargo on the sending of munitions to Mexico expressly made provision for the sale by the American Government of war supplies to Oregon.

The United States recently sold 5,000 rifles, 5,000,000 rounds of ammunition and eight airplanes to Oregon and it is thought more such material may be sold if needed by the Mexican government.

Milk of Magnesia Users Try This!

Science combines Milk of Magnesia with Oil of Peppermint for relief of constipation and acidosis.

Modern civilization with its heavy overeating and its lack of exercise has brought two great foes of human health: constipation and acidosis (sour stomach). Your indigestion, heartburn, dark brown taste in the morning—are all symptoms of this condition.

Milk of Magnesia is fine for neutralizing harmful stomach acids but milk of Magnesia alone, only goes half way. Therefore Science has combined pure mineral oil with this splendid agent.

Haley's Magnesia-Oil is the name of this perfect emulsion upon which the U. S. Government has granted a patent.

The milk of Magnesia counteracts and neutralizes the acids and the mineral oil lubricates the intestines, overcoming constipation naturally without forming a habit. Haley's M-O can be taken safely by young or old. It is non-habit-forming and contains no drugs or other harmful agents.

Stop at your druggist's today and get a bottle of Haley's Magnesia-Oil. Take some tonight before going to bed and get up tomorrow morning feeling like a new person. All druggists—trial size 35c, family size $1.00. The Haley M-O Company, Indianapolis, Ind.

The cold wave has passed and soon the streets once more will be free of the coating of ice that has reflected the dangers of careless driving.

Radiators will thaw, the cylinders will "hit" and the motorist will again feel the urge of "stepping on it."

The Times Safety Club will broadcast the warning removed by nature. Its principles and purposes are outlined in a letter received today from J. R. Martin, 1905 Orange St.

He said: "Every man or woman who drives an automobile should join The Times Safety Club, and your paper is to be highly recommended by all safe and sane drivers for its honest and earnest endeavors to make the streets and public highways safe for every one."

"Then the motorists who have been the greatest offenders will be the first to 'hollow.' I firmly believe there are any number of drivers who should not be allowed to drive a car. Some have defective eyesight or hearing and quite a number, young men particularly, who have not enough sound judgment or else do not realize how they jeopardize their own lives and property as well as the lives and property of their fellow citizens."

"If every motorist would observe the same courtesy on the road or streets he shows in his home, it would go a long way toward solving our motoring problem. It is we as individuals who have everything to gain and nothing to lose by safe driving."

Times Safety Club members believe that pedestrians are responsible for many accidents and should be as cautious as motorists.

Florists Vie for Flower Trophies

Thirty-First Convention of State Association Opens.

The thirty-first convention of the Indiana State Florists' Association opened today at the public library. Twenty-five exhibitors, some of them from other states, were competing for flower trophies. The Indiana Rose trophy and the Indiana Carnation trophy are open only to State florists. Bronze and silver medals are to be awarded to the exhibitor of the best cut-flowers or plants at the show.

Last year, Joseph H. Hill, Richmond, won the rose trophy; Bertor-nian Brothers, Indianapolis, won the carnation trophy. The trophies, both of them large silver loving cups, be-come the property of the exhibitor who wins them three times.

The florists are to banquet at the Athenaeum tonight and go to a theater party.

Nominations for 1924: A. F. J. Bauz and Dillon Myers, Bluffton, for president; Harry Dietz, Indianapolis, and Edward Cowan, Terre Haute, first vice president; E. E. Temperley, Indianapolis, L. A. Coles, Kokomo, second vice president; Arthur Holden-reich, Indianapolis, E. C. Grande, Indianapolis, treasurer; Oscar Carlstedt, and H. Wilcox, Indianapolis, secretary.

Are You a Tired Out Housewife?

Many people do not realize that the most exhausting of all work is house-work and the care of children. Many a woman who should be in the prime of life finds her strength gone, her nerves unstrung and is weak, worn out and run down with pale, thin, watery blood from the strain of house-work.

In such cases, what you need is something to put more iron into your blood. Nuxated Iron contains iron like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, and like the iron in your blood. You will be astonished at how much better you feel often in even a few days.

Try taking Nuxated Iron for two weeks, and you will see color come back to your lips and cheeks, you will not be so easily upset by trifles, and best of all, you will find that you have new strength and energy and endurance for your daily tasks. At all good druggists.—Advertisement.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WEAK?

Thousands of Men and Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are among the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patients who usually content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease constantly undermines the system.

Weak kidneys may cause lumbago, rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints or muscles, at times have headache or indigestion, as time passes you may have a sallow complexion, puffy dark circles under the eyes, sometimes feel as though you had heart trouble, may have plenty of ambition but no strength, get weak and lose flesh.

SPECIAL NOTE—You may obtain an enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. We will also send you a book of valuable information, containing many of the thousands of grateful letters received from men and women who say they found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed in kidney, liver and bladder troubles. The value and success of Swamp-Root are so well known that readers are advised to send for a sample size bottle. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. COUNCIL FACTIONS RESUME FIGHT AS WISE TAKES CHAIR

With Walter W. Wise, Republican, as new president, the city council today promised internal harmony and cooperation with city departments. This, despite lack of cooperation Monday night.

Wise was elected unanimously Monday night after his name was put before the council by Lloyd D. Clay-combe and seconded by Ben H. Thompson. Claycombe was unanimously elected president pro tem.

The Republican majority, composed of six members, functioned perfectly during the election. The three Democratic councilmen offered no opposition.

Hardly had President Wise taken the chair and announced his program of harmony and cooperation for 1924 until factions and parties again were evident in voting on important measures.

In rapid order, the council suspended rules on an ordinance appropriating $3,000 salary for Benjamin Perk as public utility consultant to Taylor E. Groninger, and then refused to appropriate the same sum for the salary of the assistant chief smoke inspector. Only two councilmen, Claycombe and Bramblett, both Republicans voted to suspend the rules.

Inspector's Salary Opposed

"When they appoint an inspector according to the ordinance, I'll vote 'aye,'" said Councilman Heydon W. Buchanan.

"What's the inspector doing anyway?" asked Councilman Ben H. Thompson in opposing suspension of rules.

The council again refused to come to the aid of the park board when action was taken on an ordinance appropriating $18,500 to pay off interest on bonded indebtedness. Councilman Claycombe offered a compromise by amending the amount to $10,000, but a motion carried 7-2 with only Clay-combe and Bramblett voting "no."

An ordinance authorizing a temporary loan of $300,000 for the board of health was passed under suspension of rules, but the ordinance providing for the loan was referred to the finance committee. The proposed loan will carry the health board expenses until the May installment of taxes.

An ordinance creating the office of supervisor of traffic at a salary of $3,000 a year was introduced. It was understood the measure is merely to increase the salary of Traffic Captain Michael J. Glenn.

Other ordinances introduced: Changing the name of Gemmer St. to Draper St. and State St. to "E. Iowa St."

Requiring the C. C. & St. L. railway to maintain a watchman at Galey St., between 7:30 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.

Amending the zoning ordinance changing the northwest corner of Washington St. and Sheridan Ave. and the northeast corner of Cornell Ave. and Twenty-Seventh St. from residential to business.

A public hearing was held on amending the zoning ordinance extending the business district at College and Fairfield Aves. There were no protests, but Councilman Claycombe recommended that hereafter the city plan commission be consulted on all zoning amendments.
