

HERRIN'S BOOZE WAR CRUSADERS LAY ASIDE GUNS

'Doing It Just to Cooperate,'
Young Says, Following
Military Order.

By United Press
MARION, Ill., Feb. 12.—Glenn Young and his Ku-Klux Klan anti-boozers have laid aside their revolvers and machine guns.

Major General Milton Foreman, in charge of 1,800 militiamen, "has no right to order every one to disarm in the absence of martial law, but we are doing it just to cooperate," the dictator of "bloody Williamson County" said today.

The man hunter who has waged relentless war against the myriads of bootleggers and moonshiners of the county showed his two holsters, empty of the automatics, his constant companions in his four months' campaign.

Ship Out Liquor
Several freight car loads of liquor have been shipped out of Herrin and Johnston City to cities in the State, Young said.

For the $5,000 salary the Klan has paid him so far, Young has 400 cases charging violation of the Volstead act to come before the March term of Federal Court at Danville.

Young left his barricade and fortified headquarters in the city hall, where he has been chief of police, judge and jury and returned to his home in Marion, as General Foreman today posted a proclamation saying: "Hereafter, wearing or carrying of firearms or other weapons by any but duly authorized officers of the law is prohibited, and troops are instructed to confiscate all firearms and weapons so carried and to hold the offenders for appropriate action."

Possessed No Authority
Adj. Gen. Carlos Black told General Foreman he knew of no official authority possessed by Young.

"I do not understand Young occupies any official part in the Government of Williamson County and we have determined only one thing, that is no Government shall prevail that is solely by consent of an individual."

YOUNG WAS DISMISSED

COOLIDGE HAS CHANGE OF HEART ON MELLON BILL

Democrats See Victory for Own Measure—Party
Caucus Called.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—In view of indications from the White House that President Coolidge will not veto a tax bill that does not conform to the Mellon plan, party leaders today regarded the low surtax rates as doomed to defeat.

The change in the President's attitude was believed to have been brought about by Republican Leader Longworth, who told the President on Saturday the 25 per cent rate would not be passed in the House. Mr. Coolidge has several times intimated he would veto any bill that departed from the Mellon plan.

With victory in sight, the Democrats were prepared to clinch their advantage. A party caucus had been called for Wednesday at which the Democrats are expected to pledge vote for the Garner bill of 44 per cent surtaxes. Democratic leaders claim the party is solid for the Garner plan and there have been no signs of bolting. The caucus, is a gesture to show party unity.

The tax battle will open in the House Thursday. No limit has been placed on the debate.

SURVEY REVEALS HIGHER CAR FARE IN OTHER CITIES

Report of City Expert on Rate
Increase Nears Completion.

Indianapolis has a lower street car fare than other cities of the same size, with similar conditions, according to preliminary survey of Benjamin Perk, city utility expert.

Perk is chairman of a city council committee investigating the financial condition of the Indianapolis Street Railway Company, which asked the investigation before asking increased fares. Perk's report is expected to be ready this week.

Perk's figures show:
Detroit, Mich., 6-cent fare, 1-cent transfer; tickets, nine for 50 cents.

Cleveland, 6-cent fare, 1-cent transfer; tickets, three for 20 cents.

Washington, D. C., 8-cent fare, free transfer; tickets, three for 20 cents.

Toledo, Ohio, 8-cent fare.

Cincinnati, 8-cent fare, free transfer.

Tacoma, Wash., $1 a week for unlimited rides.

Atlanta, Ga., tickets, three for 20 cents.

Dallas, Texas, 6-cent fare, free transfer.

Richmond, Va., 6-cent fare, free transfer.

Kansas City, Mo., 8-cent fare; tickets, two for 15 cents.

Records show that the average city line fare for 25 cities in the country increased from 5.69 cents Dec. 31, 1917, to 7.31 cents Dec. 1, 1923. The local railway company maintained a 5-cent fare during peak prices of 1920 and is faced with needed repairs and replacement without a sinking fund reserve, officials say.

M'CRAY TRIAL IS SET FOR MARCH 4

Through all the arguments and the pleading, McCray sat quietly among his lawyers, no change of expression discernible on his face.

Unless the defense asks for a change of venue or a change of judge, the case will be tried in the Marion County Circuit Court before Judge Collins.

Noel said the defense is not ready to make an announcement as to a change of venue.

When the trial date was announced Noel complained that it would take a long time to prepare to defend some of the indictments. It was then that McCray's attorneys, Judge Collins, Noel said the defense is not ready to make an announcement as to a change of venue.

Most of the morning session was consumed in arguments on the constitution of the grand jury which brought the indictments. The defense substituted a new demurrer in which it was contended that not only State laws but the Federal Constitution was violated because no woman was drawn for jury service.

Iowa Case Is Cited
"The jury commissioners can choose such legal voters as they see fit, providing they are qualified," Nichols said.

He cited an Iowa case in which he said an identical question was decided and the jury held to be legal.

Noel argued that the statutes of other States were different from those of Indiana and that rulings in such States did not apply here.

He declared there were more than 25,000 qualified women in Marion County. He declared that the action of the jury commissioners deprived citizens of the equal protection of the law.

Noel several times attacked newspaper comments concerning the McCray case, declaring the papers "took liberties with the law."

Inman replied by declaring Noel's argument was wide of the mark.

Same Jury Indicted Shaw
"It would not have been illegal if women had been on the jury, but the jury was not illegal because women were not there," he said.

"You might as well have claimed your case was prejudiced because there were no farmers, no tiller of the soil, on the grand jury."

"If the grand jury was illegally constituted every citizen of Indiana should be in bringing about the release of John Thomas Shaw, murderer of Helen Hager Wheelock. The same grand jury indicted Shaw. The Governor himself should stay the hand of execution which is about to take Shaw's life."

AKRON MAYOR
SAW CHANCE TO
'TRADE AT HOME'

Declares He Is 'Through' With Street Car Company
'Forever'.

By EARL J. JOHNSON,
Staff Writer, Indianapolis Times
AKRON, Ohio, Feb. 12.—Rubber, the superior automobile tires are made of, has become the center of the most unique factional contest in the history of municipal government.

Retail merchants protested against Mayor D. C. Rybolt's attempt to carry the city's transportation on rubber tires, after the street cars had been ousted. A resolution from the Chamber of Commerce demanded Rybolt give up and restore street car service at once.

Mayor Rybolt has reaffirmed his determination to hold Akron transportation fares down to 5 cents.

Rubber a Factor
Simultaneously he has revealed that rubber, which made Akron, is one of the principal factors in his vision of city-wide motorization.

"The Northern Ohio Traction Company's refusal to accept a 5-cent fare franchise and Akron's wonderful opportunity to do what any self-respecting city should do," Rybolt said.

"It was our chance to boost a big home town industry—rubber."

For twenty-five years Akron rode street cars at 5 cents. Feb. 1, the franchise expired. The street car company demanded a 7-cent fare. Rybolt asked sixty days in which "to think it over."

The street car company refused to extend the franchise and Mayor Rybolt ordered car service suspended. The company now has five months in which to rip out its tracks. The mayor said he is "through forever" with the street car company.

Ch. of C. Objects
The Chamber of Commerce complaint said the inadequate bus system—118 buses carrying from 14 to 20 passengers, and more than 200 automobiles, rushed here by Henry Ford at the request of Harvey Firestone—is keeping shoppers away from the business district and that merchants are losing business.

M. F. Tucker, city "bus boss," loaned to the cause by the water department, estimated that in three weeks everything would be running smoothly.

"The bus system has relieved rather than congested traffic downtown," said Tucker. "Accidents are fewer because passengers are discharged at the curb instead of in the middle."

Arrest in Attack Inquiry
Bernard Flack, 21, of 837 S. Capitol Ave., is under arrest today charged with attacking Jack Spratt, 815 N. Illinois St., taxi driver. Herbert Flack, a brother, was arrested shortly after the alleged attack at Harding St. and Kentucky Ave., early Sunday.

OFFICIALS GROPE FOR WAY OUT IN LICENSE TANGLE

Conference Postponed Because of Slight Illness of Attorney General.

Solution of the present auto license excess fee tangle, arising from decision of Supreme Court holding the 1923 law unconstitutional, still was sought today by State officials.

Whether refund of the excess fees, totaling more than $1,000,000, can be authorized without a legislative act is the stumbling block to agreement.

Ed Jackson, secretary of State, "insists" that the money be returned "immediately."

U. S. Lesh, attorney general has held in a previous opinion that a legislative act is required to authorize payment of money deposited in the State treasury.

John D. Williams, director of the State highway commission, now short of $3,000,000 funds but slated to receive $650,000 inheritance taxes, shares Lesh's view.

Governor McCray, holding personal opinion that motorists should donate the excess fees for good roads, nevertheless feels automobile owners must wait until the Legislature convenes and authorizes payment.

A special session is not probable, it is pointed out, because of the tangled finances of the Statehouse and the fact that Clyde A. Wamb, Republican State chairman, is friendly to any attempt to force the resignation of the Governor.

A conference of officials upon the tangle set for today, was postponed until Lesh recovers from a slight illness.

SURE DEATH to Sour Stomach Constipation Indigestion

Very few people realize what an important part the liver, stomach and bowels play in the game of life.

Upon them depend success or failure, health or sickness, happiness or sorrow, a clear complexion and a bright eye or a sallow complexion, pimples and a worn-out appearance. It is your liver and stomach that give you a despondent, irritable and dreary feeling or a bilious and sour stomach.

It is impossible to say precisely how much harm may be caused by habitual constipation, sour stomach or indigestion, but it is known that symptoms thought to be "diseased nerves," are the direct results of autotoxemia which is a subtle poisoning of the body. It is now known that exhaustion, loss of appetite, inability to sleep, headaches, loss of flesh and various skin diseases may be traced directly to these organs. The suffering can not be realized until the cause of the trouble has been removed.

"Four-D" Herb Tablets does this—they flush the kidneys, increase the flow of the gastric juice, cause the liver to function properly and cleanse the stomach and bowels. "Four-D" Herb Tablets above all contain no dope, no harsh purgatives or useless minerals. They are mild acting and never gripe. They are scientifically prepared by experienced pharmacists in a modern laboratory and put up in 25c packages which contains a month's treatment. Sold with a money back guarantee if not satisfactory by leading druggists everywhere.
