Miss Edna G. Henry, 1414 Broad-it was only through organizations like Congestion and Colds as Mustard

Musterole does it. It is a clean, white is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders.

Gently massage Musterole in with the

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WEAK?

Thousands of Men and Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are among the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patients, who usually content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease constantly undermines the system.

Weak kidneys may cause lumbago, rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints or muscles, at times have headache or indigestion, as time passes you may have a sallow complexion, puffy dark circles under the eyes, sometimes feel as though you had heart trouble, may have plenty of ambition, but no strength; get weak and lose flesh.

Special Note—You may obtain a sample size bottle of Swamp-Root by enclosing 10 cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. We will also send you a book of valuable information, containing many of the thousands of grateful letters received from men and women who say they found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed in kidney, liver and bladder troubles. The value and success of Swamp-Root are so well known that readers are advised to send for a sample size bottle. Address

Ukelele and Fast Feet Win at Keith's; Palace and Lyric Have Novelty Bills

By WALTER D. HICKMAN.

UKELELE and fast stepping feature at Keith's this week.

The "uke" and the feet belong to Lou Clayton and Cliff Edwards, blackface entertainers.

"The man with the 'uke' owns a wicked pair of crooning lips. His uke and his own melodious noise can tie the show up in a knot any old time.

These men have individual material which makes their talents. They know what the public likes, and although their triumph was absolute yesterday afternoon, they didn't ruin the effect by rushing out and making a curtain talk. These men do not live to make curtain talks. They are present to win with their material and their own matchless way of putting it over.

"Wee" Georgie Wood hails from London, England. There I understand he is an institution. He is making his first American vaudeville tour.
Although he is a matured comedian, he plays boy's parts. The first part of his act does not match up to the last part, which is given over to some rare Scotch impersonations. He should learn the lesson that the best curtain speech was never made. The audience liked him yesterday afternoon.

Fred Berrens and Lora Foster, assisted by "The Apollo," a special Apollo reproducing piano, offer "Fantastic Moments—Musical." It is well mounted and contains some good dancing and violin playing. Marie Walsh and Frank Ellis engage in some smart chatter, songs and a few stunts. Ellis scores with a mighty clever song, "Ours Is a Nice House, Ours Is."

James P. Conlin and Myrtle Glass are back with "The Four Seasons." It is time that this team wakes up and obtains new material before it is too late. Gilbert Wells finds the coming might be easy with his songs and steps.
Zelda Brothers open the show with an aerial act and Ed and Jennie Rooney close it with "Up in the Air."
At Keith's all week.

ALEXANDER PROVES HE IS A REAL ENTERTAINER AT LYRIC Have you lost your flivver or your sweetheart? Ask Alexander, "the man who knows," at the Lyric this week. He will give you minute directions for recovering either.

Anna today, doubtless, was rummaging frantically through Edith's wardrobe, with Edith's assistance, searching for a fur neckpiece, which she thought had been stolen by a maid.

Anna asked Alexander where it was.
Alexander told her, without hesitating, the exact shelf in Edith's apartment where the wandering "bunny" had sequestered itself.
"Och! wanted to know if he would make a 'go' of it on the stage."
"You'd be terrible," Alexander wailed. "Keep off the stage."

The performance is uncanny—we heard one young man behind us whisper: "I ain't thinkin' of nothin'." He might tell me what I'm thinkin'.
Among the features of Alexander's performance is slate writing. Four volunteers hold the slates, bound together, while a piece of chalk between writes on both slates answers to questions from members of the audience and a libel verse selected at random by a spectator.

With Alexander are three dancers of merit.

Rip Van Winkle, both before and after the twenty-year siesta, is presented by Frank Stafford and company. The act is well mounted, Stafford whistles excellently and his dog, "Schneider" displays remarkable intelligence, responding to the proper cue with more intelligence and alacrity than many two-legged actors we have seen.

For pure slapstick humor with a bawdy slant, Hayes and Beck win the much-hated-about brown derby.
Nothing but humor, but the act was merit.

Might Be a Woman of Fashion, but Not True

JULIAN ELTINGE

On Wednesday afternoon and night at English's Julian Eltinge, a man who makes up like a woman, will be seen in "The Black and White Revue of 1924." He will be assisted by Tom Brown, the Six Brown Brothers, Eddie Ross and many others.

we attended.

"Dixie" and other minstrel songs have no prior men on the banjo. At least, not when the instrument is in the hands of Joe Roberts. Roberts also imitates two banjo players effectively.

Seymour and Cunard entertain with "Tennessee" and other popular songs.
Bill is opened by Ritter and Knapp in a strong man act. Film comedy is edy. (By Observer.)

PALACE PRESENTS RARE ARTIST IN J. C. MACK

There is a big surprise on the new bill at the Palace.

The bill has the services of J. C.
Mack in "Mother Goose," but this announcement does not hint at what one will see.

The curtain goes up on a scene showing the "home" of the old lady who lives in the shoe and her many children. Mack impersonates the old woman herself. Here is a fine piece of comedy characterization. His make-up is wonderful and his funny little walk reaps many laughs.

One will go many months before better comedy character work is seen along these lines. The girls in the act are pretty and talented. Another member of the company is a man who is a splendid mimic. Here is an act which will please the children as well as adults.

Barto and Clark are present with their familiar "Columbia and Victor," a phonograph act with dancing and novelty. This act wears well with age.

Philson, Duncan and Joyce open the bill with a pleasing musical offering.
One of the men is a good pianist and the other is a clever violinist and banjo player. The woman of the act is a nice dancer.

Boxing Brothers know how to make the "geordie" talk. They are easy winners as they know how to combine classical music with the tunes of the day.

Hal and Hazel Langton offer some nonsense in a dental parlor. This team has a heavy line of chatter.
The movie feature is "The Barefoot Boy," with John Powers.

At the Palace today and Wednesday.

MARTY COLLINS INTRODUCES COMEDY JAZZ BAND AT CAPITOL Marty Collins, chief comedian with "Hollywood Polles" at the Capitol this week, does some clever eccentric dancing and also introduces a comedy jazz orchestra.

During the orchestra stunt, Marty attempts to prove that Sousa—well, who is Sousa, anyway? Collins makes one mistake by introducing a certain line of strange alleged comedy while talking to the drummer. This line of bunk isn't real comedy and has no place on the American stage.

patrons who like a mixture of comedy and melody done in variety style.
At the Capitol all week.

ANOTHER MUSICAL SHOW ON VIEW AT BROADWAY

In "Fads and Follies," at the Broadway all week, a better than usual Mutual Wheel burlesque is presented.

What we took to be Mlle. Babette—we did not get a program—gave an interesting series of impersonations somewhat out of the ordinary. She impersonates a vamp, a "dope fiend" and a "tiger woman" with equal success.

One scene, a Chinese garden, was fairly elaborate and pleasing. The chorus displays considerable pep and is well dressed.

Featured with Mlle. Babette is Clara Evans. (By Observer.)

Movies on view today include: Anna Christie, at the Circle; "Wild Oranges," at the Ohio; "The Virginian," at the Apollo; "The Eternal City," at the Capitol; "The Lea-seworth Case," at the Lincoln Square and "Below the Rio Grande," at the Isis.

BOYD RALSTON SPEAKS

"Why Elect Republicans?" Asks Brother of Senator.

Boyd M. Ralston, brother of Senator Samuel M. Ralston, and Democratic nominee for mayor in 1921, was the principal speaker at a meeting of Warren township Democrats in Irvington Monday night.

"What's the use of electing Republicans?" he asked. "They either resign, are indicted or are impeached."

It was announced that Edgar A.
Pardner would be a candidate for re-election as representative from Marion County.

Philson, Duncan and Joyce open the
bill with a pleasing musical offering.
One of the men is a good pianist and
the other is a clever violinist and
banjo player. The woman of the act
is a nice dancer.

Boxing Brothers know how to make

Doctor Tells How to Strengthen Eyesight 50 Per Cent in One Week's Time, in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home
Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye-strain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the use of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, "I tried trying it. Now I can read everything without any glasses, and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses.
It is believed that thousands will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of wearing glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tabs-lets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and the irritation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late.
Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted, said:
"Bon-Opto is a very reliable remedy.
Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eye-

60,000,000 POUNDS IN ONE TRANSACTION

RECORD PURCHASE OF BURLEY TOBACCO
The sale of leaf tobacco on record has just been announced by the Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association, which sold to Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company sixty million pounds of Burley leaf.
Included in the purchase was a very large quantity of old Burley Tobacco, 1922 Crop —the best Burley ever grown in Kentucky.
Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company will use it in the manufacture of their widely-known brands, especially Velvet Smoking Tobacco, insuring a superior quality.

The year 1922 was a "vintage year" for Burley tobacco—the best Kentucky ever grew.

Favored all through the season with exceptional tobacco weather —just enough warmth and not too much rain—the crop developed a "body" and character seldom before equalled.

Our recent 60-million-pound purchase included a big carry-over from this fine crop.

Fine quality—mild, full, mellow flavor—this is nothing new for Velvet smokers; but this big supply is an extra safeguard. The same price—mark this well—the same quality as always: "The best Burley grown in Kentucky."

Gum Chewing Aids the Teeth

You have the authority of doctors and dentists for this statement. Your own experience will prove it, if you will use WRIGLEY'S after every meal.

The following quotations from a recent work on teeth and health are worth remembering:

"Dentists have found that the exercise of gum chewing brings about a better nutrition of the teeth. . . ."

"The cleansing action of the gum between the teeth helps to keep them free from the particles which lodge in the crevices and cause decay."

The busy man—or woman either—rarely has time to clean the teeth after eating. Yet they should be cleaned, and will do it. Also it will aid digestion and furnish welcome refreshment to mouth and throat.

Sealed in its purity package, bringing all its original goodness and flavor to you.
