

SALESMEN READY FOR BIGGEST DAY AT AUTO EXHIBIT

Show Declared to Be Better Than Display at Chicago.

Salesmen arrived at the Automobile Show in the Manufacturers' building at the State fairground today arrayed in their Sunday clothes, hair slicked extra bright and shoes vying in brightness with the highlights on the cars. If ever there are to be crowds uncountable and sales galore, Thursday afternoon and night is the time. At least, that is what John Orman, manager, said, and he bought an extra box of cigars for emergency.

Sales are coming so fast that salesmen are beginning to worry about getting their cars delivered on time. In Kirby Allen, with C. H. Walcott, Company, said nearly every Dodge in his exhibit is sold. Every car is equipped with balloon tires, which he said are "the rage" now.

84 YEAR OLD MAN MADE STRONG AGAIN

"Have Found New Supply of Vitality," Says Oklahoman

Made vigorous as a man of 30 years virtually, 84-year-old J. L. Rowell, well-known rancher of Kaw City, Oklahoma, declares that his amazing recovery was brought about in a few days by an exceedingly simple method. "I am as strong and vigorous as I was at 30," he says, "and am getting in better condition than I ever thought possible. Before I tried this method, I wished I was dead. I was in so hopeless a condition, I was skeptical and had lost faith in everything. Now in a few days, my strength is awakened and I am enjoying a complete restoration of my old-time vim." Six months have passed since Mr. Rowell made his test, and he is still convinced that the beneficial effects are lasting. He says, "I have found a real fountain of youth."

Speedy Results Reported

Mr. Rowell used the now much talked of Kortex method—the discovery of a Missouri pharmaceutical chemist. As told in a recent issue of the Kansas City Journal, many others are announcing delightful effects received in from 24 hours to a few days after its use. Speedy satisfaction has been reported in cases of weakness after the flu, stiff joints, aching muscles, exhausted nerve force, premature old age and low vitality. Enthusiastic users tell of blessed relief even in obstinate cases of years standing, where all other treatments had failed. This method involves no tremendous expense or painful operation. Tablets are used and are taken privately. It contains no drastic drugs and those who have tested it say its effect is healthful, natural and lasting.

Available to All

So many successes have been reported that the American distributors have decided to make the compound available to any person needing it, with the understanding that it costs nothing should it fail to satisfy. Those now wishing to try this amazing compound under the terms of this money back guarantee may write to the Melton Laboratories, 2625 Melton Building, Kansas City, Mo., and a full strength regular two-dollar trial treatment will be mailed in a plain, sealed package. You may enclose two dollars or simply send your name without money and pay two dollars and postage upon delivery. In either case, if you report within ten days you are not satisfied, the laboratories will refund the purchase price upon request. These laboratories are thoroughly responsible and financially reliable. Any one may accept their guarantee offer with implicit confidence.—Advertisement.

AFRAID SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Operation Unnecessary

"I was run-down, nervous, with no appetite. My side had given me trouble for five or six years. At times it was all I could do to live. That was two years ago. My sister-in-law recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She had never used it herself, but she said one of her neighbors suffered just like I did, and it cured her. After I had taken four bottles the pain left my side. I had a fine appetite to eat anything that was put before me, and I began to do all my work—and my washing, something I hadn't done for years. I am a dress-maker, and this last fall I began suffering with my side again. So I began taking the Vegetable Compound again. I am on my fourth bottle, which makes eight in all I have taken. I feel so much better when I take it and every body tells me I look better. My appetite improves and I feel stronger in every way. I am a very nervous woman and it seems to help my nerves so much."—Mrs. Maggie Waller, Glas-

Restless Eggs

By United Press
CHICAGO, March 6.—Almost dizzy in chasing "hard guys" in Chicago's double murder mystery, police today were asked to take the trail of 144,000 bad eggs.

These bad eggs—and the pure food inspectors said no one could resist how bad they were unless one took a whiff of them—were shipped from the Ozarks to Alex Getz, wholesale grocer. The inspectors captured the advance guard of ten cases and told Getz to hold the rest.

Then the inspectors pushed off for gas masks and carbolic acid; carbolic is effective in suppressing restless eggs. When they returned they found the eggs had come and gone—walked off under their own horsepower.

Getz was ordered to court for violating the order to hold the eggs.

features of any car in the show. Reeves, who saw the Chicago show, said the Indianapolis display has it "beat a mile."

Spanish leather upholstery is an attractive feature of many cars. The Twyman Remanufacturing Motors Company puts "monkey glands" in worn-out Nashes and Buicks and others. Considerable attention is given to a Nash bought for $35 and now priced at $485.

"Real Service" is being extended by Charles B. Johnson of the Homer A. Keller Company. Charlie sells blue bulbs that give daylight rays. Women, he says, like to stand before the light and have a little daylight cast on them.

Bed in Brougham

Roy Daniel Despreux is suffering the "penalty" of having an exhibit opposite the main entrance. All day he is busy showing the advantages of the Stutz touring car. He finds time to eat. Nevertheless, he said he'll be able to buy a real meal when the show is over.

If you are contemplating a trip to Florida, California or Turkey Run, it will profit you to consider the new Jewett Brougham in the Newcomer Brothers' display. When night comes and the traveler is tired, he can open the back seat and recline on a cosy bed. If you've ever operated a conveyer, you'll understand this.

Traffic Inspector Michael J. Glenn has bought a blue Stutz touring car in the Udyke Auto Company exhibit. It is priced at $1,995.

More than 16,000 saw the show Wednesday.

GIRL DENIES SHE LED BANDIT GANG

Man's Confession Implicates Vera McDonald.

Charged with being the leader of a gang of about twenty-five robbers, Miss Vera McDonald, alias Ethel Smith, 19, said to be from Indianapolis, is held by Cincinnati police, according to dispatches.

Miss McDonald was arrested following confession of James O'Connor, 22, Boston, said to have implicated her. Described as being barely five feet tall and weighing about 100 pounds, Miss McDonald, dispatches say, sat in the police station at Cincinnati and denied she was leader of the gang, which she characterized as composed of "dumbbells." She is said to have admitted she knew members of the gang.

According to a dispatch, O'Connor said the gang traveled from city to city, using six automobiles. He is said to have described a number of robberies in Ohio.

The officers said witnesses told them the car was driven onto the sidewalk, just east of Thirtieth St., and the bumper struck the boy, bruising him.

Miss Gertrude Burnell, 538 Fletcher Ave., was slightly injured today when an automobile in which she was riding collided at Virginia Ave. and Stevens St., with a car driven by Gus Gifford, 631 Stevens St. She was taken home. According to Mrs. Lane, who wrote a letter to the coroner, Miss Norris told her that after the wreck she found a 10-year-old boy near the track. She said the boy told her that his aunt and his aunt's baby were killed in the wreck. She said, according to the letter, that she took the boy to Anderson and turned him over to a woman at the interurban station there. The name of the boy, the aunt or the woman who took the boy were not learned.

TRIAL OF GLADYS ELLIS IS SET FOR APRIL 8 BY JUDGE

Defendant Weeps, Supported by Sheriff and Matron, as Date Is Given.

Weeping audibly as she was supported by Sheriff George Snider and a jail matron, Gladys Ellis, 21, today heard Judge James A. Collins set date for her trial, on a charge of murdering Mrs. Louise Richards, 70, matron-teacher at the Indiana Woman's Prison, for April 8, in Criminal Court. Although Gladys has confessed she murdered Mrs. Richards in order to escape from the prison, Feb. 25, the law required that she plead not guilty to the charge of first-degree murder. Pale and trembling, Gladys sat in the courtroom while Deputy Prosecutor Byron K. Elliott read an indictment charging Charles Edward Henry, colored, with first-degree murder of Policeman Jesse Louden, June 18, 1923, at Central Ave. and Sixteenth St. Henry, well-dressed and wearing sideburns, stared around the courtroom vacantly. His trial was set for March 28.

When Gladys, very nervous, was brought forward, Elliott asked that reading of the indictment be waived. Judge Collins said this could not be done in the case of a first degree murder charge.

Gladys almost fainted when Elliott read: "She did kill and murder said Louise Richards."

After Daniel Ellis, Gladys's father, said he had talked to Attorney H. B. Pike about defending Gladys, Judge Collins said he would appoint Pike assistant to C. R. Cameron, attorney for the poor.

Under Indiana law, a jury trial is required for a prisoner charged with first degree murder, even though he has confessed. A judge cannot sentence a prisoner to death.

How I Increased My Weight and Energy after Pneumonia

Gained 15 Pounds in Less Than Three Weeks' Time

"A severe attack of pneumonia pulled me down to the very bottom. When I got up my eyes were so sunken, my cheeks so hollow and my whole body so weakened, that I was unable to do anything but lie in bed. I must have looked like the very ghost of my former self. Need of money for the family support made me feel that I must get back to work quickly, and despite my condition, back to work I went."

"Now after several weeks I look and feel far better than before I was sick—I have put on over 15 pounds of firm, solid flesh—I have a healthy color and I got up in the morning full of pep and energy. I attribute this amazing return to health chiefly to the fact that I took, with every meal, two of MASTIN'S VITAMON TABLETS. Their quick up-building effect is truly remarkable."

This letter from a New York man clearly shows of what tremendous value are those muscle, bone and blood-building elements contained in concentrated form in MASTIN'S VITAMON TABLETS.
