

LINKING OF LINES FAVORED TO GIVE BETTER SERVICE

Citizens Committee Proposes
Rerouting of Street
Cars.

Cross-town street car service by linking two lines serving opposite sides of the city will be the chief aim of the citizens' street car service committee appointed by Taylor Granger, corporation counsel.

Although the committee hopes to improve service by rerouting cars downtown, James P. Trotter, superintendent of the Indianapolis Street Railway Company, admitted, after a committee meeting late Wednesday at the city hall, that "nothing was done" of constructive nature.

John N. Feeze, committee chairman, submitted recommendations which were discussed along with nearly a score of letters from citizens on ways to improve car service.

Feeze suggested linking the English Ave. and West Indianapolis lines by the way of Virginia Ave., Maryland St. and Kentucky Ave. He also proposed joining Prospect and Stock yards lines and Indiana and Columbia Ave. lines.

With suggestions for east and west linking across the city, it was proposed, in letters from car riders, that the Alabama and East St. lines and the Pennsylvania and Garfield Park lines could be joined for cross-town service between north and south sides. It also was proposed to route some Illinois and College Ave. cars in continuous circuit by the way of Ohio St.

Trotter told the committee that the company had 330 double truck and thirty single truck cars. Of the 360 cars, 325 are in daily use. He admitted that equipment was old, and that the schedules were slow because of poor tracks. He also agreed that residents north of Twenty-First St., between Northwestern Ave. and Illinois St. and between Illinois St. and Central Ave. from Twenty-Second to Thirty-Fourth Sts. should have additional lines.

The committee will meet again next Wednesday.

St. Olaf Choir to Sing Here Sunday Afternoon

The St. Olaf Lutheran Choir with F. Melius Christiansen as director, will appear in concert at the Murat Sunday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock.

The choir is brought here under the auspices of the City Walther League of Indianapolis.

The beginning of the St. Olaf Lutheran Choir dates back more than a score of years. It was first known as the St. John's Church Choir, but the name was changed in 1912 to the St. Olaf Choir, as most of the members were students of St. Olaf College.

It was at that time that the choir made its first tour, including such cities as Minneapolis, Milwaukee and Chicago.

During the years 1912-1920 short annual tours were made, principally through mid-western States. In 1913 the choir, which is very largely composed of young people of Norwegian parentage, visited the Scandinavian countries and gave about thirty-five concerts abroad. Enormous crowds greeted them everywhere, and press comments were extremely favorable.

At its first appearance in Christiana, Norway, the King and Queen attended the concert, and at the close came forward to greet the director and the choir, and to express their profound admiration. More recently, 1920-1923, the choir has visited the larger cities of our own country. It has sung in New York on three different occasions, the last time in the Metropolitan Opera House. It is acknowledged everywhere to be one of the best choral organizations in America, if not in the world.

The choir always sings without accompaniment and from memory. The programs rendered contain selections from the best sacred choral music from Johan Sebastian Bach to the present time. Usually the program is divided into three groups separated by short intermissions, during which the choir leaves the stage. The choir always stands while singing—a compact portable platform arranged in tiers being used to bring out the best ensemble effects.

All the members of the choir are students at St. Olaf College, and very little time is available each year for concert tours. It has always been recognized that the first consideration and prime duty of these boys and girls is their academic work.

Attractions on view today include: "Alice in Wonderland" at the Murat, Hope Eden at Keith's, "Stolen Sweets" at the Lyric, "Trimmed in Scarlet" at English's, new show at the Palace, "Town Scoundals" at the Capitol, "Money Mad" at the Lincoln Square, "The Pacemakers" at the Broadway, "When a Man's a Man" at the Circle, "Daughters of Today" at the Ohio, "The Virginian" at Mister Smith's, "Meatime" at the Apollo, and "Trouble Trail" with Neva Gerber and Richard Hutton, at the Isis.

Co-featured on the bill is Harry Langdon's comedy, "Johnny's New Car," presented by Jimmy Russell, Peggy and Polly. It has to do with the trials of an inexperienced but proud owner of a car. Edna and Gracia are two maids of harmony, instrumental music and chatter. Boland and Knight have a comic skit, "The Brave Coward," while Keno, Keys and Melrose will entertain with talk, dancing and acrobatic stunts.

A Paramount picture, "Flaming Barriers," starring Jacqueline Logan, Walter Hiers, Antonio Moreno and Robert McKim, will be the screen feature.

FARM WORK FAR BEHIND SEASON

Unfavorable Weather Has Prevented Usual Activity.

Farm work and preparation for spring planting is far behind because of unfavorable weather preventing nearly all outdoor work, according to the semi-monthly report of George C. Bryant, U. S. agricultural statistician. Temperatures for the period averaged some below normal, but with considerable excess in precipitation and not much sunshine.

Condition of winter wheat and rye is quite spotted with the poorest condition in the southwestern part of the State and the best in the northeastern part, the report shows.

But little clover has been seeded, and much of last year's frozen out. Timothy meadows and pastures are beginning to show life about two weeks late, Bryant states.

Bryant reports livestock in fairly good condition and the labor situation fairly satisfactory.

ARMITAGE, ELLIOTT PUT THROUGH QUIZ

Council Investigation Gets Under Way.

Investigation of various city departments was under way today by the special council committee following a secret session Wednesday night in the City Hall, where three witnesses were examined.

William H. Armitage, political director of the Shank administration, John L. Elliott, city engineer, and Michael Jefferson, center township assessor, were questioned. Armitage was before the committee ten minutes, Elliott was questioned nearly half an hour, and Jefferson for only a minute.

The three men were sworn to secrecy and a hall outside the committee room, guarded the door. Two stenographers took testimony.

Following the meeting, Councilman Lloyd D. Claycombe, chairman, announced the committee would examine additional witnesses Friday at 7:30 p. m.

Claycombe said he cancelled his proposed trip to California.

The charges of Councilman Otto Ray which referred to letting of contracts are thought to have been probed in the examination of Elliott and Armitage.

Jefferson was believed questioned on records pertaining to certain assessments for taxation.

CROWD WATCHES CHICAGO ROBBERY

Clerk Shot in Downtown
Hold-up.

By United Press

CHICAGO, April 3.—Five suspects were examined by police today in the hunt for three bandits who last night killed a clerk and robbed a drug store across the street from the city hall, while thousands of theater patrons were jamming the sidewalk.

Joseph Maurer, 20, clerk, was shot because he refused to tell the bandits the combination to the safe.

The bandits hustled Maurer and three others in the store to the basement. A few moments later they brought the clerk up. The captives in the basement heard some scuffling and then several shots.

Scores of persons, attracted by the shots, pressed against the windows. But the bandits worked on, prying open the safe and secured $500. Guns in hand, they made their escape.

Delicious Slices of Nourishment

Nourishment in this case does not mean, alone, the nourishing ingredients which are combined in this loaf of CRUSADER BREAD.

These ingredients are, in fact, the best that can be secured. But it is also in the ideal process of mixing and baking—the skill which has come from years of experience of the world's greatest bakers—that the secret of the world's greatest bakers—that the secret of these DELICIOUS slices of nourishment lies.

CRUSADER BREAD combines nourishment, wholesomeness and delicacy of flavor in such liberal measure as to give each slice, in its tender frame of rich-brown crust, a distinctive character.

Served with a spread of butter or jam—with chicken or ham as a sandwich—toasted for a poached egg or cheese—served in any of the score of ways which make it the base of a meal, CRUSADER BREAD proclaims its difference from the commonplace.
