CLEWS TRAILED IN M'GRAIL DEATH AFTER HOLD-UP

Possible Suicide Theory Not Overlooked by Police on Case.

The investigation of the mysterious shooting of Dr. Joseph C. McGrail, dentist, 5438 N. New Jersey St., fatally wounded while passing Washington Blvd., and Fifty-Fourth St., Wednesday night, May 14, will go forward in two channels, detectives said today.

Findings of the gun which detectives say was the one used in the shooting, in a sewer catch basin, Wednesday, opened new clues.

McGrail told Sgt. Ralph Dean he was en route home when two young men in an auto held him up, took $35 and fired one shot. He staggered to his home with a bullet wound in the abdomen and collapsed at the doorstep.

His pocketbook was found next day by a lineman at Delaware and Fifty-Fourth St., a block west of the place of the shooting. Detectives also said Dr. McGrail, who had been ill for more than a year and just recently returned to his practice, and was despondent over poor business conditions. He had planned on selling his business and property, they say.

cleaning establishment at 2234 E. Washington St., and a friend of the McGrails, said a few days before the shooting he delivered a suit to his office, and at that time McGrail asked him if he knew where he could get a .32-caliber revolver, the same calibre as the one with which he was shot.

The number of the revolver found Wednesday was sent to the Iver-Johnson Revolver Company in an effort to trace the ownership.

CADLE OPPOSES DANCE AND JAZZ AT TABERNACLE

Promises Suit if Building Is 'Misused' in Breach of Contract.

Branding the proposed fancy dancing and jazz music at Cadle Tabernacle as "a desecration," E. Howard Cadle, founder and former owner of the Cadle Tabernacle, today served written notice upon the present owners of the tabernacle he would "take such steps as are necessary to preserve the property for the uses for which it was erected."

Cadle, in a letter to Daniel L. Speicher, Walter S. Hanning and J. W. Speicher, objected formally to the proposed "Speedfest Jubilee" to be given at the tabernacle by Sahara Grotto.

In the letter Cadle declares sale of the tabernacle to the new owners was upon the following conditions: "The building shall always carry the name of Cadle Tabernacle and that the property shall always be used for religious, civic and municipal purposes for the moral, social and spiritual uplifting of humanity and the advancing of God's Kingdom."

Cadle has previously stated he will file suit in the Superior Court asking for an injunction to prevent any "misuse" of the building.

Those at the Tabernacle refused to make any statement in the absence of Daniel L. Speicher and other owners.

SQUEAKY DOOR ROUTS BURGLAR

Woman Screams and Husband Chases Intruder.

Police today are looking for a burglar who fled from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Colonel W. G. Wall, 1431 N. Delaware St., with $17 and three revolvers taken from a hunting case.

Mrs. Wall was awakened when the door to the bedroom squeaked as the burglar attempted to open it. She screamed and Wall chased the intruder from the house.

Police are also investigating theft of a typewriter valued at $40 from the Reliance Paint Shop, 232 Cavens St., Daniel Tague, Williamsport, Ind., reported his pocketbook containing $30, stolen from his pocket at the Republican State Convention in Tomlinson Hall.

HOW TO GET THIN

French Specialist Tells How to Lose Excess Fat Without Exercises, Habit Forming Drugs or Worthless Creams.

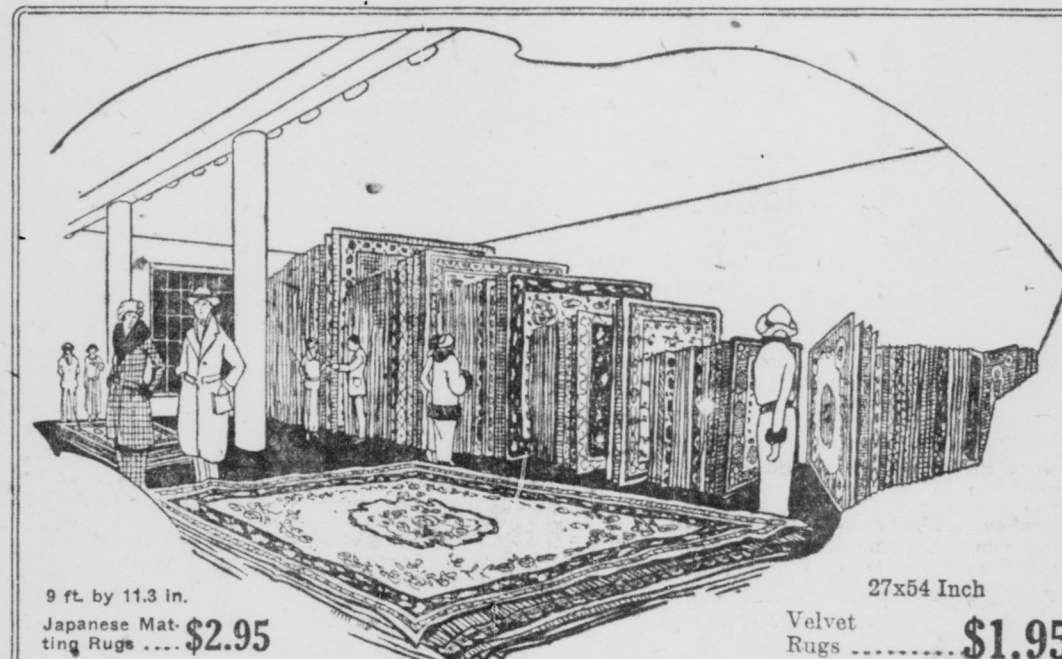

"If you are 10 to 100 pounds overweight you can easily and safely lose all that fat," says a French specialist. "For years I suffered with fifty pounds of excess fat. I was weak, short of breath and all in all I could not find any clothes to fit me, and I was thoroughly disgusted with my life until I found out about SAN-GRINA, a marvelous discovery. I know that a great many fat men and women are going through these same troubles today. And for their benefit, I am glad to explain what I did to reduce and how they can easily and gradually lose a few pounds each week without any danger. Go to any good drug store and get a package of SAN-GRINA—remember the name, and do not accept anything else, as nothing like this has ever before been offered to the American public."

SAN-GRINA can be had at Pearson's, Hook Drug Company and Haar Drug Company stores.
