

PLEA TO ESCAPE DRAFT MAY BAR ALIEN AS CITIZEN

Interesting Case Up for Decision at Frisco—May Go to High Court.

By A. H. FREDERICK
NEA Service Writer.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Shall an alien's claim for exemption from military service, back in war days, forever bar him from American citizenship?

The San Francisco Federal district court of appeals is trying to decide the question now. But the final answer, no doubt, will have to come from the United States Supreme Court.

For three naturalization cases, on appeal here, are furnishing the tests which will determine the policy to be followed in the future by 2,500 different citizenship courts throughout the country.

Most far-reaching of the three is the case of Lasse Siem, a Norwegian subject, admitted to citizenship by Federal Judge Bourquin of Butte, Mont.

Held Highest Duty

In this instance, the court held that a "neutral alien" performed his highest duty both to his native country and to the United States by remaining neutral.

"A declarant not given citizenship protection by this country, nor yet an ex-subject of his native country," said Judge Bourquin, "is answerable to the latter for his conduct."

"He consistently can remain neutral when his country remains neutral."

Government counsel took an appeal. And the American Legion, actively interested in all three cases, assailed Judge Bourquin's ruling.

The other actions came up before Superior Judge Morgan here.

Judge Morgan specifically declares he does not agree with the Bourquin decision. He holds, however, the exemption to explanation by oral testimony.

The first of the cases he considered was that of a German, Jaul G. Lucas.

"I did not agree with the Government that Lucas could not show his qualifications for becoming a citizen," comments the San Francisco jurist.

"The selective service act provided enemy aliens must be exempted and placed in class S-E. And Lucas' questionnaire proves this was done."

Should Not Be Penalized

"But I do not believe it was intended that a man, thus obeying the law, later should be penalized for so doing."

"I allowed evidence of Lucas' good faith, of his attempt to enlist in the medical corps, of his purchase of $500 worth of Liberty Bonds and similar evidence which convinced me of his right to citizenship."

The case of Giacomo Buschiazio, an Italian, involved a similar question of whether oral testimony could be introduced after the questionnaire had shown exemption had been claimed.

"The evidence convinced me Buschiazio had not understood what he was doing when he claimed exemption, and that he would make a good citizen. So I decided he should be permitted to become one."

"We are trying what is in a man's heart," says Alvin Gerlach, chairman of the legion committee watching the conduct of the cases.

And M. R. Bevington, naturalization examiner, who is conducting them for the Government, contends an "alien should not be allowed to impeach his questionnaire now that the war is over."

MYSTERIES OF THE ANCIENT

The Department of Agriculture of Egypt has seeds which were found in age-proof containers in the tomb of King Tutankhamen, which they will endeavor to propagate at their Agricultural Research Laboratories. These seeds may represent herbs containing medicinal properties that this age and generation knows not of. It was the simple roots and herbs of the field that half a century ago produced Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a remedy that has never been equalled in overcoming ailments peculiar to women.—Advertisement.

BUILD SAND BOX FOR CHILDREN

THIS IS THE FIRST OF A SERIES OF TEN ARTICLES ON THE CONSTRUCTION AND USE OF PLAYGROUND EQUIPMENT ADAPTED TO THE BACKYARD.

By W. C. BATCHELOR

THE sand pile is without doubt the most popular play facility of childhood. Every boy and girl enjoys the unparalleled opportunity for play of the imagination in the building of caves, houses, lakes, rivers, highways, railroads, farms, villages and the like, in sand.

Not only does the attraction of the sand box keep the child in his own yard, but at the same time engages him in a highly educational activity.

The cost of a sand box is so slight that no child need be denied this precious opportunity. The accompanying sketch indicates a practical method of construction. The size, four by six feet, is large enough for two or even more children.

Material needed:

Two pieces, 2 inches by 12 inches by 8 feet.

Two pieces, 2 inches by 12 inches by 4 feet.

Two pieces, 2 inches by 10 inches by 4 feet.

One pound No. 16 common nails. (Approximate cost, $3.10.)

One load (one yard) clean sand. (Approximate cost, $3.)

The shelf provides a seat as well as a "counter" on which to turn out molds and from which to "sell" cakes, pies, etc.

A dozen blocks the size of bricks (8 inches long), cut from a 2 by 4-inch board, are a valuable addition, being useful for walls and roofs of buildings, fences, bridges, etc. Small garden tools or a large spoon should be a part of the equipment. Dampen the sand occasionally and keep out bottles or other articles of glass.

In choosing the location for the sand box, seek for any natural shade. Too, a canvas canopy can be built over the box at a small additional expense. An old Army "pup" tent is just the right size for a shelter of this kind.

'JAZZ' ORCHESTRA LEADER RESENTS FRENCH ATTITUDE

Ban, Reported in Force, Insult to America, Vincent Lopez Says.

By Times Special

NEW YORK, June 4.—Vincent Lopez, the "jazz" orchestra leader, said today that, if cable dispatches were correct in saying that American musicians were being forced to leave France merely because they played "jazz" music, it was an insult to the United States.

"If this is official action by the French government, it is a slap at America," said Mr. Lopez. "It seems hardly possible that such could be the case. It might be possible that certain American musicians have been asked to leave because of objectionable conduct."

Popular Abroad

"The popularity of 'jazz' music abroad is great, and it is winning appreciation, not as freak stuff, but as true American music. It certainly can't be stopped by attacking individual musicians."

Mr. Lopez asserted that the recent development of "jazz" music entitled it to be considered a serious form of art, not a matter to be dealt with by the gendarmes.

"I have been for a long time making a study both of the word 'jazz' and of the kind of music which it represents," he said.

How We Got the Word "Jazz"

"The origin of the colloquial word jazz is shrouded in mystery. The story of its beginning that is most generally told and most generally believed among musicians has to do with a corruption of the name 'Charles'."

In Vicksburg, Miss., during the period when rag-time was at the height of its popularity and 'blues' were gaining favor, there was a colored drummer of rather unique ability named 'Charles' Washington. As is a very common custom in certain parts of the South he was called 'Craz.' 'Chaz.'"

"Jazz," I believe, developed from that and was applied to the type of music 'Chaz' was noted for."

JUDGE REFUSES PIANIST DIVORCE

Short Courtship Reason for Denial.

Because Earle Transue, 34, a choir singer, insisted on telling stories which embarrassed her, Mrs. Frances Transue, pianist, 22, 2154 N. Delaware St., told Superior Judge Sidney S. Miller she desired a divorce. Also because he has departed for parts unknown in Pennsylvania.

"How long had you known Transue when you were married?" asked Judge Miller.

"A month and a half," she replied. "I didn't think it necessary to get recommendations because I met him in church, where I was playing."

"Well, I don't see much ground for divorce here," said the judge.

"Your honor, he let her go hungry at times, and made her suffer mentally," suggested Attorney Herschell Moats.

"Any one who will get married on such short notice might expect to suffer," replied Judge Miller. "Divorce denied."

CEMETERY STORY TO BE WRITTEN

Improvements Are Planned for Crown Hill.

The sixty years' history of Crown Hill cemetery will be compiled as a permanent record of the historic burying ground, according to decision of the board of managers.

The board re-elected Hugh McK Landon, president; Frederick M. Ayres, vice president; William L. Elder, second vice president; Walter C. Marmon, treasurer; and Raymond E. Siefert, secretary.

The annual report of Landon showed 75,000 dead in the cemetery since it was first laid out in 1864. The perpetual fund amounts to $1,250,000.

Miss Anna Nichols will compile the history of Crown Hill and Meredith Nicholson heads a committee making arrangements to observe the sixtieth anniversary.

Directors have approved giving to the Indianapolis park board a strip of land forty feet wide off the east side of the cemetery for making Conser Ave. a boulevard.

Erection of a crematory and columbarium, subway under Maple Rd., and construction of new driveway and sewers are planned in a three-year expansion program.

Dunlap Supplies Need of Radio Fans in His Manual

By WALTER D. HICKMAN

YOU can "listen in" better on your radio when you have a copy of Orrin E. Dunlap's "The Radio Manual."

To supply the big demand for an authentic treatise on radio, Houghton-Mifflin Company, Boston, have just issued the manual.

Dunlap, in introducing his book, states: "During the past two years I have answered thousands of ques-

Among the many questions answered include: "How vacuum tubes operate?" "Which way to point the antenna?" "How to install a set?" "What type of coils to use?" "How to locate trouble in your set?" and many others.

This book of nearly 280 pages brings one a little closer to the mysteries of the radio. As far as my experience extends in this line of literature, Dunlap's manual appears to be the leader in this line of inquiry.

Was interested in the chapter dealing with "How Words Enter the Ether." That has always been a mystery to me and Dunlap has helped me to get better acquainted with the process.

"To the surprise of many, the microphone treats all sound alike," Dunlap states. "It reproduces with entire fidelity all sounds from the cry of a baby to the feeble voice of an old man. The individual characteristics are always preserved, even more so than over the ordinary telephone. Just the tick of a watch, a sigh, a cough, or deep breath, before a microphone in New York, is sufficient to set the ether in vibration across the continent."

It seems to me that this manual is complete, written in language that all may understand and, above all, is authentic.

Just the book for radio fans.

TECH PUPILS CELEBRATE

Unveiling of Portrait of Milo H. Stuart to Feature Supreme Day.

A portrait of Milo H. Stuart, first principal of Technical High School, gift of the student body, will be unveiled at the school's annual Supreme day celebration on the quad-rangle late today. The Choral Society will present "The Bohemian Girl," on the outdoor stage at 7:30 p. m.

Work of the 5,000 students enrolled at Tech will be exhibited during the day.

Supreme day commemorates the decision of the Supreme Court returned May 22, 1916 which gave the school board title to the grounds.

MRS. SCHOBERT GAINS 35 POUNDS ON TANLAC

Indianapolis Lady Says Medicine Has Overcome Nervousness and Sick Headaches.

"Tanlac has increased my weight from 115 to 150 pounds and made me so well and happy that I just feel like singing for joy," is the enthusiastic statement of Mrs. W. E. Schobert, 246 W. Bakemeyer St., Indianapolis, Ind.

"The change in me is perfectly wonderful! Why three months ago, my appetite was so poor I hardly cared to eat anything, my nerves were all unstrung and I was feeling woefully weak and run-down. Bilious attacks, severe headaches, dizziness and sleeplessness were also troubling me; sometimes I ached from head to feet, and everything I took to relieve my troubles seemed to aggravate them instead."

"But not so with Tanlac. It gave me complete relief and now I eat fine, sleep fine and feel fine and am simply delighted with the strength and energy it has brought me. Tanlac is certainly a grand medicine."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.
