

OFFICER INJURED WHEN MOTORCYCLE RUNS INTO AUTO

Talbot and Fall Creek Scene of Another Accident When Car Goes Over Wall.

Motorcycle Officer Jacob Hudgins, 14 Whittier Pl., was injured about the legs and received a sprained ankle when his motorcycle collided with an auto driven by Clarence Hale, 24, of 2159 N. Illinois St., at Capitol Ave. and McLean Pl.

Hale told Sergeant Dean, who charged him with assault and battery and improper driving, that he gave a hand signal and turned east off of Capitol Ave. when the motorcycle struck the rear end. Hudgins said Hale did not give a hand signal.

Talbot Ave. and Fall Creek Blvd., where three automobiles have gone over the embankment with fatalities, was the scene of a fourth accident Thursday night.

Says Lights Were Out

Alfred Schaffer, 602 Eastern Ave., told police he was driving south on Talbot Ave., and thought he was on Meridian St. and saw no lights along the bank. He brought the car to a stop two feet from edge of the water.

Mrs. Catherine Manier and Miss Alfreda Manier, of Versailles, Ohio, relatives of Schaffer, and Mrs. Nicholas Schon, 556 Eastern Ave., and Miss Euela Hughes, 416 E. Tenth St., who were in the car, were uninjured.

Rain Obstructed View

Patrick Butler, 55, of Ben Davis, Ind., was taken to the city hospital suffering with a torn ear and body injuries received when he was struck by an auto driven by A. G. Williams, 222 N. Holmes Ave., who was arrested on an assault and battery charge. Williams said the rain obstructed his view.

Forrest Strother, 3153 Northwestern Ave., was charged with assault and battery after his auto is alleged to have struck Morris Dooey, 15, 1533 Saulcy St., a Western Union delivery boy, who was riding a bicycle at 3039 E. Washington St. Dooey was charged with failure to have a light on his bicycle.

Sam Jacobs was arrested today on a charge of speeding following an accident on N. Capitol Ave., in which two cars were badly damaged. H. E. McMahon, 3115 Kenwood Ave., stopped to turn off on Thirty-Second St. and was struck by the Jacobs car, police say. The McMahon machine was hurled into another car.

Chosen Again

ROBERT W. BRACKEN

Robert W. Bracken, auditor of State, was renominated for the office at the Democratic State convention Thursday.

driven by Miss Elsie Kiemle, 3919 Ruckle St.

A car driven by William R. Love, 19, 1317 N. Beville Ave., skidded on N. Meridian St., and crashed into cars driven by R. R. Brown of Anderson, Ind., and Dr. O. E. Yater, 3226 Clifton St. Richard T. Yater, young son of Dr. Yater, was slightly injured, and Mrs. N. B. Clark of Anderson, in the Brown car, was cut on the arm.

Leo Mahoney, 35, of 345 Prospect St., held on a charge of operating an automobile while intoxicated.

Navy Week Planned

"Navy Week" will be observed the week of June 9-15 to further plans for the U. S. naval reserve camp at Camp Shank on White River this summer. The Chamber of Commerce and the Junior Chamber are in charge. Boys between 15 and 20 years of age will be accepted for the camp, which opens June 16 and continues until Sept. 15. Lieut. F. F. Knackel will be commandant.

Will Join New Council

The Jewish Federation will become affiliated with the Indiana Council of Social Agencies, now being organized. The move was decided upon at a meeting of the board of governors of the Federation Thursday night. Committees for the present fiscal year were named.

Legion Post Affair

A box lunch party will be held by the Indianapolis Post of the American Legion at the South Grove Golf Club Tuesday at 8 p. m. There will be dancing after supper.

POLITICAL PARTY NOT TO AFFILIATE

'Independents' Withdraw 18
Delegates.

The National Independent Party, with headquarters in Indianapolis, will go its own way, hold its own convention, nominate its own candidates, and will not affiliate with any other organization, John Zahnd, executive secretary, said today. The National convention will be held here July 1.

The eighteen delegates chosen for the Progressive convention at St. Paul, Minn., June 17, have been withdrawn. Zahnd said. He also declared no delegates will be sent to the Progressive Political Action League's convention at Cleveland, Ohio, July 4.

Zahnd said the St. Paul convention undoubtedly will be controlled by the Federated Farmer Labor group, and the Cleveland convention by the Socialist party.

Senator La Follette of Wisconsin is said to be the directing genius of the Progressive Political Action League.

Democratic candidate for attorney general, nominated at the State convention Thursday, is Harvey Harmon of Princeton.

FEARED INVESTIGATION

So Girl Poison Victim Stays Away
From Hospital.

Fear of police investigation caused Miss Beulah Ayres, 20, of 1010 N. New Jersey St., to refrain from going to city hospital when told to do so by Dr. James A. Garrison, Hume-Mansur Bldg., whom she appealed for medical aid, after taking poison, according to police today.

Police said the girl had quarreled with a man friend. She became ill in the rear room of the Circle Theater Thursday and was sent to the hospital. Attendants said she probably would recover.

Improper Driving Alleged

Bishop Lowe, colored, of 921 Locke St., was charged with driving on the left side of the street by police who allege his auto struck the bicycle of Floyd Parker, 10 N. Rural St., at Vermont St., and Indiana Ave. Parker was slightly injured.

AID SOCIETY TO MURAT

Pennsylvania Railroad Organization
Takes Block of Seats.

The Women's Aid of the Indianapolis division of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged with Manager Walter Vonnegut of the Murat Players for a block of several hundred seats for Saturday night's performance of "So This Is London," the attraction now playing at the Murat.

Vonnegut has donated a liberal percentage of the proceeds of the sale of these tickets to the organization which was recently formed by the officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad and their wives, to give aid in worthy cases to the families of the employees of the company.
