

MISS BURNS IS BRIDE AT PRELIMINARY HOME CEREMONY

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston to Motor in East on Honeymoon.

THE home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Otto Minter, 325 E. Thirty-Second St., was the scene of a pretty afternoon wedding Saturday when Mrs. Minter's sister, Miss Johanna Burns, became the bride of Thomas Grainger Johnstone, The Rev. Lewis Brown officiated.

Miss Fay Banta, pianist, played Lohengrin's Wedding March and during the ceremony played, "The Berceuse," from Jocelyn. The bride's niece, little Miss Phyllis Joan Minter, was the flower girl, dressed in pink georgette over silver cloth and carried a French basket of Sweetheart roses.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, James P. Burns, wore a lovely gown of white georgette and lace fashioned with a bouffant skirt of tiny ruffles and ribbon, with a white satin kirtle. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, the center of which was made in a corsage to wear with her traveling gown.

Sorority sisters of the bride assisted at the informal reception which followed the ceremony. Baskets of roses and ferns formed an altar banked with ferns and palms, before which the bride party stood.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnstone left immediately on a motor trip in the East, Mrs. Johnstone traveling in a street dress of jade green with trimmings of gray georgette and slippers and hose of gray and a black satin hat. They will be at home at 2356 N. New Jersey St. after July 15.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. James P. Burns and family of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. John W. Chubb of Chicago.

Boys Know Value of Fighting Above Board

Johnny and Jim, aged 12, who are the best of pals and who come to blows frequently, could tell their elder brothers and sisters, and even their mothers and fathers, a thing or two about friendship.

Whenever Johnny and Jim have anything on their minds that might interfere with their being pals, they get it off in a hurry. Being boys, sometimes they settle the question by primitive methods. When it's all over, they shake hands and are as good friends as ever.

They remain friends through many such arguments just because everything they do is above board. No matter how bitter are their rivalries, they do not interfere with their friendship.

They never cherish a grudge; they never double-cross each other. Brother and sister and mother and dad could profit much by adopting some of their ways. There are times when the methods of Johnny and Jim, if substituted for "vector diplomacy," would save heartaches.

Blundering Through

Dear Miss Lee: I have a friend who is as close as a brother to me. We are in love with the same woman. We never speak of this girl, yet I know that we are both thinking the same thing. I love this girl and also love this boy. I am afraid that my pal and I are being drawn farther and farther apart. What can I do to keep this terrible thing from happening?

J. F. K.
You are blundering because you are afraid of frankness. Go to your friend. Say to him: "I love M—, and I believe you love her." I don't know which of us she loves, if either.

"I don't intend to give her up unless I am convinced she loves another. I would abandon my suit then, because I place her happiness above mine."

"I presume you feel the same way. You are my dearest friend. Because of this thing that we have hidden, we are drifting apart. We cannot help it that destiny has made us rivals in love. But that should not endanger our friendship. We shall fight for our love squarely. Let us not lose our friendship because of it."

The Rival Enters

Dear Miss Lee: I am a girl in the teens. I dearly love a boy of 18. I have been a secret admirer of his for some time. I have a girl friend who seems to care a great deal for him and is crazy to go with him. I don't like the way she does, nor does he care for her. She is a very nice girl, but she is not the girl I want. I want the girl who is as good as I am.

Neither do I want to have his picture. When we go riding in this boy's car, he keeps me in the front seat with him. He says that if she cannot sit with him she is going to go with me. Please give me your best advice.

3. Would you quit taking her alone? 4. How often a week should a girl have a date with a boy? ALICE MAY 1 and 2. What an uninteresting rivalry—one who has not a ghost of a chance. I don't know why you should bother about her; she kills her own chances. If she's going to stop going riding with you anyway because she cannot have her own way, that's another thing you need not worry about.

While we're on the subject, you might take a hint from her and see that men do not like girls who throw themselves at the men's heads. And it's hardly worth while to fight over the affections of a boy 18 years old. 3. Depends on the girl's age, whether she is going to school or evening at the home of Mrs. Frank J. Uhl, 2833 South Meridian St.

Honoring Miss Edith Gott, a bride-elect, Miss Hazel Nicholas and Mrs. Little Shaw were joint hostesses at a luncheon and towel shower given at the Polly Primm tea room Saturday afternoon.

Paris Favorite

HERE is a frock Paris never seems to tire of, the apparently simple frock with the plain blouse and wrap-around skirt that gives a suggestion of drapery and affords an uneven hem line which is more graceful than the regulation round effect. This is made of alternating bands of rose-colored satin and more of exactly the same tone. The differences in texture relieve the monotony of plain color and give a very satisfying effect. The black hat is faced with rose-colored satin.

Household Suggestions

Use Warm Water
Always wash silk in lukewarm water. Water that is too hot will turn white silk yellow.

Peeling Tomatoes

You can peel tomatoes quickly by placing a fork in the stem end and holding it directly over the gas flame until you hear the skin pop. Then put under the cold water faucet. The skin will be entirely loosened.

Fruit Combinations

Delicious combinations of fruit make moist and nourishing desserts and are not difficult to prepare. Pineapple and cherries or strawberries or bananas and orange are much better for summer consumption than pastries.

Serving Gooseberries

Boil gooseberries in sugar until they are tender, then strain through a sieve and when they are cold serve with whipped cream flavored with lemon. This is recommended for a breakfast fruit dish as well as for dessert.

Hothouse Tomatoes

A delicious salad is made by peeling and slicing hothouse tomatoes on a flat dish, then covering them with finely chopped lettuce and celery and mayonnaise dressing.

Meat for Broiling

Meat for broiling should be of the best quality obtainable, otherwise another method of cooking is preferable.

Invitation to Associate Membership Extended to Women.

TWO KILLED IN AIRPLANE CRASH

Instruction Flight Fatal to Aviator and Girl.

By United Press
AKRON, Ohio, June 28.—Howard R. Calvert, 35, of Medina, Ohio, and Miss Ewilda Wickersham, 21, of Cuyahoga Falls, were killed Friday night when the airplane in which they were flying fell 1,000 feet.

Calvert, a commercial aviator and instructor in flying, had taken Miss Wickersham up for an instruction flight and it is believed the girl was in control of the machine when the motor suddenly stopped.

Watchers in the field below said they heard the motor suddenly sputter and die, then they saw the big plane suddenly slide into a tail spin and come hurtling end on end to earth.

GAIN WEIGHT

One cup strawberries with 1 dessert-spoon sugar, 1 cup uncooked cereal with 1 dessert-spoon sugar and 4 tablespoons cream, 4 bread-crumbs, 4 tablespoons maple syrup, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 cup cream of potato soup, 1 cottage cheese sandwich, 1 cup caramel custard, 1 cup tomato bouillon, 8 ounces broiled herring, 4 tablespoons scalloped potatoes, 1 cup string beans in bacon sauce, 4 tablespoons shredded cabbage, 12 raisins, 2 2-inch squares corn bread, 1 pint whole milk, 2 tablespoons butter.

Total calories, 3,982. Protein, 422; fat, 1,590; carbohydrate, 2,104.

This cottage cheese sandwich is made moist with heavy cream and the bread is well buttered.

Bread-Crumb Griddle Cakes

One and one-fourth cups sifted dried bread crumbs, ¾ cup whole wheat flour, ¼ teaspoon salt, 4 tablespoons baking powder, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 ½ cups milk, 2 eggs.

Sift bread crumbs through a colander. Scald milk, add butter and pour over bread crumbs. Let stand about 10 minutes, until crumbs are soft. Beat eggs separately, add yolks well beaten to first mixture. Mix and sift flour, salt and baking powder and stir into mixture. Fold in whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Bake on a hot, well greased griddle.

Total calories, 1158. Protein, 176; fat, 466; carbohydrate, 516. Iron, 0.094 gram.

LOSE WEIGHT

One-half grapefruit, 1 cup creamed spinach on toast with 1 hard-boiled egg, 4 button radishes, 1 cup lamb stew, ¼ cup celery and cheese salad, 2 tablespoons apple sponge, 1 pint skimmed milk, 2 crisp pieces gluten toast, 1 gluten roll.

Total calories, 1,020. Protein, 102; fat, 328; carbohydrate, 535. Iron, 0.062 gram.

Dry cottage cheese is combined with just enough Roquefort cheese to make the mixture "taste" and used to fill celery stalks. Cut the celery in length short enough to eat easily, arrange on a bed of lettuce and pour over lemon juice seasoned with salt and paprika.

Creamed spinach on toast with hard-boiled egg is a hearty, wholesome luncheon dish. The juice of the spinach is used with milk in the sauce. The milk is of course skimmed for the diet dish and very little butter and egg are used for thickening.

The lamb stew included many vegetables in its savoriness, even potatoes. Parake sparingly of the potatoes, but enjoy the rest of the stew as you will. The gravy is so thin you need not worry about it.

Plain

The dress of silver or gold cloth is frequently perfectly plain except for a slight drapery or apron or self material and looks like the simple little crepe dresses that may be worn at any hour of the day.
