

OIL TRIALS ARE AT STANDSTILL UNTIL OCTOBER

ll, Sinclair and Doheny
Will Answer Charges in Court Then.

United Press
WASHINGTON, July 1.—The Federal Government's fight to regain possession of naval oil reserves is now at a standstill until October.

Trial of Albert Fall, Harry Sinclair, E. L. Doheny and his son, indicted for conspiracy to defraud the government, will not begin here before then.

Suits instituted in Wyoming and California for cancellation of the leases likewise will not be heard until October.

All four defendants indicted Monday must appear here next week to post $5,000 bond each, Fall and the Dohenys for conspiracy and bribery and Sinclair for conspiracy.

Usual legal maneuvers, such as the filing of demurrers and motions to dismiss, are expected to be made. And these may be ruled on during the summer by the one justice sitting in court here.

The indictments were regarded here as a great victory for Special Government Counsel Atlee Pomerene and Owen Roberts, who have diligently conducted the Government's case for nearly two months.

Frank J. Hogan, counsel for Doheny here, declared his clients also were pleased with the result.

"The oil cases are now transferred from the forum of partisan politics to the courts of justice. We welcome the change," he said.

SUSPECT SEEKS BAIL REDUCTION

Identity of Man Held in Ayres Robbery Learned.

Detective Inspector Jerry Kinney today prepared for a hard legal battle to retain in custody Thomas Toohy, 27, alias Thomas Thompson, Decatur, Ill., captured after the robbery of the E. S. Ayres & Co. store last week.

It became publicly known that Toohy was going under an alias when Attorneys Roach and Clifford C. Keating today filed habeas corpus suit for him in Superior Court Three.

The name Toohy is included in Chicago police records of various safe crackings, Kinney says.

Kinney ordered all officers who have worked on the Ayres case into a conference at 2:30 this afternoon.

Toohy's petition for habeas corpus asks that he be admitted to "reasonable bail." It denies he is guilty of robbery or entering a place to commit a felony. Bond is $20,000. He is held in county jail.

RUNAWAY BOY FOUND

Small Girl Disappears on Way to Grandmother's Home.

Police were notified today that Charles Haughton, 13, of New Albany, Ind., who left home and was supposed to be working in a store here, was located in Parkersburg, W. Va.

Alma Adams, 10, who left her home at 1223 W. Thirty-Second St., for the home of her grandmother nearby, failed to arrive. Her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, said she was wearing a pink gingham dress and white hat with red stripes. She has light brown bobbed hair and blue eyes and is large for her age.
