

$30,000 IN CASH PUT UP AS BOND IN TOOHEY CASE

Man Held in Ayres Robbery
Investigation Finally Is Released.

When Mrs. Jessie Toohey, Chicago, walked into the office of County Clerk Albert H. Losche today and laid down $30,000 in cash her husband, Thomas Toohey, alias Thompson, was released from the Marion County jail. The money was in bills ranging from $1,000 to $5.

Toohey has been in jail nearly four months on charges of burglary and auto banditry. He was arrested the night of the attempted $20,000 robbery of L. S. Ayres & Co. store, when police discovered him in an auto in the alley back of Ayres.

In fighting a habeas corpus petition and two criminal court hearings for bond reduction, Toohey's attorney, Arthur R. Robinson, said it was impossible for the wife to raise more than $15,000.

Mrs. Toohey personally put up $10,000 of the bond, and the rest was furnished by Frank R. Jordan, 79 W. Morris St., Chicago, who accompanied her. At the last unsuccessful hearing for bond reduction, held before Criminal Judge James A. Collins, Arthur R. Robinson, Toohey's attorney, said it was impossible for the wife to raise more than $15,000.

Toohey is also held on burglary charges in connection with the robbery last spring of the Kiefer-Stewart Drug Company.

VETERANS THROG MICHIGAN CITY

1,000 More Delegates Expected at Encampment.

By United Press
MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Sept. 9.—Arrival of nearly 1,000 more delegates and visitors to the annual encampment of the Spanish American War Veterans' encampment was expected today to bring the attendance to $6,500.

The registration is already much larger than the attendance at the encampment at Chattanooga last year.

Postmaster General New and Senator Willis of Ohio addressed the opening session of the encampment yesterday.

New called for enactment of a universal conscription act. Senator Willis flayed Governor Blaine of Wisconsin for his opposition to defense day.

F. Ryan Duffy, national vice commander of the American Legion, told the convention that all veterans' organizations of Wisconsin would aid in observance of the day in spite of the Governor's stand.

FRIENDS SAY SMITH HAD STRONG MIND

Taxi Driver Among Witnesses in Will Case.

By United Press
WAUKEGAN, Ill., Sept. 9.—A manufacturer, a capitalist, a publisher, and a taxi driver, all friends of the late Delavan Smith, part owner of the Indianapolis News, today told the jury which is trying Smith's $3,000,000 will that the philanthropist had a strong mind and a good memory.

The testimony of the publisher, Frederick Fairbanks of Indianapolis, son of Charles Warren Fairbanks, former vice president of the United States, was in the form of a deposition.

The other three, who personally mounted the witness stand, were Ezra Warner of Lake Forest, president of the Stewart Warner Company, Chicago; Thomas Jones, Lake Forest, a retired capitalist, and John Rosevear, Smith's favorite taxi driver in Lake Forest, where both lived.

The witnesses were cross-examined by counsel representing sixteen cousins who are protesting Smith's will because he left his $3,000,000 for use to institutions and individuals not related to him.

FUNERAL IS HELD UP

Relatives of Mrs. Helen Du Bois Are Awaited.

Funeral services for Mrs. Helen Du Bois, 60, who died Monday at her residence, 238 E. Tenth St., will probably be held Thursday afternoon. Definite arrangements have been delayed pending arrival of relatives from a distance.

Mrs. Du Bois was the widow of Dr. Edward Du Bois. She had been resident of this city since a child.

Four sisters survive.

POSTMASTER NEW TO MEET WITH G. O. P. LEADERS

In City to Attend Postmasters' Convention

Also,
Republican politicians and leaders from out-State were gathering in Indianapolis today ready for the three-day meeting planned by State Chairman Clyde S. Walb.

Postmaster General New arrived today for the double purpose of attending a postmasters' convention and the Republican meetings.

United States Senator James E. Watson is in West Virginia filling speakers' dates, but will arrive Thursday morning.

Tonight State and Federal department heads were to meet at the Severin with State candidates for a get-together meeting. With arrival of New, Bert Morgan, Federal prohibition agent under fire by Senator Watson, was one of the first to visit the Severin. Postmaster Robert Bryson also conferred with New.

Wednesday at a noon luncheon candidates will meet with the State committee and Wednesday night the State committee will hold an executive session.

Thursday county and district chairmen will meet with candidates and all leaders and Watson and New will be the principal speakers, with Montville Flowers, writer.

Dates for the Coolidge-Dawes Lincoln tour have been changed, the caravan reaching Ft. Wayne the night of Sept. 23. They will be at South Bend the 24th and Chicago the 25th. Chairman Walb and all candidates and members of the State committee will join the automobile party at the State line and accompany the caravan across State.

Mrs. Vivian T. Wheatcraft announces a general meeting at Richmond tonight, at which Mrs. H. O. Long is to be the principal speaker. Another woman's meeting will be held at Vincennes Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Edward Franklin White, G. O. P. candidate for reporter of the Supreme Court, is ill at Bay View, Mich., and will be unable to attend.

VOTERS AT POLLS IN OTHER STATES

South Carolina and Massachusetts in Election.

By United Press
COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 9.—Former Governor Cole F. Blease and Representative James R. Byrnes were candidates in South Carolina's run off Democratic primary today for the seat of United States Senator N. B. Dial.

Senator Dial and State Insurance Commissioner John McMahon were eliminated in the regular primary Aug. 26, when Blease led the field with Byrnes second. A light vote was forecast after the voting got under way.

By United Press
BOSTON, Sept. 9.—A three-cornered battle to select the Republican Senator to run against Senator David I. Walsh, Democrat, was on today as Massachusetts voters went to the polls in the State primaries to select nominees for Senator, Governor, Representatives in Congress and State officers.

Walsh's term of office soon will expire and three Republicans are scrambling for the job of opposing him for re-election.

BUSINESS MAN STILL MISSING

Wife Fears Earl F. Hanson
Has Lost Memory.

EARL F. HANSON

Mystery surrounding the disappearance of Earl F. Hanson, 2826 Park Ave., Indianapolis business man who was last seen at Logansport, Ind., Friday morning, remained unsolved today.

Police here and at Logansport, aided by friends of Hanson, are conducting a search.

Hanson, 33, was about five feet four in height and weighed about 147 pounds. He had dark hair and dark eyes and was smooth faced.

He went to Logansport on a business trip for the firm of Silver and Hanson, dealers in tailors' trimmings, of which he was a partner. The only solution to the mystery offered by Mrs. Hanson was a "loss of memory."

FIGHT ON LEVY LOOMS

Legality to Be Tested in Remonstrance Suit.

A remonstrance against fixing the county gravel road repair fund tax levy at 4 1/2 cents, an increase of 1 cent, will be filed with County Auditor Harry Dunn by the Indiana Taxpayers' League, it was learned today.

County commissioners fixed the levy. Officials of the league insist it is the duty of the county council. The council took no action on the levy at their annual meeting last week. If the State tax board rules the levy, Dunn said the rate of 2 1/2 cents will prevail for 1925, making the total county tax 27 cents instead of 28.

TWO SENTENCED ON CHECK CHARGE

Detroit Man Says He Was Forced by Companion.

What Criminal Judge James A. Collins termed a "slick scheme to defraud Indianapolis merchants" today resulted in a prison term or one to five years to two Detroit men, Chris Pietro and Theodore Angelo, both found guilty of issuing fraudulent checks.

The men came here July 17 and, after banking hours, it is alleged, cashed seven cashiers' checks for a total of $315 on the American State Bank, Detroit, made out to John Williams, on seven merchants. Pietro admitted his guilt, but said he was "slaved" to Angelo, who forced him to cash the checks. Both are Bulgarians.

The checks, passed totaling $315. A dress was obtained from the Union Store and the New York Waist Store; watches from the Jeffery Jewelry Company, Terminal Bldg., and the Best Jewelry Company; a diamond ring from the Lincoln Loan and Jewelry Company, and a kodak from the Hook Drug Company store at 378 Massachusetts Ave.

Jealous

By Times Special
ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 9.—Magnus Johnson is thinking of challenging President Coolidge to a hay-pitching contest, but that's all—just thinking.

He remembers, he said, the milking contest in Washington where Secretary Wallace won the race.

Jealous because the President was pitching hay down on his old home farm in Vermont, Senator Johnson went home for a day to pitch oats, but didn't even get his picture taken, he said.
