

PASTOR CHARGED IN WIFE'S DEATH

Body of Neighbor Also Examined for Poison.

By United Press
MOUNT VERNON, Ill., Sept. 13.—Rev. Lawrence M. Hight, 35, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Ina, a village ten miles south of here, today waived preliminary hearing on charge of murdering his wife with arsenic. He is held in the county jail.

Meantime, Coroner Jess Ree, who ordered analysis of the viscera of Hight's wife which showed the presence of poison, started a post-mortem into death of Wilbur Sweet, a neighbor of the Rev. Hight, Sweet's body buried at Metropolis, was exhumed and the viscera was sent to Chicago for analysis. Sweet, in was 41 years old. He died July 28.

Coroner Ree acted at request of Ina citizens who told of gossip coupling Rev. Hight with Sweet's wife. The death of both Mrs. Hight and Sweet were ascribed to ptomaine poisoning. Rev. Hight declares his enemies have brought the charges against him and denies them.

Soldiers in Blue to Arms Again

By Times Special
NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Sept. 13.—Memory blew reveille today and thirty-five veterans in faded blue squared shoulders and in fancy went marching again through Georgia.

The veterans—members of the 75th and 101st Indiana regiments—met here in annual reunion.

S. C. Montgomery was chosen president, taking the place of Henry M. Caylor, former G. A. R. departmental commander, who died recently.

The regiments were recruited in this city and Wabash in 1862. They were under Sherman's command in his march to the sea and passed in review before President Lincoln in Washington after the close of the war.

WILMETH NOT WORRIED

Judge Will Not Comment on Impeachment Suit.

City Judge Delbert O. Wilmeth today refused to comment on the impeachment suit filed against him Thursday by Homer A. J. Spacek, 139 W. Pratt St., real estate dealer.

"The accusation is so absurd it doesn't merit comment," Wilmeth said.

WOMEN ATTEMPT SUICIDE

One Taken to Hospital After Drinking Poison on Street.

Attempts were made by two women to end their lives by taking poison, police said today.

A misunderstanding with her lover was the reason given by Miss Nora Money, 730 N. Sheffield Ave., for taking poison, while on the street at Keystone Ave. and Tenth St. Thursday night. She was taken to the city hospital. Her condition is not serious.

Love quarrel is given as the motive of Hortense Hartwell, 22, colored, 325 Ellsworth St., who tried to drink poison. Sallie Wilson, colored, 1107 N. Senate Ave., knocked the vial from her hand.

Speed Charged to Three

Motorists arrested on speeding charges today were: Carl E. Lautz, 30, of 556 Olin St., Ralph Remer, 22, of 630 College Ave., and Edward Jones, 20, colored, 446 W. Twenty-Fifth St.
