

With the Legion Auxiliary in Indiana

By CLARE PALMER THURSTON

Miss Bess B. Wetherholt and Mrs. Hazel Workman, department secretary, will read papers at Adjutants' Meeting of American Legion, in Indianapolis, Nov. 18. Brief organization outline from standpoint of respective offices will be subjects.

Friday at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Kathryn Satter, president, and other members of Robert E. Kennington unit, will assist in arrangements for a benefit card party to help discharge the unit's obligation in the Riley Memorial fund. Hostesses are: Mrs. Alice Renz, Mrs. Minnie Rigg, Mrs. Hazel Plueger, Mrs. Earl Ferguson, Mrs. Lucy Dally, Mrs. Nellie Peterson, Miss Abbie Shaffer, Mrs. Elmer Kent, Mrs. Marion Traylor and Mrs. Claire P. Thurston.

Mrs. Charles E. Combs, department president, was principal speaker at meeting of Fourth District units, Sunday in Greenwood. Mrs. Combs dwelt on membership situation and urged units to begin 1925 membership list. Tribute was paid to Mrs. J. C. Glackman, Rockport, who has served as department president.

Harold Cost, auxiliary orphan protege, sang songs, accompanied by Miss Beulah Hatton of the Knights-town orphanage.

Mrs. Hazel L. Workman, Indiana secretary, reports representatives of Women's Relief Corps, United Spanish War Veterans and Legion Auxiliary met at the Indiana Soldiers and Sailors Orphans Home to discuss plans for Christmas.

They agreed that each organization be equally represented and share work and expenses. Christmas committee will go to Knights-town the day before Christmas and remain until Christmas morning, so the children may have a regular Santa Claus.

Mrs. Workman asks units not to forget week of Nov. 17 is National Education week. Opportunity will be presented units to participate in child welfare work.

Every State Auxiliary member is urged to go to the polls and vote on election day. This is helping to promote Americanism work. Each unit is urged to appoint a telephone committee to call each member and see she votes.

Nov. 17 is Constitution day. Following subjects are recommended: Life, liberty, justice, security, happiness and how the Constitution guarantees these rights. Slogan for Constitution day is: "Master the Cold in the Chest—sore throat—coughs—apply on flannel cloth, swallow small portions, lowers cold, relieves soreness. It soothes and heals. All druggists.

Admit Women Barbers

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The widespread popularity of bobbed hair has given women barbers an important place in the British commercial field. So many women now crowd the hairdressers' shops for bobbing and "shingling" that it is felt that the woman barber can no longer be ignored.
