

PROBE WRECK FATAL TO FIVE

Victims Burned to Death
When Car Strikes Truck.

By United Press
DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 4.—A coroner's jury was to start investigation today to determine cause of the collision of a Detroit-Toledo interurban and a motor truck Wednesday night that resulted in the death of five persons and injury of ten others.

Wreck victims were burned almost beyond recognition from flames that flashed into turpentine drums. The truck was carrying. Three of those dead were still unidentified early today.

Witnesses said the truck started across a street directly in front of the interurban. The truck cleared the car, but a trailer loaded with turpentine drums was struck. Force of the collision hurled some of the drums into the car where they exploded and caught fire. The motor-man was crushed by one of the drums and burned in the fire that followed.

DINNER IS EXPLAINED

Near East Relief Director Tells Purpose of Meal.

Most persons who call Golden Rule Sunday headquarters this week want to know what a sacrificial meal should be.

"A sacrificial meal is something to eat that costs very little, and after it is eaten will make the diner feel that he wants to make a donation to our little land orphans," said D. Burr Jones, state director of Near East Relief.

Athens cable said: "There are 650,000 in refugee camps of Greece and more than 150,000 have died in fifteen months. These are mostly women and children and Golden Rule Sunday is a supreme effort to snatch from the grave at least 200,000 of these children who are now sentenced to die."

Mrs. Lillian Winnet, 118 E. Pratt St., will give a Golden Rule tea Friday evening from 7 to 10. Nature Study Club members will cooperate.

BACK TAXES ARE SOUGHT

Federal Suit Filed by Elliott Against Local Persons.

Suit asking a court order to hold in trust certain assets of the defunct Henry C. Gilbert Company of Indianapolis in order that income taxes for 1918 be paid was filed in Federal Court Wednesday by Homer Elliott, United States district attorney, against Audison E. Collingdick and Isabel C. Gilbert, both of Indianapolis and former stockholders.

Complaint alleges defendants received about $142,000 of the company's assets when it dissolved and asks that they pay part of the delinquent taxes.

Jarvis Is Not Candidate

R. Walter Jarvis, superintendent of city parks, today denied rumors that he will be a candidate for mayor in the city primary, pointing out that the condition of his health would make it impossible for him to make the race. Sentiment in behalf of his candidacy has been expressed in various quarters of the city, it is understood.

HEALED HIS RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely relieved me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find complete relief without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Baker, Carpenter, 671 Marcellus Avenue, Muncie, Ind. N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured. You may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger.—Advertisement.

SALVATION ARMY ISSUES WARNING

Organization Does Not Solicit at Homes.

Salvation Army workers today warned housewives against giving money to house-to-house solicitors, who give the impression they represent that organization. "Salvation Army has no solicitors going from house-to-house collecting money," said Maj. William Sowers, divisional commander. He said numerous complaints had been received from women about so-called solicitors.

Major Sowers said the Army receives most of its financial support from the Community Fund. Total of 600 Christmas baskets will be distributed to poor families this year. Great number of city's poor are now making application for baskets. In addition to those requiring emergency and regular relief.

Police and Firemen's band will play at the annual party Christmas Eve at Tomlinson Hall. More than 3,000 poor children and mothers are expected.

SILK BUYER WINS CAPITAL PRIZE

winning line. I never wrote any poetry before in my life, but guess it doesn't take a poet to win a Limerick award."

Symons is right. The $50 award winners to date have been two housewives, a secretary and a buyer.

Asked what he would do with the $50, Symons said, "With Christmas but a few weeks away, you ask me that? Young man, your $50 will be the Santa Claus for our family Christmas shopping list."

So if Mrs. Symons finds that Santa left her a lot more than she expected, she can thank her husband's Limericking ability.

Symons was almost beaten out in the judges' vote by this line of William H. Andrews, 3036 E. Tenth St., which won the $15 award:

Up a cent is sweet music to me.
Right behind the two winners, pushing them hard up the home stretch, were these three $5 award winners:

My gas is all sold O. O. D."

James P. Highley, 662 E. Twelfth St.

But the air for your tires, that's on me."

Charles Agan, 1205 W. Thirty-Sixth St.

Judge Landis once tried to fine me."

H. A. Henderson, 735 Graham Ave.

In the race every inch of the way were these twenty $1 honorable mention winners. Read them over and you will see why:

For no one can change my decree—
M. S. Gannaway, Brownsburg, Ind.
I can make them or break them.

High cost of production's my plea—
Mrs. Gladys R. Barone, 1213 Burgess Ave.

And that's the end of Limerick No. 10. It and its $100 in cash awards have passed into history, but there's Limerick No. 10 with another $100 offered for the best "Lost Lines" to be awaiting you for today.

For you know $100 in 25 cash awards is given away EVERY DAY for writing "Lost Lines" to The Times Limericks.

I induced members of the Merchants Club at noon luncheon at the Spik Army to judge No. 4. The judges were: J. O. Hoffman, W. E. Duthie, W. F. Cleary, W. G. Ulrich, A. L. Willard, J. V. Bell, W. B. Rubush, W. Carl Ausmann, W. R. Rose, H. S. McMichael, H. M. Cochrane, R. H. Daugherty, Charles A. Hockensmith, Herbert Dae and Alva Micky.

NO NEED FOR TUNNELS

Postmaster Says Postoffice Is Not Bothered by Congestion.

Commenting on the report of Postmaster General Harry S. New, stressing the need for tunnels for transporting mail from postoffices to railroad stations, Robert H. Bryson, Indianapolis postmaster, said today:

"We are not bothered by congestion of traffic in Indianapolis. Practically all mail except first-class material goes directly to the Illinois St. station. We have a straight run down Illinois St. for first-class mail from the postoffice. We don't close our sacks any earlier before train time now than we did ten years ago, in spite of the increase in business."

Hospital Employee Gets Raise

John W. Hamrahan, chief engineer at city hospital, has been granted an increased salary from $1,800 to $2,100 a year by the board of health in recognition of efficient work at the hospital for eight years. The board accepted Wednesday night the resignation of Benjamin M. Morgan, hospital business manager, and appointed Clarence C. Hess, field agent in the city purchasing department, to succeed him.
