Kansas City Doctor Invents New Truss

New Discovery Heals Rupture Without an Operation.

A new discovery which, experts say, has no equal for curative effects in all rupture cases, is the latest accomplishment of the well-known Hernia Specialist, Dr. Andrew, 5231 Koch Blvd., Kansas City, Mo. The extraordinary success of this new method proves that it holds and heals a rupture. It weighs only a few ounces. Has no hard gouging pads, no elastic belt, no leg straps, no steel bands, and is as comfortable as a light garment. It has enabled hundreds of persons to throw away trusses and declare their ruptures absolutely healed. Many of these had serious double ruptures, from which they had suffered for years. It is Dr. Andrew's ambition to have every ruptured person enjoy the quick relief, comfort and healing power of his discovery, and he will send it on free trial to any one who writes him. He wants one person in each neighborhood to whom he can refer. If you wish to be rid of rupture for good, without an operation, take advantage of the doctor's free offer. TWO MEN FACE MURDER CHARGES OVER WEEK-END

James Richwine and Louis Owens Are Held Without Bond.

James Richwine, 35, of 1115 N. Pershing Ave., and Louis Owens, 30, of 1277 W. Ray St., are held today without bond on murder charges as result of killings late Saturday.

Richwine is charged with fatal shooting of Samuel Powell, 20, of 1818 Astor St., son of Jess Powell. Owens is held in connection with death of George Robinson, 43, of 2134 Park Ave., who was stabbed to death at L. S. Ayres & Co.

Richwine in a signed statement to detectives said that while he and his family were at the home of Mrs. Della Reed, 764 N. Pershing Ave., a boy told him a man had stolen a spotlight from his machine in front of the Reed home. Richwine said he obtained a revolver from Frank Kimble, who lives at the Reed home, and that Mrs. Reed, Kimble and himself got into his machine and started in pursuit of a machine containing the alleged thief. Richwine said they overtook the machine at Sheffield Ave. and Wal-

BULLET STRIKES POWELL

He said he fired several shots at the car. Friends in the car took Powell off when he was shot.

Owens, who was employed as barber at L. S. Ayres & Co., confessed to stabbing Robinson, also a barber, with a pair of scissors during a fight in the men's dressing room on the fourth floor.

QUARRELED OVER TOOLS

Owens said he and Robinson had quarreled several times in the past three months after Owens would find his barber's tools had been taken.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Wednesday at the Powell residence. Burial in Floral Park cemetery. Parents and four brothers and four sisters survive.

Funeral services for Robinson will be at 10 a. m. Tuesday at the residence. Burial in St. Joseph's cemetery. The widow, two brothers and a sister survive.

But the Preparation for the True Christmas also includes the reading down of everything that hinders the Christ-life among men.

"Similarly, the wily tricksters by which men advance crooked business deals, play church politics, gain advantages over social rivals, 'put one over' anybody else, must be straightened before Christ can come into such a life. And those cold, bitter, caustic personalities that are self-excused because inherited, likewise must be smoothed away to prepare for the true Christmas."
