

STATE ASSEMBLY TO BE GUESTS OF LOCAL WOMEN

Luncheon at Indianapolis
Athletic Club to Follow
Inauguration.

The State Woman's Assembly, composed of wives of legislators, will be entertained by Indianapolis women Jan. 12 at a luncheon at the Indianapolis Athletic Club.

Mrs. C. J. Buchana, president, appointed Mrs. Allen T. Fleming chairman for the luncheon and committee chairmen are Mrs. John T. Wheeler, Mrs. W. T. Barnes, hostesses; Mrs. S. E. Perkins, speakers table; Mrs. Bert S. Gadd, Mrs. Thomas Dalley, tickets; Mrs. David Ross, Mrs. John Ruckelshaus, decorations and seating; Mrs. Hugh McGibeny and Mrs. A. J. Clark, music.

There will be an election of officers and toasts by Indianapolis hostesses. At a business luncheon the following day, new committees will be announced and the new officers will be installed.

Arrangements are being made for 100 guests.

Prominent women of Indianapolis will be hostesses at each table. The assembly was organized four years ago during Legislature for the purpose of providing entertainment for the women of the Legislature and wives of legislators during their visit in Indianapolis. The members study certain bills and visit prominent places of interest in the city.

Mrs. Russell T. Bedford of Lafayette was the first president.

The luncheon this year will follow the inauguration of Mrs. Edward Franklin White in the office of reporter of the Supreme and Appellate Courts, and she will be an honor guest.

Irvington Lecture Friday

"Virgil—A Forgotten Poet," will be the subject of the third lecture to be given by Mrs. Demarchus Brown Friday evening, Jan. 2, at the Irvington Methodist Church. The lectures are being given under the auspices of the Irvington Methodist Church. Dr. Charles Arnold will be the soloist.

Household Suggestions

New Trimmings
Diagonal trimmings and diagonal hems are new ways of trimming the cloth gown.

New Neckline
While the round and bateau neckline are still good style, the V or U shaped neckline, deeper in the back than in front is newer.

Brown Tones Chic
Brown tones are very chic in furs and combine very beautifully with the new brown wools and mannish materials.

Paper Napkins
Keep paper napkins in the bathroom cabinet and use them to wipe off the nickel plumbing and the white porcelain.

Waterproofing Floors
You can waterproof your kitchen floor by applying cold paraffin oil with a soft cloth. Then you will have less difficulty with stains and spots.

To Make Soup
All gravies make a good starting point for a soup. Dilute it to proper consistency, add whatever vegetables you have, simmer for a few minutes and then add croutons or noodles and serve.

Good Teeth token efficiency

The first process of digestion and the most important one takes place in the mouth. Are you mixing perfectly clean, pure, wholesome food with the infections, contained in tooth cavities, and sore gums? If you are you will surely pay the penalty. The day will come when your entire system will be infected, causing nervous breakdown, neuritis, rheumatism, indigestion or a dozen other ailments.

I surely wish to recommend the Peoples Dentists for painless extracting since having 24 teeth taken out about 6 months ago. I have gained 25 pounds. Painless extraction for me to go to a tubercular sanitarium, but I am now enjoying wonderful health.

MRS. CLARENCE HAINES,
2096 Hovey St.
On recommendation of others, I have had thirty-five teeth to the Peoples Dentists to have twenty-four teeth extracted. I am certainly glad I followed the advice of my friends as I suffered no pain what.

Assists at Theta Open House

MISS EMMA DEAL, 5510 Lowell Ave., was on the committee for the annual open house Thursday given by the active chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority at the chapter house, 215 S. Butler Ave. Miss Helen Haight was general chairman, assisted by Miss Anna C. Gardner and Miss Betty De Gied.

Propylaeum Reception Revives Old Time Spirit of Society

In keeping with gaiety of one of Indianapolis' most brilliant holiday seasons, the Propylaeum Association revived the old-time New Year's day open house with a beautiful tea-dance and card party Thursday afternoon at the new club house, 1410 N. Delaware St. Preparations were made for three hundred persons and the tea tables, laid on exquisite lace and drawn-work cloths, with silver services, were decorated with baskets of spring flowers and Christmas greens.

Receiving with Mrs. James T. Barrett, first vice president, were the other officers, Mesdames John W. Kern, A. L. Lockerdie, Augustus Coburn, H. D. Pierce, Ernest Kneifer, Harry Murphy, Anton Vonnegut and Arthur V. Brown. Mrs. Carrie Valen Collins was presiding in the coffee-room. Mrs. Charles Voorhees in the cardroom and Mrs. Albert J. Beveridge in the ballroom on the third floor, where the young people danced.

Mrs. Jacqueline S. Holliday, general chairman, was assisted by the entertainment committee, including Mrs. Vonnegut, chairman, and Mrs. Kneifer, Mrs. Clarence R. Coffin and Mrs. Frank D. Stalnaker. Mrs. H. R. Danner entertained with a theater party at the performance of "The Mikado" at the Kurat, honoring her daughter, Miss Helen Danner. The guests later attended the reception at the Propylaeum.

Members of the active chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority held open house from 4-8 p. m. in their chapter house, 215 Butler Ave. Small pine trees banked the fireplace and pine boughs and poinsettias decorated the rooms throughout. Tall white candles lighted the rooms and the tea tables were appointed with a silver service and decorated with a low centerpiece of holly and Christmas greens.

Miss Mary Patia Carver and Miss Betty Bertemann presided at the tea table. They were assisted in serving by Miss Emma Neal, Miss Betty De Frie and Miss Anna C. Gardner. Receiving with Miss Irene Seel, president, were Mrs. Mary Keegan, house mother and representatives of each class, Miss Julia Brown, Miss Martha Zorcher, Miss Mary Lee Orliff, Miss Rosaline Solomon, harpist, played during the evening. Miss Helen Haight was general chairman for the party.

Another open house, which added much to the gaiety of this New Year's day, was that of the Caroline Scott Harrison Chapter of D. A. B. at the chapter house, 824 N. Pennsylvania St. The rooms were beautifully decorated, by the courtesy of S. Douglas Bash, with many small pine trees and a profusion of Christmas greens and poinsettias. Mrs. Eugene H. Darrach, regent, was assisted in the receiving line by other officers of the chapter and chairmen of standing committees. Presiding at the tea tables were Mrs. Quincy A. Meyers, Mrs. Henry C. Thornton, Mrs. U. G. Baker and Mrs. Edward Feger. Mrs. Emmett F. Branch, Mrs. Ed Jackson, Mrs. James A. Drain and Mrs. William Henry Harrison, whose husband is a grandson of the chapter, for whom the chapter is named, and Mrs. Edward Franklin White were special guests. Other guests were members of other chapters and members of the Sons of the Revolution.

Mrs. Russell Harrison of Washington, D. C., was an out-of-town guest.

One of the most beautiful receptions ever held in the Herron Art Institute was held Thursday afternoon when the Indianapolis Art Association received from 3-6 in the Sculpture Court. From 3-4 Mrs. Marie Dawson Morrell gave a violin recital and from 4-6 tea was served from eight beautifully appointed tables in the galleries. Club women representing seven clubs in the city were hostesses. The clubs cooperating with the Art Association were art section Women's Department Club, American Association of University Women, Port-nights Literary Club, Little Theatre.

SOCIAL Activities ENTERTAINMENTS WEDDINGS RETROTHALS

THE marriage of Miss Marie Heato, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heato, 36 N. Irvington Ave., to Lloyd L. Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Graham, of Kallispell, Mont., took place with a pretty ceremony Thursday afternoon at the Irvington M. E. Church, the Rev. W. E. Ewing officiating. Spring flowers and palms banked the altar, which was lighted with white cathedral candles.

Miss Alice Cooper, a cousin of the bride, played a program of bridal airs at the organ and accompanied Mrs. George F. Goldman, who sang, "For You Alone," and "Oh, Promise Me."

The bride was gowned in a white beaded satin gown fashioned with a long waist and draped overskirt with a short veil which hung from a bandau of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and valley lilies.

Miss Nell Heato, maid of honor, wore a gown of peach colored beaded georgette and carried Ophelia roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Velma Jones and Miss Lucy Ward, wore becoming gowns of powder blue georgette and corsages of Mrs. Aaron Ward roses.

The little flower girl, Miss Elizabeth, niece of the bride, wore a frock of orchid crepe and scattered rose petals before the bride. The little ring bearer, Frank William Cook, a nephew, wore a suit of white satin and black velvet and carried the ring in a lily.

After the ceremony a small reception was held for the relatives and a few intimate friends. Assisting were Miss Virginia Holman, Miss Dorothy Scree and Miss Alberta Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham were to leave Thursday night for Great Falls, Mont., where they will be at home immediately.

Miss Margaret Brick, 2410 Park Ave., entertained Wednesday with a luncheon and bridge party of two tables, honoring Miss Frances Taft of Eoquin, Wash., and Miss Dorothy Haines, who is home from Penn Hall, Chambersburg, Pa., where she is an instructor in Dramatic Art.

Covers for eight were laid at one table lighted with red tapers and a centerpiece of poinsettias and holly. Other guests were Mrs. J. F. Haines, Mrs. R. H. Ritchie, Miss Gladys and Grace Shanberger.

The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. T. E. Erick.

Miss Elizabeth Campbell, 3690 Central Ave., has gone to Savannah, Ga., to take a position in the Savannah Family Welfare Association.

Mrs. W. M. Somers and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bultoz and little daughter, Betty Jane, 424 E. Forty-Ninth St., have returned from a week's visit with relatives in Ft. Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Conrad, 25 Meridian Pl., were to be hosts Thursday night for a party for members of the Thursday Lyceum Club and their husbands.

Mrs. M. E. Wolf, Mrs. T. D. Campbell and Mrs. M. A. Bultoz were members of the program committee and assisting hostesses were to be Mrs. Kate Conrad, Mrs. Harry Plummer, Mrs. J. L. Fish and Mrs. Ray D. Weaver.

Miss Katherine Ruddy, 1935 N. Alabama St., left Wednesday for Ft. Wayne for a two weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dowler, 818 Wallace Ave., entertained with a bridge party and buffet supper and watch party Wednesday night. Mrs. Walker Baylor assisted the hostess and sang a program of vocal solos. Little Miss Joan Baylor gave centerpieces.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Doty, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Siebert, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Myers, Mr. and Mrs. John Galm, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cravens and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Myers.

Miss Mabelle and Miss Myrtle Mayer, 2080 N. Alabama St., left Thursday for Chicago for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Anthony, 308 E. Twenty-Eighth St., have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McFarland, of Minneapolis, Minn.

The fifth annual New Year's watch party of the En-Av-Ant Club was held New Year's eve with Miss Dorothy A. Walsh as hostess, at her home 834 E. Vermont St.

The rooms were decorated with festoons of red and green overhead and the appointments were carried out in the club colors.

The entertainment was supplied by entertainers with songs and specialties.

Midnight luncheon was served followed by dancing and games.

Committee in charge included William Schantz, chairman, Edwin McShay, James Reeves, Francis O'Connor.

Members and guests included: Mesdames Hermandine and Margaret Kroger, Marjorie Nordloh, Florence Egan, Lillian Elick, Eva Wise, Hilda and Rosemary Zimmer, Margaret Finerman, Dorothy Meler, Leona Galloway, Mary Marley, Mary Frances Boyd, Mary Welsh, Frances Brown and Joseph Sexton, Paul Rowe, Maurice McNulty and James Sherrin, who are home from South Bend, Ind., where they have been attending Notre Dame University.

Successful Business Woman Says Marriage Poor Investment

MISS FLORENCE STERLING

HOUSTON, Texas, Jan. 1.—When a woman is a millionairess and has made a success in business, philanthropy and politics, does she ever regret that she missed getting married?

Miss Florence Sterling, active secretary of the $45,000,000 Humble Oil & Refining Co., publisher of a woman's magazine, noted philanthropist and political power, doesn't think that life has cheated her out of a thing.

She has never married, because—she doesn't think that the quality of men is high enough to justify the investment in happiness.

There was a man, Miss Sterling said, and he was engaged. He was a good man, she says, but when she studied his qualifications for life companionship as she would have studied a business proposition, well—

The man lost out. Since then there have been other aspirants. They, too, have lost.

It isn't because Miss Sterling is wealthy. She thinks that financial independence for women will never decrease marriages.

"Women will always be foolish about men," she says, "and the rich ones the same as poor ones. I don't hate men, I like them. All women do."

Service to humanity, she thinks, takes the place of service to a family. A wife and mother can do much for her children; an "old maid" can do much for humanity.

For that reason, she says: "I think God knows what he is doing when he keeps some women single."

With the Legion Auxiliary in Indiana

By CLAIRE PALMER THURSTON

The American Legion, beginning with the new year, is entering upon the greatest program of humanitarian and constructive civic activity it ever has undertaken. A nationwide campaign to raise a $5,000,000 endowment fund for the benefit of disabled soldiers and World War orphans will begin at once. Every department of both the Legion and Auxiliary, every post and unit and every individual member will be pressed into service.

At Christmas time, more than 1,200 ex-service men, patients in the Marion National Home, were remembered by the Indiana department of the Legion and Auxiliary. Besides caring for these disabled and mental patients, the Legion, assisted by the Auxiliary, the American War Mothers, the Red Cross, the Knights of Columbus, provided for thirty-six families.

The Legion posts of the county gave a dance, which netted $170, which was used in these Christmas plans. The Auxiliary bought candy, cigarettes and nuts, and sent cards. Each patient received a personal message from National Commander James A. Drain. This entertainment committee was appointed by the management of the hospital, and the Red Cross, Legion Auxiliary and Knights of Columbus cooperated.

The Charles Pratt Unit of Valparaiso has offered a $5 gold piece to the members who brings in the most new members during the year. These 1925 officers have been elected: Mrs. Louise C. Shauer, president; Mrs. Della Harris, first vice-president; Mrs. Laura McDaniels, second vice-president; Mrs. Cora Sherwood, secretary; Mrs. Laura Kown, treasurer; Mrs. Louise Mead, chaplain; May Felton, color bearer; Mrs. Winnie Hays, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Carol Schneider, musician; Mrs. Mamie Albe, past president; Mrs. Birdie Steward, historian. Mrs. Albe was presented with a beautiful cut glass vase as retiring president.

The Auxiliary of the Cass County Legion Post, at Logansport, prepared a banquet for the annual Christmas party of the teachers association in Memorial Hall.

Irvington Unit No. 38 of Indianapolis, gave a tea Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kathryn Hosmer, 152 Downey Ave. The hostess was assisted by Mesdames B. P. Whitaker, Clarence Hugel, Frank Brown, E. A. Perkins and Clara Figg. Election of officers for 1925 was arranged for the regular business meeting Friday afternoon in the Legion clubrooms.

Arrangements have been made for Mrs. Hazel L. Workman, National rehabilitation chairman, to visit the Marion National Home in the near future. The National organization of the Auxiliary and many of the departments have approved the plan of building a party of furnishing a bill at the Otter Lake World War Orphan Home in Michigan. Many of the Indiana units have signified

Martha Lee Says

Slate Is Wiped Clean as New Year Comes In

On this New Year's day, the birthday of 1925, the slate is wiped clean. Whatever there may have been in the past for you to regret, you now have an opportunity to begin anew.

"Happy New Year" rings in your ears. You say it to your friends, and you hear it echoed to you.

Sister Mary's Kitchen

Breakfast—Stewed figs with lemon let, potatoes hashed in cream, waffles, sirup, whole wheat toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Mixed vegetables in beet cups, cheese and lettuce sandwiches, rice pudding, milk, tea.

Dinner—Cream of tomato soup, boiled mutton, caper sauce, mashed potatoes, canned string beans, chestnut salad, eggless plum pudding, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

With eggs so scarce at eggless plum pudding may be welcome.

Except for the caper sauce served with the mutton there are no dishes suggested that are not suitable for the junior members of the family. The waffles are unnecessary in the breakfast menu of a child under school age.

Mixed Vegetables in Beet Cups

Five medium sized beets, 1/2 cup diced turnips, 1/2 cup diced carrots, 1/2 cup canned peas, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup stock or water.

Wash beets, taking care not to break the skin. Boil until tender. This time of year it will take from 1 to 2 hours. Plunge into cold water and slip the skins. Cut a thin slice from the bottom if necessary to make the beets stand singly on the platter. Scoop out the center. Cook carrots in stock until tender, add turnips cooked separately and peas and simmer until stock is absorbed.

Add butter, sugar, salt and a few grains of pepper. Simmer over boiling water for ten minutes. Fill beet cups with vegetables and serve.

Chestnut Salad

One-half cup boiled chestnuts, 1/2 cup seeded raisins, 1/2 cup diced apple, 1/2 cup minced celery, boiled salad dressing, shredded lettuce.

Peel and slice chestnuts. Home grown or imported ones can be used. Combine raisins, apple, celery and chestnuts with the dressing and serve on a bed of shredded lettuce. A spoonful of thick mayonnaise can top each serving if convenient.

Eggless Plum Pudding

One cup suet, 1 cup chopped and seeded raisins, 1 cup stoned and chopped dates, 1 cup sweet milk, 1 cup molasses, 3 cups flour, 1 teaspoon soda, 2 teaspoons cream of tartar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon grated nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoon cloves.

Chop suet very fine and work until creamy. Add molasses and soda and stir until foamy. Mix fruit with a few tablespoonsful of flour. Add to first mixture. Mix salt, spices and cream of tartar with remaining flour and add alternately with milk to mixture. Mix thoroughly and turn into a well buttered mold. Steam three hours and serve with lemon sauce.

Lemon Sauce

Two eggs, 1 cup powdered sugar, 4 tablespoons cream, 2 lemons. Use yolks of eggs for salad dressing.

Beat whites of eggs until stiff and dry. Slowly beat in sugar. Heat cream to the scalding point and beat into first mixture. Add juice of lemons and grated rind of one. Beat slightly and serve.

Metal Lace

Metal lace, finely pleated over a lining of metal cloth is a popular combination for ball gowns.

High Collar

The high rolled collar of white or flame colored silk makes an interesting note with the black velvet gown.

Heartbreaking Memories

Dear Martha Lee: I went with a man for three years ago he died with another girl. I see them together often, and it nearly breaks my heart. He never had asked me to marry him, but he had told me he loved me and I cannot understand why he did not even tell me he was going to be married. That hurt me almost as much as for him to marry some one else.

I go with other men sometimes, but I cannot forget him and I do not enjoy myself with the others. Can you tell me how to forget?

JAY EILEY.

Children Suffer

Miss Martha Lee: I am the mother of five little ones the oldest of whom is 10. I love my husband better than life itself, but some woman has taken him from me, and robbed my little ones of what rightly belongs to them. He does not make enough to give money to the other woman and clothes and feed our little children. Why does God make little ones suffer for some one else's sin, and let the fatherly one go and have a good time? Please advise me.

For thousands of years, your question has been asked over and over. We cannot know the answer. We can only have faith that somewhere there is an answer.

While you are waiting until the time when you will learn the answer, you must solve the practical problem of clothing and feeding your children. Your husband can be forced to support them, and I suggest that you appeal to juvenile court to help you. I doubt whether there is any possibility of appealing to him in any other way, for a man who would let his little children suffer could not have much heart.
