

TWO LOSE LIVES IN CHICAGO BLAST

Fire, Started by Explosion,
Razes Paint Plant.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Two men were burned to death here today in a fire caused by an explosion of chemicals which razed the Frank S. Lewis varnish plant.

The dead are: Frank Karda, 35, night watchman, and Henry Watson, 29, employee.

Twenty men were at work when the explosion occurred. Several are still missing. A salvage crew is combing the debris for more bodies. Damage was estimated by company officials at $50,000.

PASTOR WILL SPEAK

Dr. Philpott to Give Talk on Books at Shortridge.

Dr. Allan B. Philpott, pastor of the Central Christian Church, will give an address on "Books and Reading" next Tuesday at 8:15 p. m. in the old building at Shortridge High School.

Frank B. Wade, head of the chemistry department at Shortridge, will give a ten-minute talk on "Chemistry at Shortridge." Music will be furnished by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Valle.

BATTLE BREAKS WINDOW

Husband Alleges Other Man Was With Wife—Three Slated.

A broken downtown window today was mute evidence of a battle between Everett McCoy, 34, of 2137 N. Jefferson Ave., and Earl Flora, 32, of 1804 E. Maryland St., Thursday night, on Washington St., near West St.

McCoy told police he had trailed his wife downtown and found her with Flora. Mrs. McCoy fled, but McCoy caught Flora.

All three were slated.

No Truancy Officers

Representative Chrisney of Chrisney presented a bill today calling for abolishment of duties of all school attendance officers and delegating their powers to police officers and township trustees.

Ouch

By Times Special
KOKOMO, Ind., Jan. 16.—Clang went the fire alarm at the Central fire station and firemen sprang from every direction—down poles, hurriedly donning coats, caps, and mittens.

Meanwhile the captain answered the phone.

"Is Mr.—in?" came a feminine voice.

"No, this is the fire station."

"Beg pardon. Wrong number."

"Ouch," said "Red" Eaton, fireman, who had been kicked in the face during the rush.

ABSENT SALESMAN FOUND AS SUICIDE

Shoe Leads to Identification of Harry R. Leffel.

The mark of an Indianapolis firm on the bottom of one of his shoes, which he had forgotten in attempt to obliterate his identity, resulted in the body of Harry R. Leffel, 48, of 2445 N. Delaware St., found in a hotel at Atlanta, Ga., being identified by his widow.

Leffel, salesman of the Century Chemical Company of Columbus,

Ohio, had been missing since Jan. 5, and a nation-wide hunt conducted for him.

Mrs. Leffel, learning of the suicide of an unidentified man, went at once to Atlanta. Leffel had slashed his throat.

Mrs. Leffel said her husband had been in good health, but that the death of his brother caused him to have almost a nervous breakdown. Mrs. Leffel will bring the body to Indianapolis.

Fixes Jan. 1 for Judges
Terms of all elective judicial officers would begin uniformly on the Jan. 1, following their election, under a bill introduced today by Representative Behinger, Indianapolis.

MISSING GIRL SOUGHT
Left Home Wednesday Morning to Hunt Work, Says Father.

Miss Ruth Reese, 18, of 1121 N. Rural St., was missing from her home today by her father, Clarence Reese, her father. Reese said she left home Wednesday morning in search of work. She called her home later in the day and said she would not be home until morning, and has not been heard from since.

A. W. Dickey, 78, of 954 Eugene St., is missing, according to his son, William Dickey, 1441 Silver Ave. He was wearing a blue soft hat and blue sweater and black coat. He walks with a limp and carries a cane.
