Senate Kills 'Klan' Teacher Garb Bill

Upper Branch Sounds Death Knell of First So-Called 'K. K.' Measure Introduced by Vote of 40 to 6 Against Minority Report.

Following bitter debate, the Senate today voted 40 to 6 to kill the first of the so-called Klan bills, introduced by Senator Sims, Terre Haute, Republican, which would prohibit teachers in public schools from wearing any distinctive religious garb or insignia.

CHICAGO POLICE START PROBE OF ORPHAN'S DEATH

Something Hidden in McClintock Case, Chief Collins Declares.

By United Press CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—"Something is being hidden in connection with the death of young McClintock. We are going to bring it to light," Police Chief Morgan Collins announced today as he assigned three assistants to probe the affair.

At Collins' request the inquest into the death of William Nelson McClintock, "millionaire orphan," was delayed thirty days.

$2,000,000 Fortune

McClintock, soon after becoming heir to his parents' $2,000,000 estate, died at the home of his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Shepherd. He was to have married Miss Isabelle Pope, society girl. The girl believed at first the chief beneficiary, received only a yearly allowance of $8,000, the bulk of the estate going to the Shepherds.

At instigation of Chief Justice Harry F. Olson of the Chicago municipal court an investigation was launched. Shepherd was called back from New Mexico. A coroner's physician examined the boy's organs.

Shepherd Exonerated The probe was ended by a coroner's statement "exonerating" Shepherd.

Tuesday the inquest was to have been held. But Collins sprang his surprise. He demanded the delay, obtaining it over objections of attorneys for Shepherd, now back in New Mexico. The chief said he had obtained "important information which deserves careful investigation."

Meanwhile reports were circulated that the case would eventually be taken to the attorney general of Illinois.

SEN. NEJDL HITS AT REPORT GIVEN BY SURVEY BODY

G. O. P. Floor Leader Calls Proposals of Commission 'Revolutionary and Radical.'

'CAMOUFLAGE' CHARGED

Recommendation Seen as Move for State Constabulary.

Senator James J. Nejd, Whiting, Republican floor leader in the Senate, today declared the report of the Governor Jackson survey commission was radical and revolutionary, and that the move to create a State board of public safety through a commission of boards having police powers was nothing more than a State constabulary movement in camouflage.

"Let's see, Baxter's on that commission, isn't he? Well, you needn't go any further, of course it's a constabulary," said Nejd.

Ex-Senator Arthur R. Baxter, Indianapolis, was the father of the constabulary bill defeated at the 1923 session.

Long Delay Seen

Statements of House and Senate leaders indicated action on the report may not come at this session of the Legislature.

It is pointed out there is a tremendous amount of work in drawing up necessary bills and it would be almost impossible to do the work at this session.

The budget advisory committee, recognizing this fact, is making appropriations with slight consideration of the commission's report, it was stated. The budget report will be filed with the Governor within a few days.

'Too Many on Walking List'

The survey commission in its report provides that State fire marshal, fish and game wardens, state motor police, State industrial board and oil inspectors be combined under the department of public safety.

Nejd also took issue with the proposal to reduce the members of the industrial board from five to three members.

"The board was increased to five members when the mines were

CHAPMAN STARTS BACK TO PRISON

Taken to Union Station Under Heavy Guard.

Gerald Chapman, noted bandit, under heavy guard of postal inspectors, wardens and deputy United States marshals, was taken from the Marion County jail today and started on a return trip to the Atlanta (Ga.) penitentiary, from which he has been a fugitive since March 27, 1923. He was captured at Muncie, Ind., Sunday.

Chapman was double handcuffed and in leg irons. An automobile load of Department of Justice men, headed by L. C. Osborne of Indianapolis, followed the car carrying Chapman from the jail to the Union Station.

In the party escorting Chapman to Atlanta were A. S. Kelley, W. C. Ellis and C. A. Callahan, Indianapolis postal inspectors.

Chapman was taken to the train by a devious route which led up the freight elevator at the station. The same route was traveled by former Governor Warren T. McCray when he was taken to Atlanta prison last year.

Chapman escaped twice from authorities at Atlanta in March, 1923, after serving a few months of a twenty-five-year term imposed on conviction of staging a $2,400,000 rail hold-up in New York in 1921.

PASTOR SPURNS CHURCH

Leaves Pulpit to Escape Bickerings of Modernists and Fundamentalists—Builds Cave-Home in Cliffs of Ozarks

By NEA Service LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 21.—Warfare of church modernists and fundamentalists did not find a recruit in the Rev. H. S. Mobley.

Instead he resigned the pulpit and took himself and family away from the bickerings.

In the Ozark Mountain country near Prairie Grove, Ark., the former minister found his haven.

It was a dry cave, sixty-seven feet long and eighteen feet high with a precipitous cliff towering above it.

"I wanted to rear my boys away from the temptations and strife of city life," he said.

"Here they are blessed with the gifts of nature and we can gain a good livelihood from the earth."

One hundred and sixty acres of ground, fifty acres of which were in cultivation, comprised the home site.

Native stone was used to face the cave which had been partitioned off into three rooms.

Today the exterior of the cave has the imposing look of a feudal castle. Inside it is fitted with all conveniences.

A floor has been laid and Indian rugs are strewn about. Sixteen high plate glass windows puncture the front rockwork.

There are easy chairs, inviting nooks, a big ebony piano and a mahogany sideboard in the living room. Each bedroom has its own fireplace.

Water from a nearby spring has been piped into the kitchen, which boasts of a white enamel sink.

Adjacent shelving racks furnish a cowhouse, where nine Jersey cows are stalled, a stable for three horses, a shed, a pighouse and a goat shed.

SHERIFF SHOOTS MEXICAN SLAYER

Kills Man Who Ran Amuck With Knife.

By United Press LOS FRESNOS, Texas, Jan. 21.—Running amuck with a machete after attacking a young girl and slaying her mother, Isadora Sandoval, 35, Mexican, was shot and killed by Sheriff Sam Robertson today, according to reports.

Sandoval, alleged to have been insane, attacked the girl on the outskirts of Los Fresnos. The mother attempted to rescue the girl and was killed.

A posse of ranchmen rescued the girl, but were kept at bay by the Mexican, who held a small boy in front of him and kept his back to a stone wall through the night.

Approached by Sheriff Robertson, Sandoval freed the boy and attacked the sheriff. Robertson was then forced to shoot.

KLAN QUESTION IS PUT TO ALL

Judge Candidates Quizzed by Washington.

By C. A. RANDAU Times Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Members of the Ku-Klux Klan need not apply for the positions of Federal judge or district attorney of Indiana, it has been intimated at the White House.

Though there has been considerable difficulty encountered in finding a district attorney, and though many factions have presented their pleas in favor of this or that candidate for the new judgeship, the big question that will be asked the ultimate candidates is "are you a member of the Ku-Klux Klan?"

According to reliable, unofficial information, Judge Robert C. Baltzell, who recently succeeded Judge A. B. Anderson, was subjected to the same examination.

His appointment followed his answer "No," it is said.

So far nothing has developed to alter the view that Thomas Slick, South Bend lawyer, stands the best chance.

Representative F. E. Miller of Kokomo Introduces Measure That Would Prohibit Racing or Sports of Any Kind on Memorial Day.

EX-GOVERNOR M'CRAY VETOED SIMILAR PROPOSAL IN 1923

Strong Lobbies Said to Be at Work in This Session on Both Sides of Question—Referred to Public Morals Committee.

The Indianapolis Motor Speedway bill was again before the Legislature today.

The measure, prohibiting racing or sports of any description on Memorial Day, was introduced by Representative F. E. Miller of Kokomo and was referred to the public morals committee of the House.

A similar bill, after a bitter fight in both Houses, was enacted by the 1923 Assembly, but was vetoed by former Governor McCray.

Strong lobbies are said to be at work on both sides of the question in this session.

Text of bill:

"Whereas, the thirtieth day of May, known as Memorial Day, has become a day of sacred memory and should be held as such, and its proper observance is recognized as a fitting tribute to the memory of the dead, who, as soldiers in any way, offered their lives in behalf of our country; and

'Debt of Gratitude.'

"Whereas, nothing should be done or allowed on that day that is inconsistent with the debt of gratitude and love we owe to them for their heroism and sacrifice, therefore

"Section 2. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana that it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, co-partnership or corporation, on the thirtieth day of May, known as Memorial day, to engage in or promote racing of any character, whether by vehicles or by animals, or any games or sports of any character for which a fee is charged for admission to such races, games or sports, or where such races, games or sports are engaged in for prizes.

"Section 3. The word person as used in this act shall be taken to mean and include any person, who, individually or as an officer, agent, or stockholder in any firm, company, association, co-partnership or corporation, violates or takes any part in or aids or abets any violation of this act.

"Section 4. Any firm, company, association, co-partnership or corporation violating any of the provisions of Section One of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000, to which may be added imprisonment in the county jail or State penal farm for not more than six months.

"Section 5. Whereas, an emergency exists for the immediate taking effect of this act, the same shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage."

Under provisions of the bill baseball games also would be prohibited in Memorial Day.

By United Press JERSEY CITY, N. J., Jan. 21.—Counsel for ten policemen and two civilians on trial for bootlegging today attacked testimony of Lionel Wilson, Federal prohibition agent, who, Tuesday, named Senator Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey as chief of the liquor traffickers.

Court records were produced to show Wilson was found guilty of petit larceny here in 1913.

Wilson and his partner, Charles Hurlbut, declared the Senator accepted $3,300 from them for 100 cases of Scotch. He admitted the money was returned and that they never received the liquor.

TWILIGHT SLEEP MAY USHER IN LONGWORTH BABY

By United Press CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—Twilight sleep may have to be used to usher in the baby of Alice Roosevelt Longworth, Miss Jessie Christie, superintendent of the Chicago Lying-In Hospital, said today in telling of the preparations to take care of the distinguished patient.
