Accusations Against Blackford County Tribunal Before Supreme Bench.

BULLETIN
Supreme Court this afternoon temporarily restrained the Welfare Loan Company receiver from acting and set final hearing for Feb. 17.

Irregularities in procedure in the court of Judge Victor H. Simmons of the Blackford Circuit Court, Hartford City, Ind., are alleged in an application for a writ of prohibition today with the Indiana Supreme Court today by Lewis Wallace, Indianapolis, as receiver of the Hawkins Mortgage Company, bankrupt, of Portland, Ind., and Frank Gilmer, trustee and stockholder of the Welfare Loan Society of South Bend, Ind.

The suit is the outgrowth of appointment of E. E. McGriff of Portland, Thursday as receiver for four welfare loan societies organized by Morion S. Hawkins, former head of the Hawkins Mortgage Company, under indictment in Federal Court here on charges of using the mails in a scheme to defraud.

Relatives in Case

Hawkins, fighting removal proceedings in Ohio, is out on $20,000 bond. He jumped $7,500 bond here Oct. 1. Charges in the petition are: That Sarah C. Fulton, who brought the receivership suit, is an aunt of Hawkins; that Anthony S. Scheit, who waived summons and granted jurisdiction to the Blackford Circuit Court is under sentence of five years in prison in Federal Court here, and had no authority to waive; that the court had no jurisdiction; that Judge Simmons' father, Luther B. Simmons, represented the plaintiff and was in fact the only attorney in court when the action was taken; that the answer of the defendant corporation and signature to the answer were in the handwriting of Luther B. Simmons.

More Charges

That he indicated to his son, the judge, the entire case to be made in the case; that the name of Carl C. Russell appears on the answer as attorney for the defendant company, when as a matter of fact he is not an attorney at the bar of the court, and was not present at the time.

A writ prohibiting the defendants, Judge Simmons, the Blackford Circuit Court and McGriff from taking any further action in the case is asked.

The petition was filed by Matson, Carter, Ross & McCord of Indianapolis, and Shively & Gilmer of South Bend, attorneys.

Bowling near Washington. I'd say Washington. That's a great town. Something don't every minute. "How about liberty?"

Lots of Liberty

"Plenty."

"Yeh," I said. "I remember during the war there were six weeks I didn't—"

"Say, brother, you're going to join the Army in peace time."

I told him I wasn't keen about signing up for three years.

"That's nothing," he said. "After a year you can buy yourself out for $120."

"I was getting the papers out. I've got to telephone my w—er mother," I said.

"Right here's a telephone."

"No," I replied desperately. "We live downtown. I'll walk over and see her. I'll be back."

I couldn't find a job on the street after I left the army headquarters. I went direct to the recruiting office.

"What have you got open?" I asked a fellow in civies.

"Radio and seamen. Ex-service man."

"Yes, I was in the navy."

"Regular Navy?"

"No, the Reserve."

"Hump, you weren't in the Navy," said another, also in civies.

"Roadie!"

"I can ship you to the Philippines or Philadelphia as a seaman, or send you to radio school," said the other.

"I was in the radio during the war. They put me to making roads—radio."

Another old salt drifted in. I eased over to the door. The question: Did they want me or not.

"What ship were you on?" one of them asked the last old salt who just entered.

"Louisiana."

"How long were you on the Lou?"

And a yarn was spun.

I left.

CHICAGO GASPS AT WEDDING PLANS OF HOWARD-HINES

$100,000 to Be Expended in Marriage of Millionaire Couple.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—A $100,000 wedding—a cardinal officiating, a rosary from Pope Pius XI, a huge cathedral entirely refitted in cardinal red, thousands of hothouse lilies, diamonds from the Rue de La Paix, gowns from Paris, Tito Schipa singing, the Chicago symphony Orchestra playing the wedding march—de to be solemnized here tomorrow when Miss Loretta Hines, daughter of a millionaire lumberman, is married to Howell Howard of Dayton, Ohio.

When all the elaborate plans for the wedding were announced, Chicago's society matrons looked back over ceremonies of the past three decades and announced the Hines-Howard nuptials were to be the most elaborate and expensive in all Chicago's history.

The bride is a slim, dashing "twentieth century" girl. She loves outdoor sports and prefers hunting and riding to parlor teas and dancing. The groom is the son of Col. Maxwell Howard.

Cardinal Mundelein, less than a year raised to the cardinalate by Pope Pius is to perform the ceremony. It is the first wedding at which he has officiated since his ascension. The mass will be sung by the Rev. Francis Kelley, bishop of Oklahoma.

A thirty-room suite at an expensive hotel has been engaged for the bride attendants. Another thirty-room suite at another hotel will be occupied by the groom and his escorts.

After the wedding the couple will hasten to Warwickshire, Eng., for a six months visit.

STATE GETS OLD CLAIM

Investigation Under Way of Quarry Site Payment.

The State Budget Advisory Committee today was confronted with a claim of $44,032 by Julius Hauck for a stone quarry on a sixty-six-acre plot of land deeded by him to the State reformatory in 1922. Hauck got $9,000 for the land and was promised by reformatory officials and former Governor McCray the public service commission would evaluate the quarry and the State would pay for it. The commission set $44,032 as value of the quarry. The reformatory budget contains no provision for payment of the debt. Superintendent A. F. Miles of the reformatory is to appear before the committee in explanation of the matter. He was not in charge of the institution when the purchase was made.

Charges of drunkenness and operating a blind tiger against the youths, and an additional charge of driving while intoxicated against one were taken under advisement by Judge Pro Tem, Garth Nelson to give him an opportunity to read the alleged confessions.

MINERS FACE WINTER STORMS IN TENTS

By United Press
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 23.—Five thousand persons—striking miners and their families—are encamped back in the hills of the Kanawha coal district today with single sheets of canvas protecting them from the fury of winter storms.

Smoke pours from black pipes in the tent tops. Sixty-two and a half cents' worth of food per individual per week is the union allotment. "Tent wives" find it difficult to prepare inviting meals with no more delicate groceries on hand than bread, beans, salt pork, potatoes and cabbages.

GREENSBURG, IND., CASE IS HEARD

Water Company Rates in Federal Court.

Judges Samuel Ashbuler and A. E. Anderson of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals and Robert C. Baltzell, district judge of Indiana, heard arguments in Federal Court today on a petition by the Greensburg (Ind.) Water Company asking an injunction restraining the public service commission from fixing certain rates based on the valuation of the company's property at $469,000.

Judge Anderson asked whether the utility was asking the court to fix rates. The company refused to accept rates based on a valuation of $225,000, an increase granted by the commission, and asked a still further increase on a valuation of not less than $400,000.

Arthur L. Gilliom, attorney general, argued that the commission's rates should be presumed to be fair until the utility had shown them otherwise, and that since the company refused to put into effect the new rates, which were more productive than previous rates, the burden of proof that the rates were confiscatory had not been discharged.

Bell Provides Bridge

Construction by the State highway commission of a bridge across the Ohio River at Evansville is provided in a bill to be introduced in the House by Representative Korff. Vanderburgh County would be authorized to pay one-sixth of construction costs.

The daily distribution of food goes on and the women patch the clothing of their children and men folk hoping that they can make it last the winter. Occasionally a baby is born and the mother gets along the best she can with women from neighboring tents substituting for physicians.

At night the miners and their families gather around camp fires and sing to keep away the blues born of idleness.

The operators charge that the union has imported loafers to live in the colony and declare the mines are offering fair wages if the men want to work.

OHIO THREAT PUT UP TO GILLIOM

Schortemeier to Confer on Retaliation Step.

Secretary of State Frederick E. Schortemeier was to confer with Attorney General Arthur Gilliom today concerning the threat of the Ohio public service commission to arrest drivers of the Red Ball Transit Company's busses who attempted to cross the State line into Ohio this week end.

A Senate resolution introduced by Senator Rowland H. Hill of Carthage, calling for retaliation by arrest of Ohio drivers coming into Indiana was brought to the attention of Governor Jackson Thursday by a sub-committee of Judiciary A Committee in whose hands the resolution was placed.

Jackson turned the matter over to Schortemeier. Schortemeier said his conference with Gilliom would be in regard to police powers under his control and the possibility of Gilliom going to Ohio to discuss the matter with Ohio authorities.

The Ohio commission's warning asserted the Red Ball trucks would be violating the Ohio law, which requires busses to hold Ohio commission licenses as public utilities.

'STAGNATION' FORECAST

"If the Quillen bill, proposing to place holding companies under control of public service commission becomes a law, utilities will stagnate," said Maj. Gen. George H. Harries, utility expert of Chicago, Thursday night at Indiana Public Utility Association dinner at the Claypool.

"There would be nothing doing from a utility standpoint, nor, for that matter, from the standpoint of the public, until the legality of the law had been settled by the courts."

General Harries, vice president of H. M. Bylesby & Co., which operates in seventeen States, said the small utility companies are passing and with them a large part of overhead.

ADVISES ROUGH STUFF FOR CROOKS

Illinois Chief Justice Flays Judges.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—Don't react thugs, burglars and murderers as household pets, but as traitors to society and you have the solution of the crime situation in a nut shell, Chief Justice Floyd E. Thompson, Illinois Supreme Court, told the Illinois Bankers' Association in session here.

"Our jails provide criminals with music and flowers and libraries and theatrical entertainment, parades and pardons until what was originally intended as punishment is no longer punishment at all," he said.

Thompson flayed members of the bench who spent four hours a day in court and the rest at golf or on the lecture platform.

"Much of the delay in criminal prosecution in large cities is due entirely to the failure of judges to devote their time to their task," he said.

Report Favoring Passage Is Adopted.

The House of Representatives today adopted a minority report of the State Medicine, Health and Vital Statistics Committee favoring passage of the chiropractic bill by a vote of 62 to 36.

The bill provides that a State board of chiropractic registration and examination be created and provides for raising educational standard of chiropractors.

A majority report recommended indefinite postponement.

Representative De Haven, Indianapolis, author of the bill, declared the chiropractors were only asking permission to be legalized and to be given a higher standing in the State. He urged adoption of the minority report.
