PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets is ever cured with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, cold liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week, then two or three daily, and look, look, and look better you feel and look like.

Martha Lee Says

Happiness One Thing That Can't Be Bought

The almighty dollar is a force for good, as well as evil. It is a factor in many happy marriages. It provides comforts and conveniences which relieve the tedium of housekeeping and help keep wives young.

It saves husbands from the anxiety that their wives and children may be left uncared for. This anxiety can not help but be reflected in a man's attitude in his home. Worry leaves an indelible mark.

But, after all, the power of the dollar is extremely limited. It can not buy the cares that wipe out the cares of business. It can not purchase the complimentary word that makes a wife forget the weary hours of housework.

It can not buy love or happiness. With love, the dollar may help keep the waters calm as the ship of matrimony sails along. Without love, it may make a marriage endurable, it can not make it happy.

If a choice must be made between love and money, the easier bet for happiness is on love.

Love or Money?

Dear Miss Lee: I am 21 years old, deeply in love with a man a year older than I am. I have a good job and am not making enough money for us to get married. I have a good job and am not making enough money for us to get married. I have a good job and am not making enough money for us to get married.

Dear girl, love in a kitchenette apartment has its disadvantages, but it is infinitely better than a palace without love. Money has many uses not to be scorned, but it cannot buy happiness.

Troubled by Gossip

Miss Lee: I am 17, in love with a fellow that works where I do. Every day I am alone with him he makes love to me. I am 17, in love with a fellow that works where I do. Every day I am alone with him he makes love to me. I am 17, in love with a fellow that works where I do. Every day I am alone with him he makes love to me.

1. Don't worry about a gossip so cowardly she hides under cover of anonymity. Let the consequences be on her conscience, as long as you know you do not deserve her condemnation. I should think your mother would not listen to her.

2. Your guess as to your enemy's identity is as good as mine, or better.

3. If this man loves you he will tell you to protect you, and so, if you tell him of this gossip, will be careful never to do anything further to expose you to it. So I should advise you to tell him. Unless you can obtain another position as good as the one you now hold, I do not believe this matter warrants your resigning. A little coyness on your part is about all that's needed.
