

WOMEN URGED TO PURIFY POLITICS

Mrs. Boucher Says Not to Fear Idealism.

"If women are to be an element of good and strength in politics, they must not be afraid to be called idealists," declared Mrs. Chauncey Watson Boucher, of Valparaiso, Ind., in a talk on "Women in Politics," at the McKinley luncheon of the Indiana Woman's Republican Club, Thursday at the Sevier.

"Women came into politics to purify it," she said. "They will have to justify their presence there by standing for clean politics, by refusing to vote for questionable characters, and by seeing that they do not lose sight of the good of the Nation in their several fights for the States."

Preceding her talk on women, Mrs. Boucher paid glowing tribute to McKinley.

About 400 covers were laid at small tables decorated with flags. Mrs. Vivian Tracey Wheatcraft, president, presided.

Fashion Suggests

Long strands of pearls are very fashionable, particularly those with sections of brilliants or emeralds at regular intervals.

Delicate embroideries in cross stitch are used to trim white crepe de chine dresses for Palm Beach wear.

Cretonne parasols in a wide variety of colors and designs are on sale for Palm Beach resorters.

Fringe, particularly narrow silk fringe in many rows so that it almost covers the skirt, is very smart now.

The newest skirts use pleats very effectively so as to secure the utmost comfort without sacrificing the narrow look.

Musks have been revived in all shapes and in all combinations of fur and fabrics. The smartest ones are very small and round.

promptly relieves constipation. It is not a bitter medicine nor a gripping, nauseating, uncomfortable physic. It is a pleasing liquid combination of Egyptian senna, pepsin and aromatics that Dr. Caldwell, with his long experience, found effective and an aid to Nature in performing her proper functions when the bowels were mistreated through improper food, lack of exercise, and indifference to physical sanitation.
