

SENATORS STAND FIRM ON DEMAND FOR RILEY ITEM

Legislators Organize to Insist on Hospital Appropriation.

"Irreconcilable" members of the Indiana Senate are being organized by Senator Merry, Dunkirk, it was learned today, to stand "on this line all summer" in demanding appropriation of $250,000 for the Riley Memorial Hospital.

Senators Daily and Moorhead, Indianapolis, are standing with the irreconcilables and, according to leaders, they see visions of a special session unless some truce is declared on the biennial budget bill amendments.

"We are further apart than ever," Senator Hill, Carthage, said, following a session of the appropriations conference committee. "It doesn't look as if we ever would get together."

Dissension was apparent in both houses over the fact that neither Speaker Leslie nor Lieutenant Governor Van Orman named chairman of the respective finance committees on the conference committee, which sets a precedent, according to old-timers in the legislature.

Another Meeting Planned

The conference committee was to meet again late today.

It was understood the oil inspection department will get at least $75,000 annual appropriation, although a Senate amendment out of the sum to $100,000. It also was understood an appropriation for $25,000 for a hospital at the State Reformatory, slashed off by the Senate, will get back into the bill. The appropriation for the Terre Haute Normal gymnasium has been tentatively fixed at $75,000. It was learned, a cut of $25,000. Attempts were being made to slash $300,000 from the building appropriation for the Southern Hospital for the Insane and $50,000 from the appropriation for the Central Hospital for the Insane. Strong pressure was being brought to bear to leave in $30,000 appropriated for free labor bureau.

Charges Fly

Charges of "dirty politics" and "coercion" flew thick and fast about the lobby as the war raged between administration and anti-administration forces over the Kluge bill which seeks to abolish the personnel of the State High Way Commission.

Meanwhile the Senate and House rushed through last-minute bills in an effort to empty the legislative hopper before the statutory period of the session ends Monday.

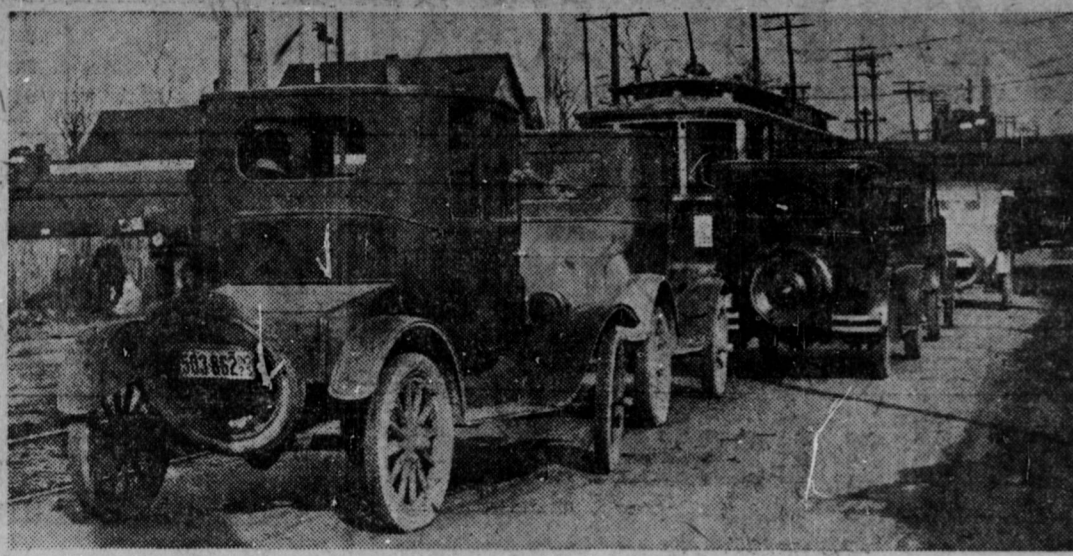

Conference Held

The conference committee on the administration appropriations bill was "farther apart than ever," following a session this morning, according to Senator Hill, Carthage, Senate representative. Another meeting was to be held later in the day.

Representative Haines, Avilla, House representative on the committee, said: "Those Senators surely are hard-boiled. We couldn't agree on anything."

It was understood a compromise had been reached to give State Normal at Terre Haute $75,000 for a new gymnasium, instead of the $125,000 provided originally. Approval of this understood to be points of discussion.

How Belt Trains Block Washington St. Traffic

TRAFFIC BLOCKED BY TRAIN ON BELT RAILROAD AT WASHINGTON ST. CROSSING.

This picture demonstrates the condition of which Superintendent Cleon Nafe of city hospital is complaining to the board of safety.

Nafe reported that a city ambulance was delayed twenty-four minutes Wednesday night by a train on the Belt Railroad at W. Washington St. A baby, desperately ill, lay in the ambulance.

Belt officials say they have standing orders to trainmen to cut trains when crossings are blocked longer than three minutes, the legal limit.

The board of works seeks to eliminate the condition by elevating the tracks. A resolution for Belt elevation has been adopted.

The train in the picture had been blocking the crossing for about four minutes when the photograph was taken.

AUTO BLUES

"Flivver Look" Frightens Salesmen Away When Ross Makes Rounds at Auto Show.

By ROSS H. GARRIGUS

I went to the Auto Show to get myself sold on an auto-bubble. I didn't have much luck. I suppose I look flivver.

Maybe tonight I'll buy myself a fat cigar, wear baggy trousers, tortoise-shell glasses and acquire a blasé look. Maybe then I can interest the Packards and the Marmones, and the Pierce-Arrows, and—

As it was, well, one salesman talked up to me—a tired Chevrolet salesman. Told me he was tired from writing orders.

Interest Lags

He let me sit in the new coupe, but when I told him I had an ancient flivver he became interested in another customer right off.

Overland folks were considerate, too. When I ventured up to a car, a salesman hustled up and started to talk motor stuff. He, too, got a far-away look in his eyes when I told him I wanted at least 300 berries for my old flivver.

I watched one fat fellow. He wore a derby, glasses, rolled a fat cigar in his mouth. He got eight dealers interested in him.

So I attempted to be blasé.

Ho, Hum

I ventured up to one car. "Looks rather nice," I told my companion earnestly in those stage whispers. "But then I never did care for headlights on the fenders."

But she ruined it. "Yes, we had a parking light on one of our rear fenders and the wife was always coming loose."

"Oh, there's one of those air-cooled cars," said my companion. "No," I replied. "Means nothing. I spend my winters in the south. Frozen motels never concern me. It is a nice car, though. Rawther powerful hood, eh what?"

A salesman started for me and then changed his mind.

Another car attracted my eye. It was dappled.

Flivver Blues

"Gee, that wouldn't show the dust when we drive to Bloomington," said she. "Wouldn't have to wash it."

"My man," I retorted haughtily, "you must remember, takes care of that."

The tuxedoed salesman lit a cigarette. Women are more interested in the upholstery. Men ask about motors, horsepower, stroke, acceleration, cylinders, aluminum tankcases, speed.

Women—oh, is that mohair or velvet? What a charming vanity set. That gorgeous dome light.

Anyhow, I was sore when I came out.

Kicked my poor old flivver, patiently parking at the curb three miles away, right in the radiator.

Never did I see a more dilapidated car.

You, too, can keep your self and baby well and happy

You just know they're NOT well

There is no reason for you or your baby to look or feel this way

CONSTIPATION means MELANCHOLY and DISEASE

Melancholy for the Mother, disease for the Child! The responsibility of the mother does not end with properly clothing and feeding the baby. Her own health is directly reflected in the little one, and the poisons bottled up in her body by constipation transfer themselves to the innocent child and too often result in serious sickness. Mother's bowels should act at least twice a day, and baby's bowels more frequently. Physicians agree on this subject.

Dr. Caldwell's SYRUP PEPSIN The Family Laxative

—relieves constipation. It is a pure, harmless, gentle combination of Egyptian senna, pepsin and aromatics in liquid form that opens up the bowels, and promotes and encourages Nature to perform her proper functions. No doctor could give you a better laxative than this one of Dr. Caldwell's which has been used for over 30 years.

As Pleasant, Easy and Effective For Mother As For Baby

It is mild and wholly free from opiate or narcotic. Because it is so pleasant to take, babies and children like it, and it should be in the medicine chest of every family for instant use. More than 10,000,000 bottles used annually prove its effectiveness.

It is sold everywhere medicine is sold—and guaranteed. Try it—our risk. Your druggist will return your money if it fails to do as promised.
