STATE LUNCHEON GIVEN BY ALPHA PHIS AT LINCOLN

Sorority Arranges Dance for 180 Persons to End Fete.

The annual state luncheon of the Alpha Phi Sorority was held Saturday at the Lincoln. Covers for ninety were laid at a U-shaped table, decorated in the sorority colors of Bordeaux and silver. Red roses and southern smilax were arranged on the table, which was lighted by Bordeaux tapers in silver holders.

Mrs. Frances Miller Becker of Terre Haute, State president; Mrs. Lela Agnew, Clark of Lafayette, Ind., and Miss Mary Grosjean of Terre Haute gave greetings. Miss Anna Hayward read some of her poetry. Miss Juanita Ames sang "To Alpha Phi," written by Miss Sarah Perry of Rochester, Ind., and "Dance."

The active chapter of De Pauw University gave a playlet, "Three Little Maids from School," written by Miss Mary Lloyd and Miss Emily Marline. Taking part were Misses Margaret Morton, Juanita Ames, Harriet Stewart, Helen Gerheart, Mary White and Katherine Frank. One hundred eighty persons planned to attend the State dance in the evening. A large electrical replica of the sorority pin decorated one end of the hall. The programs were bound in Bordeaux suede and decorated with a silver crest. Chapters: Messrs. and Mesdames George V. Miller, J. A. Carter, J. C. Carter, Frederick H. Bird, Bennett Taylor of Lafayette, Ind.

Use Buttermilk
Corn and better breads should be made with fresh buttermilk. Biscuits are better made with buttermilk while a little acid.

Marshalling Dollars in a Savings Account, An Insurance Force to Combat Emergencies.

Emergencies may be of an adverse nature; they may also be of an advantageous kind. In an adverse emergency, such as weeks or months of sickness, the force of dollars in a savings account will be of great value; and likewise, the force of dollars in a savings account may prove advantageous in capturing the opportunity that comes only once. The force in this Company—A Strong Company—the oldest in Indiana—is exemplified by its large capital and surplus. Let us help you save.
