

BRIDAL SERVICE CLOSES EASTER SUNDAY HERE

Rev. Fackler Unites Couple in Marriage After Sermon.

SUDDENLY the melody of a wedding march was heard by those attending the Sunday night Easter service at St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The aisles of the packed auditorium were cleared, following the night sermon of the Rev. L. C. E. Fackler, pastor of the church.

Slowly down the main aisle of the church came one of the well-known workers of the church, Miss Lydia Neukam, and Thomas Wilson.

Miss Neukam wore a wedding gown and veil and carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. The couple approached Rev. Fackler in the pulpit.

They knelt before the Easter pulpit and the Easter cross at the pulpit. And at the closing event of a wonderful Easter day, the pastor and the church united in marriage Miss Neukam and Mr. Wilson.

The wedding service came at the close of the Sunday night service to the congregation. The beautiful and impressive service seemed to blend into the glorious spirit of the day.

The bride was united in marriage before the congregation of which she has been a splendid worker for some time.

"This Easter was one of the greatest we have ever observed at St. Matthew's," Rev. Fackler said after the service. "The auditorium was so crowded at all services that it seemed impossible to get another person in the church."

Heavy Attendance

Pastors all over the city report that both church and Sunday school attendance on Easter Sunday reached new high marks.

In all Catholic churches, the various masses were attended by congregations that taxed all available space.

Protestant pastors state that never before in their experience have so many people attended Easter service as was done yesterday.

At the Third Christian Church, the Christian Men Builders, a class for men, had an attendance of 911, which is the second largest attendance in the history of the class. All Sunday school records were broken at this church, when a total of 3,616 people attended Sunday school.

Beautiful musical programs were given in all churches. The floral display in many churches were simple, but effective. There seemed to be a united effort to make this Easter Sunday the most impressive of all church days.

EASTER LIFTS US UP

The Rev. Orlen W. Fifer Preaches at Central Avenue Church.

"Easter lifts us up again and brings to mind how certainly the grace of God restores the fallen and cheers the faint," declared the Rev. Orlen W. Fifer, pastor of Central Avenue M. E. Church, Sunday morning. "We can be lifted, through faith, from sorrow and disappointment into Heavenly fellowship with Jesus."

REVIVAL SERIES ENDS

Total of 161 New Members Added to Central Christian Church.

Week's evangelistic campaign, which ended at the Central Christian church Sunday night, brought 161 members to church. The series was conducted by Dr. Jesse M. Bader of St. Louis, national secretary of Disciples of Christ in America.

Dr. Bader assisted Dr. Allan D. Philpott, pastor of the church, who has been ill for several weeks. Baptismal services were held Sunday afternoon and evening.

POWER OF RESURRECTION

"We Are to Be Freed," Says Pastor at Baptist Church.

The power displayed in the resurrection of Christ was meant to become effective in our own lives. We are to be freed from the power of sin by the power of Christ," declared Rev. J. J. Patterson Sunday at the Thirty-First Street Baptist Church. "Through the resurrection

CORNS

Lift Off-No Pain!

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with your fingers.

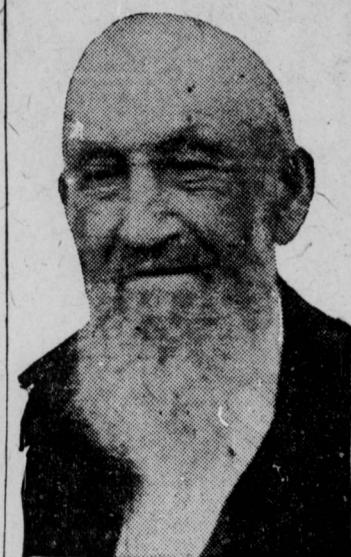

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irritation.—Advertisement.

ERIE CORDS

The Best Tire Made. Guaranteed 12,000 Miles
Consumers Tire Co.

249 N. Del. St. L. 6063.

Saw Lincoln Shot 60 Years Ago

William H. Hershey

SUDDENLY the melody of a wedding march was heard by those attending the Sunday night Easter service at St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The aisles of the packed auditorium were cleared, following the night sermon of the Rev. L. C. E. Fackler, pastor of the church.

Slowly down the main aisle of the church came one of the well-known workers of the church, Miss Lydia Neukam, and Thomas Wilson.

Miss Neukam wore a wedding gown and veil and carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. The couple approached Rev. Fackler in the pulpit.

They knelt before the Easter pulpit and the Easter cross at the pulpit. And at the closing event of a wonderful Easter day, the pastor and the church united in marriage Miss Neukam and Mr. Wilson.

The wedding service came at the close of the Sunday night service to the congregation. The beautiful and impressive service seemed to blend into the glorious spirit of the day.

The bride was united in marriage before the congregation of which she has been a splendid worker for some time.

"This Easter was one of the greatest we have ever observed at St. Matthew's," Rev. Fackler said after the service. "The auditorium was so crowded at all services that it seemed impossible to get another person in the church."

Heavy Attendance

Pastors all over the city report that both church and Sunday school attendance on Easter Sunday reached new high marks.

In all Catholic churches, the various masses were attended by congregations that taxed all available space.

Protestant pastors state that never before in their experience have so many people attended Easter service as was done yesterday.

At the Third Christian Church, the Christian Men Builders, a class for men, had an attendance of 911, which is the second largest attendance in the history of the class. All Sunday school records were broken at this church, when a total of 3,616 people attended Sunday school.

Beautiful musical programs were given in all churches. The floral display in many churches were simple, but effective. There seemed to be a united effort to make this Easter Sunday the most impressive of all church days.

EASTER LIFTS US UP

The Rev. Orlen W. Fifer Preaches at Central Avenue Church.

"Easter lifts us up again and brings to mind how certainly the grace of God restores the fallen and cheers the faint," declared the Rev. Orlen W. Fifer, pastor of Central Avenue M. E. Church, Sunday morning. "We can be lifted, through faith, from sorrow and disappointment into Heavenly fellowship with Jesus."

REVIVAL SERIES ENDS

Total of 161 New Members Added to Central Christian Church.

Week's evangelistic campaign, which ended at the Central Christian church Sunday night, brought 161 members to church. The series was conducted by Dr. Jesse M. Bader of St. Louis, national secretary of Disciples of Christ in America.

Dr. Bader assisted Dr. Allan D. Philpott, pastor of the church, who has been ill for several weeks. Baptismal services were held Sunday afternoon and evening.

POWER OF RESURRECTION

"We Are to Be Freed," Says Pastor at Baptist Church.

The power displayed in the resurrection of Christ was meant to become effective in our own lives. We are to be freed from the power of sin by the power of Christ," declared Rev. J. J. Patterson Sunday at the Thirty-First Street Baptist Church. "Through the resurrection

SUDDENLY the melody of a wedding march was heard by those attending the Sunday night Easter service at St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The aisles of the packed auditorium were cleared, following the night sermon of the Rev. L. C. E. Fackler, pastor of the church.

Slowly down the main aisle of the church came one of the well-known workers of the church, Miss Lydia Neukam, and Thomas Wilson.

Miss Neukam wore a wedding gown and veil and carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. The couple approached Rev. Fackler in the pulpit.

They knelt before the Easter pulpit and the Easter cross at the pulpit. And at the closing event of a wonderful Easter day, the pastor and the church united in marriage Miss Neukam and Mr. Wilson.

The wedding service came at the close of the Sunday night service to the congregation. The beautiful and impressive service seemed to blend into the glorious spirit of the day.

The bride was united in marriage before the congregation of which she has been a splendid worker for some time.

"This Easter was one of the greatest we have ever observed at St. Matthew's," Rev. Fackler said after the service. "The auditorium was so crowded at all services that it seemed impossible to get another person in the church."

Heavy Attendance

Pastors all over the city report that both church and Sunday school attendance on Easter Sunday reached new high marks.

In all Catholic churches, the various masses were attended by congregations that taxed all available space.

Protestant pastors state that never before in their experience have so many people attended Easter service as was done yesterday.

At the Third Christian Church, the Christian Men Builders, a class for men, had an attendance of 911, which is the second largest attendance in the history of the class. All Sunday school records were broken at this church, when a total of 3,616 people attended Sunday school.

Beautiful musical programs were given in all churches. The floral display in many churches were simple, but effective. There seemed to be a united effort to make this Easter Sunday the most impressive of all church days.

EASTER LIFTS US UP

The Rev. Orlen W. Fifer Preaches at Central Avenue Church.

"Easter lifts us up again and brings to mind how certainly the grace of God restores the fallen and cheers the faint," declared the Rev. Orlen W. Fifer, pastor of Central Avenue M. E. Church, Sunday morning. "We can be lifted, through faith, from sorrow and disappointment into Heavenly fellowship with Jesus."

REVIVAL SERIES ENDS

Total of 161 New Members Added to Central Christian Church.

Week's evangelistic campaign, which ended at the Central Christian church Sunday night, brought 161 members to church. The series was conducted by Dr. Jesse M. Bader of St. Louis, national secretary of Disciples of Christ in America.

Dr. Bader assisted Dr. Allan D. Philpott, pastor of the church, who has been ill for several weeks. Baptismal services were held Sunday afternoon and evening.

POWER OF RESURRECTION

"We Are to Be Freed," Says Pastor at Baptist Church.

The power displayed in the resurrection of Christ was meant to become effective in our own lives. We are to be freed from the power of sin by the power of Christ," declared Rev. J. J. Patterson Sunday at the Thirty-First Street Baptist Church. "Through the resurrection

SUDDENLY the melody of a wedding march was heard by those attending the Sunday night Easter service at St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The aisles of the packed auditorium were cleared, following the night sermon of the Rev. L. C. E. Fackler, pastor of the church.

Slowly down the main aisle of the church came one of the well-known workers of the church, Miss Lydia Neukam, and Thomas Wilson.

Miss Neukam wore a wedding gown and veil and carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. The couple approached Rev. Fackler in the pulpit.

They knelt before the Easter pulpit and the Easter cross at the pulpit. And at the closing event of a wonderful Easter day, the pastor and the church united in marriage Miss Neukam and Mr. Wilson.

The wedding service came at the close of the Sunday night service to the congregation. The beautiful and impressive service seemed to blend into the glorious spirit of the day.

The bride was united in marriage before the congregation of which she has been a splendid worker for some time.

"This Easter was one of the greatest we have ever observed at St. Matthew's," Rev. Fackler said after the service. "The auditorium was so crowded at all services that it seemed impossible to get another person in the church."

Heavy Attendance

Pastors all over the city report that both church and Sunday school attendance on Easter Sunday reached new high marks.

In all Catholic churches, the various masses were attended by congregations that taxed all available space.

Protestant pastors state that never before in their experience have so many people attended Easter service as was done yesterday.

At the Third Christian Church, the Christian Men Builders, a class for men, had an attendance of 911, which is the second largest attendance in the history of the class. All Sunday school records were broken at this church, when a total of 3,616 people attended Sunday school.

Beautiful musical programs were given in all churches. The floral display in many churches were simple, but effective. There seemed to be a united effort to make this Easter Sunday the most impressive of all church days.

SUDDENLY the melody of a wedding march was heard by those attending the Sunday night Easter service at St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The aisles of the packed auditorium were cleared, following the night sermon of the Rev. L. C. E. Fackler, pastor of the church.

Slowly down the main aisle of the church came one of the well-known workers of the church, Miss Lydia Neukam, and Thomas Wilson.

Miss Neukam wore a wedding gown and veil and carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. The couple approached Rev. Fackler in the pulpit.

They knelt before the Easter pulpit and the Easter cross at the pulpit. And at the closing event of a wonderful Easter day, the pastor and the church united in marriage Miss Neukam and Mr. Wilson.

The wedding service came at the close of the Sunday night service to the congregation. The beautiful and impressive service seemed to blend into the glorious spirit of the day.

The bride was united in marriage before the congregation of which she has been a splendid worker for some time.

"This Easter was one of the greatest we have ever observed at St. Matthew's," Rev. Fackler said after the service. "The auditorium was so crowded at all services that it seemed impossible to get another person in the church."

Heavy Attendance

Pastors all over the city report that both church and Sunday school attendance on Easter Sunday reached new high marks.

In all Catholic churches, the various masses were attended by congregations that taxed all available space.

Protestant pastors state that never before in their experience have so many people attended Easter service as was done yesterday.

At the Third Christian Church, the Christian Men Builders, a class for men, had an attendance of 911, which is the second largest attendance in the history of the class. All Sunday school records were broken at this church, when a total of 3,616 people attended Sunday school.

Beautiful musical programs were given in all churches. The floral display in many churches were simple, but effective. There seemed to be a united effort to make this Easter Sunday the most impressive of all church days.

SUDDENLY the melody of a wedding march was heard by those attending the Sunday night Easter service at St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The aisles of the packed auditorium were cleared, following the night sermon of the Rev. L. C. E. Fackler, pastor of the church.

Slowly down the main aisle of the church came one of the well-known workers of the church, Miss Lydia Neukam, and Thomas Wilson.

Miss Neukam wore a wedding gown and veil and carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. The couple approached Rev. Fackler in the pulpit.

They knelt before the Easter pulpit and the Easter cross at the pulpit. And at the closing event of a wonderful Easter day, the pastor and the church united in marriage Miss Neukam and Mr. Wilson.

The wedding service came at the close of the Sunday night service to the congregation. The beautiful and impressive service seemed to blend into the glorious spirit of the day.

The bride was united in marriage before the congregation of which she has been a splendid worker for some time.

"This Easter was one of the greatest we have ever observed at St. Matthew's," Rev. Fackler said after the service. "The auditorium was so crowded at all services that it seemed impossible to get another person in the church."

Heavy Attendance

Pastors all over the city report that both church and Sunday school attendance on Easter Sunday reached new high marks.

In all Catholic churches, the various masses were attended by congregations that taxed all available space.

Protestant pastors state that never before in their experience have so many people attended Easter service as was done yesterday.