BEAUTY IS NEW TIP IN MURDER

her husband's release. Gang members, fearing exposure, killed her, according to theory.

That is but one of several theories. Connolly also thinks the victim might have been the sweetheart of a gangster and was killed when she threatened to expose him unless he married her.

The scores of clews found on the scene of the crime so far have failed to give a tangible lead to the slayer or slayers.

Two Slayers

Connolly is inclined to the belief that two men did the killing and the work of mutilation. He believes the girl was beaten to death in a shack some distance from where the body was found. The missing members probably were ripped off in the shack. Then the body was driven to the spot where it was found and three bullets were fired into the head to help confuse the police.

"After that they decided to destroy all evidence and poured gasoline on the body, even gouging holes in it and then set the corpse afire," Connolly said.

Organs Examined

"An examination of the vital organs in more detail proves that this girl was to become a mother," said Coronet Dobbins. "It is my belief that her condition played a large part toward bringing on her brutal murder."

Connolly, started a check of Gary doctors and midwives on the assumption that the burned girl might have sought relief from one of the men in the case deserted her.

Other important developments of the day were:

Discovery of two witnesses who saw a tall man and a dark man, with a wisp of a girl, apparently looking for flowers at the spot of the murder. These witnesses place the time of their presence there beside a parked car at between 12 and 3 on Sunday afternoon. Hitherto the murder time has been supposed to be around 4 in the morning.

Ear Found

The finding of an ear burned from the girl's head in the ditch near where the body was discovered.

Recovery from the Calumet River in Burnham of the right foot and part of the leg of a young woman. These are the parts severed from the right leg of the Chesterton murderer.

All day long opticians measured the delicate arcs of the eyeglass lenses found with the body. For hours physicians made blood tests which may prove valuable.

CHINESE BANDIT GANG KILLS 100

Victims Burned Alive and Stoned to Death.

By United Press

LONDON, April 28.—The burning alive and stoning to death of 100 inhabitants of the Chinese town of Tsu Ling Chung is described by the Central News Tien Tsin correspondent.

Six hundred bandits attacked the town, the inhabitants fleeing in terror. The bandits captured 100 and entombed them in a cave, filling the entrance with an enormous heap of fire which was lighted.

A majority of the victims were burned to death, but some struggled through the flames to be killed with stones.

From School Teacher to Great Eminence

A young man who was brought up on a farm in Western Pennsylvania studied diligently and qualified for district school teacher. Further pursuing his studies and teaching, he managed to save 'up enough money to put him thru medical college. After the Civil War he became the practice of medicine in the new oil section of Pa., and often rode horseback thru the woods to reach and relieve those who were seriously ill. He was a student of nature, knew and could easily recognize most of the medicinal plants growing in the woods.

Later he moved to Buffalo, N. Y., where he launched his favorite remedies, and in a short time, they were sold by every druggist in the land. Today, the name of this man, Dr. R. V. Pierce, is known throughout the world. His Golden Medical Discovery is the best known blood medicine and tonic. More than fifty million bottles have been sold in the U. S. If your druggist does not sell the Golden Medical Discovery, in liquid or tablets, you can obtain a trial pkg. of the tablets by sending 10c to the Dr. Pierce Clinic, in Buffalo, N. City Engineer Says Bridge Proposal Is Technically to Postpone Work on Tracks for at Least Two-Year Period.

South side residents who hope in the near future to obtain unobstructed intercourse with the rest of the city through elevation of tracks of the Indianapolis Belt Railroad are doomed to disappointment unless Belt railroad officials forego their present tactics of delay, H. G. Wray, city track elevation engineer, said today.

"Upon construction of the proposed $1,500,000 bridge across White River near Raymond St., depends the start of the entire elevation project, including crossings over all major intersecting streets from W. Washington St. in a long semi-circle to Keystone Ave.

Belt railroad officials, while admitting that the elevation proposal can not be commenced until bridge has been built, because lowest point of elevation would be at that point, have stated it will be impossible to draft plans for the bridge this year, according to Wray. Should the board of works submit to the postponement, elevation would not start for two and one-half years at the earliest time, because estimated time for construction of the bridge is two years.

Settlement Postponed

Meanwhile, railroad companies owing the city $1,500,000 for elevation projects completed in the past, have obtained postponement of date for final settlement until May 25. Board of works, which was to meet railroad representatives Monday, granted postponement at request of Big Four Railroad, because representatives of that company were to be in New York. The Big Four line was able to obtain reduction of $200,000 in estimated debt to city some time ago. Other companies affected are the Indianapolis Union Railway, Lake Erie & Western and Illinois Central.

"Postponement until May 25 is positively the deadline for settlement of this controversy," said Charles E. Coffin, president of the board of works, today. "If agreement cannot be obtained on that date, we shall take up the matter through the courts."

Informal Conferences

Informal conferences between city engineers, employees of the board of works and representatives of the railroads involved will be held at various times before May 25 to attempt to reach understandings.

"In the past, politicians have been handing out hand-picked states, and when the candidates get in, they forget the people. I promise a different sort of government, if elected.

Frye said 55 per cent. of workers in Indianapolis are out of permanent jobs, and advocates a closer union of the industrial and political city to remedy the situation. He speaks tonight at the Christamore Settlement house, Tremont and W. Michigan Sts.

Talks at Plant

Walter Myers, candidate for Democratic nomination, spoke at the Indianapolis Bleaching Company, at 2:35 p. m. at 755 Edgemont Ave., and will speak tonight at Twenty-Fifth and Station Sts.

W. S. F. W., Republican, speaking at the Pennsylvania railroad shops, said:

"I stand for getting away from rotten politics, away from Stephenism and for giving the city a business administration."

HIGH DAMAGES ASKED

Judgment of $500,000 and Receiver Sought.

Suit asking judgment of $500,000, an accounting, and the appointment of a receiver, was filed in Federal Court late Monday against the Indiana Mutual Casualty Company, 1906 Merchants Bank Bldg., by the Sherman and Ellis, Inc., Company, of Chicago.

The complaint alleges mismanagement by the defendant of the Indiana Manufacturers' Reciprocal Association, and breach of contract providing for the underwriting and promotion of the business. Eleven officers of the Casualty Company are named co-defendants.

Body Found in Woods

LOGANSPT, Ind., April 28.—Mushroom hunters here found the body of W. H. Wolfe, 63, dead with a bullet in his head. "Suicide" was the coroner's verdict. Wolfe had been missing for a week.

Beware infection

A break in the skin is dangerous. EVEN the little injuries can lead to great trouble. If you cut or break the skin, microbes often get in; and if they do, they usually cause dangerous inflammation.

Take care of the cuts, burns, scraped blisters, etc. Cleanse them well, then apply Resinol Ointment. It will stop the smarting at once and start the healing right. Its soothing medication helps nature to fight germ invasion, and close the wound in a healthy way.

Resinol Soap has the same soothing qualities which help it to thoroughly cleanse and preserve the skin at the same time. Ideal for the complexion and bath.

CITY CHURCHES PLAN WORK AT GROUP MEETING

Unification for Christian Principles Urged by Federation.

Unification of Protestant churches in a movement to promote Christian principles, securing of full time pastors for Riley, city and Long Hospitals, a paid social worker, and raising a budget of $11,500 are features of the 1925 program of the Church Federation of Indianapolis.

Value of social service work, personal evangelism and religious education were stressed at a annual dinner Monday night at the Y. M. C. A. Under a plan proposed by Dr. O. W. Fifer, pastor Central Ave. M. E. Church, the Marion County Council of Religious Education will become the religious education department of the Federation.

Officers Elected

Earl R. Conder, president, was elected to his third term of office. Other officers: T. C. Day, T. C. Howe, the Rev. Virgil E. Rorer, and the Rev. F. A. Hayward, vice presidents; P. R. McAnally, recording secretary, and E. A. Hendrickson, treasurer. Samuel Ashby was named on the executive committee to succeed the vacancy left by death of Dr. Allan B. Philpott.

More than 150 churches were represented.

Miss Thayer Talks

Miss Laurel C. Thayer, city court probation officer, pointed out the need for mental clinics, legal aid, detention home for adults, a basic probation law, survey of charity work, and legislation on public health measures.

"The Federation is to be the voice of all Protestant people on common questions. Strenuous effort should be placed upon that which gives more healthful activity and produces a more wholesome spirit in the city," said Dr. Ernest N. Evans, new executive secretary.

Wrayharts Taxed

Declaring that weakness in present city administration is its "hazardous" system of taxation, Lemcke, pledged himself to install a scientific budget, if elected mayor.

Lemcke spoke at meetings at Twentieth and Yandies Sts., Sixteenth St. and Ashland Ave., home of T. J. Southern, 5538 College Ave. and at colored meeting at Brook and Eleventh Sts.

Up at 4 a. m. today, Wilmeth visited the W. Washington street car barns in a continuation of his pre-breakfast handshaking tour in behalf of his candidacy for Re-publican nomination for mayor.

"I repeat that in this campaign my opponents are not Mr. Lemcke or Mr. Duvall, but the Shank-Armitage combination on one side and the Coffin machine on the other," Wilmeth said Monday night over the radio.

Wilmeth Speaks

Judge Wilmeth spoke at noon at the Indianapolis Bleaching Company, at 2:35 p. m. at 755 Edgemont Ave., and will speak tonight at Twenty-Fifth and Station Sts.

W. S. F. W., Republican, speaking at the Pennsylvania railroad shops, said:

FRANCE MARKING TIME

Brind Awaiting British Attitude Before Taking Action.

PARIS, April 28.—France will seek a united allied attitude towards the election of Field Marshal Hindenburg before taking action. But a majority of the press and public is agreed some action is necessary.

Most of the Paris newspapers depicted the result of the German presidential elections as an attempt to overturn the Versailles treaty, blamed the allied policy of confidence and insisted that henceforth France must act drastically.

Foreign Minister Aristide Briand, conferring with his colleagues in the Painlevé ministry is hesitating until he learns what Great Britain will do.

Tourists Sit and Swap Tales When Rain Begins to Patter on Auto Tops

Modern 'Homes on Wheels'

Have Up-to-Date Conveniences.

By Ross H. Garrigus

What do the auto tourists do when the rain comes tumbling down?

Of all the answers I received at the tourist camp at Riverside Park Monday, the best one was given by B. H. Knox, retired Army sergeant of Seattle, Wash. Said he, with wrinkles around his eyes:

"The women sit and knit and crochet and string beads and wash clothes and raise a row with us men folks."

I've always wanted my rain with home and fireside, because—

Once upon a time I had a tent go 'poof' in the middle of the night. And the wrestle with that dampish, muddy, recalcitrant old canvas and the sloppy tent stakes ruined any romantic thoughts of tenting in the rain. But times do change—

I peeked into the house on wheels of T. B. Lynch, Detroit, Mich. It also opened my eyes to the possibilities of a flier. Lynch has a Pullman seat in it that can be turned into a bed to rival any four poster in comfort. There's a stove and a cupboard and, in fact, lot more comfort than many of the one-room apartments in Indianapolis. A young deluge could patter down
