

INDIANS SLIP IN LEAGUE RACE—SPEED EVENT ON AT CHARLOTTE TRACK

Tribe Takes Walloping at K. C. and Moves on to Milwaukee—Bushmen Drop to Third Place.

The Indians were in Milwaukee today to open a four-game series and Manager Bush was almost on his knees begging his boys to step out and get some base hits. The Tribesmen got only five safeties in the series finale with the Blues at Kansas City Sunday and as a result the Hoosiers took a severe pasting at the hands of Lavan's team, the score being 9 to 2.

The Indians have fallen away to third place in the league standing, the Brewers having taken the runner-up position to the league-leading Millers. Minneapolis, the surprise club of the A. A., continues to crash the ball and it has thrown fear into the other seven aggregations.

On Sunday the Kelleyites needed six runs to win in the ninth and they scored just that many, beating the Hens, 9 to 8. Duncan cleaned the sacks with a homer and See, a pinch hitter, clouted one over the fence with a mate ahead.

Burwell started on the mound for the Indians in K. C. Sunday and Maun relieved him after the second. Maun dropped out for a pinch hitter in the seventh and Thompson took up the job and was slammed for five runs in the eighth.

Messenger, pitching for the Blues, fazed the Tribesmen and their five hits were scattered. Lavan's tossers collected a total of fifteen hits. Owing to two postponements, only two games were played in Kawtown, the Tribe winning Thursday and the Blues Sunday.

Eddie Sickling, star second sacker, who has been fielding and batting in big league style, is out of the game with the flu and Yeter played his position Sunday. Sumpter Clarke also is on the hospital list with a bad leg.

Of the five hits obtained by the Tribe in the K. C. windup, Rehge obtained two and Hodapp, Allen and Yeter each one.

ITALIAN SPEEDER ARRIVES

Famous Bordino Reports at Speedway—Klein Named Official Starter.

Pietro Bordino, leading racing driver of Italy, arrived in Indianapolis today to begin preparation for the International 500-mile automobile race to be held at the Speedway, Saturday, May 30. Accompanying him was Louis Fornace, an interpreter, and Frank Russell, a mechanic.

Bordino's Fiat is already at the track and the Italian speed star expects to have his car running by Wednesday.

Bordino is a husky individual, with broad shoulders, a quiet demeanor and an appearance of determination. Although he never has driven on the Indianapolis course, he undoubtedly will find it much to his liking for it is, in many respects, identical with the speed paths on which he has won the highest honors in the old world.

The Italian driver and his party have taken quarters near the speedway.

The official starter for the thirteen annual 500-mile race will be Seth Klein, a local man well-known in automobile circles. He will handle all flags.
