

COMMITTEES ON EVENT CHOSEN

Pennsylvania Mardi Gras
Workers Named.

Jud McCarthy, president of the Pennsylvania Business Association, today announced committees who will have charge of Friday evening's Mardi Gras celebration on N. Pennsylvania St., between Washington and New York Sts., a part of the Greater Indianapolis Week celebration.

Decorations: Thomas Buskirk, M. K. Foxworthy, Cecil Crabb, Smith Gray and Carl Etter.

Arrangements: F. R. Kautz, Sr., Jud McCarthy, Herb Jennings, Eugene W. Short.

Entertainment: Herb Jennings and Roltare Eggleston. Music: Walter Wilson, Hal P. Shearer, and Charles Miller. Gift awards: Roltare Eggleston. Publicity: Blaine McGrath, Jud McCarthy and Herb Jennings.

Pennsylvania street in the three blocks to be covered by the Mardi Gras celebration, has been festooned with colored electric lights, banners, streamers and to each light standard has been attached a large sign announcing the event.

SEEK STATE OFFICER

Humane Societies to Meet Here
Next Week.

Appointment of a State humane officer and the distribution of 50 per cent of all dog taxes collected in Indiana to humane societies in Indiana cities are objectives toward which the Indiana Federation of Humane Societies will work at its convention Aug. 28 at the Lincoln. William P. Hargon, president of the organization, said the delegates to the convention will outline plans for securing the passage of legislation providing the measure. Twenty-five societies will be represented at the convention, Hargon said.

GET BIG AD CONTRACT

MEK's Company Signs Agreement
With Jewelers' Association.

One of the largest contracts ever entered into by an Indiana advertiser has been obtained by the Millis advertising Company of Indianapolis, according to Fred I. Millis, president.

Millis has signed a contract with the National Jewelers' Publicity Association calling for the expenditure of $2,500,000 in advertising. The contract will necessitate establishment of an Eastern office by Millis.

Fowler and "Fifi" to Rest

By United Press
CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—Fowler McCormick, 19, son of the International Harvester king, is going to a Canadian lodge for a long vacation with his old friend Mrs. "Fifi" Stillman, after he has again accustomed himself to the ways of the rich.

Fowler is back home after several weeks in Milwaukee, spent in getting up at 6 a. m. each day, and going to work in his father's factory without any chauffeurs or butlers.

Mrs. Stillman is the former wife of James Stillman, New York bank president, whose divorce proceedings involving a charge that an Indian guide was the father of her youngest child was in the nation's scandal glare several years ago.

COUNTY ROADS TOURED

Commissioners' Association Raps
Highway Board.

By United Press
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 20.—Delegates attending the convention of the Indiana County Commissioners' Association today were taken for an inspection tour of Vigo County highways.

The question of road building was one of the major problems before this year's convention. Resolutions were adopted condemning the policy of the State highway commission in requiring county road specifications to comply with State specifications.

BRAKEMAN LOSES LIFE

By United Press
ANDERSON, Ind., Aug. 20.—The body of Frank Berry, 23, railroad brakeman, was to be taken to his home in Richmond today for burial. Berry fell beneath a train. He died in a hospital here Wednesday night.

PRESIDENT ON WAY TO DESK

Important Problems Await
His Consideration.

By United Press
PLYMOUTH, Vt., Aug. 20.—Refreshed by a six-day visit to his father's home, President Coolidge today started back to the summer White House at Swampscott, where his desk is piled high with memoranda of important problems.

The President and Mrs. Coolidge will stop off at Northampton, Mass., and spend the night with Mrs. Almira Goodhue, mother of the First Lady of the Land. The duplex house, now occupied by Mrs. Coolidge's mother is the one in which the Coolidges themselves lived at one time.

Considerably improved in health after eight weeks of vacation, Coolidge may return to Washington at any time. The Mayflower is ready at Marblehead, near Swampscott, to take the President to the Capital at a moment's notice.

Bond Issue Denied

The State tax board today denied a $114,000 bond issue for construction of the John F. Kuhlman road in North Township, Lake County.
