Gas On Stomach Makes People Nervous

Mrs. Cook Nervous 12 Years Due to Gas

"For 12 years I suffered from gas on the stomach and was nervous and short of breath. Adlerika has done me more good than anything." (Signed) Mrs. Cook.

Intestinal Evacuant
There is now offered to the public a wonderful preparation which not only is wonderfully effective and QUICK intestinal evacuant, but which also seems to stimulate the glands of the intestinal tract and to relieve spasmodic pains (GAS). This preparation, known as Adlerika, is a valuable agent for the purpose of cleansing the bowels of the system which often causes the person long time and which other less effective means have been unable to dilute. It is often astonishing the great amount of gas which is dissolved from the intestinal canal—even right after a natural movement it sometimes brings out unexpected quantities of gas.

Many times it brings out much GAS, thus relieving pressure in the abdomen. Adlerika is especially valuable in cases of intestinal colic. It is used only ordinary bowel movements. Its POMPT action is necessary to encourage the elimination of metabolic poisons through the bowel.

TWENTY-FOUR LESSONS IN PIANO PLAYING—TWENTIETH LESSON: C MINOR

E Flat Major. It is the next step in acquiring a sound foundation for musical education. As requested in the previous lesson, memorize these chords by playing them over and over until you can play them without looking at the chart.

If you will compare the chords and basic notes of this particular in this series with the manuscript of music arranged in the same key this fact will appear:

Two-thirds or even more of the chords of harmony in the manuscript, except those used for modulation, are comprised in some position of the chords arranged in these charts. This is the chords used in the use of the notes which you have already learned in previous lessons. The chords of modulation are those that permit a change from one key to another by easy steps.

When you are playing accompaniments each chord you strike should (in general) contain the note of the melody that is sounded with the chord. You can study this out from the charts, but few persons should need more instruction on this point than the ear itself can give.

Memorization is necessary if you are to learn much from these lessons. You must play the chords over and over, first with the chart placed on the instrument before you so that the white spaces are over the white spaces of the chart, then without the chart placed on the instrument, then without the use of the chart. Commit to memory also the names of the keys that make up the different chords. This should give you sufficient knowledge for playing accompaniments. If you wish to go further in the study of the piano or organ, learn the fingerings in the style of the piano or organ, learn the fingerings of the scales shown in the upper left hand corner of each chart.

Every triad in black letter is marked 1, 3, 5. Always read it so, no matter in what vertical order the notes may be written. Note that the small letter D with a dash above it must not be played.

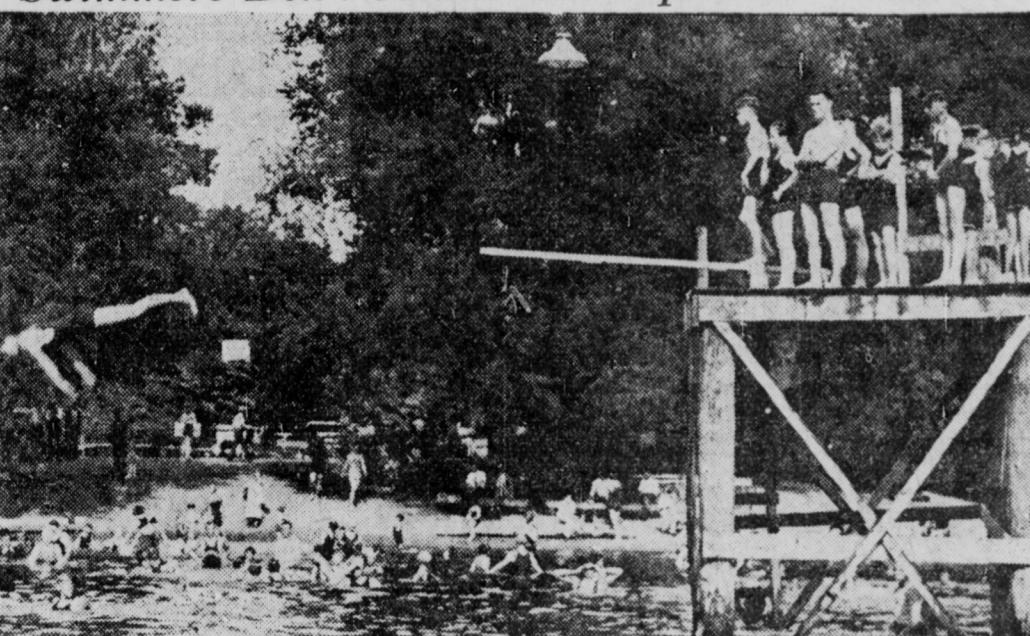

NEXT LESSON—A Flat Major.

Motor Mounts 'Buck' With Inspectors

Not Much Economy, Say City Officials After Accidents.

If you would split the winds on a motorcycle, first learn thoroughly the eccentricities of the mounts.

Two of the six board of health inspectors learned this lesson Tuesday, the first day of motorization of the board health field force, reduced from twenty to six inspectors for economy.

Losing control of his thrashing steed, J. A. Theamlin crashed into a fence at Broadway and Twenty-Fifth Sts., narrowly avoided running down two children on the sidewalk and ended his ride with severe bruises, slashed trousers and a smashed motorcycle.

A. L. Givern also took a tumble and suffered minor bruises.

Thompson Criticizes

Severe criticism of the board's policy in sending untrained motorcycle riders on the streets was voiced by Ben H. Thompson, city council president, who arrived on the scene soon after the accident on Broadway.

"It's dangerous to public safety to allow any untrained rider to drive a motorcycle," he said. "Besides, think of the ruined motorcycles."

Hogue Unsympathetic

"There's not much economy there," commented Joseph L. Hogue, city controller, who has been unsympathetic with the board's dismissal of inspectors.

Inspectors who never before had ridden a motorcycle are said to have volunteered to tackle the temperamental mounts to save their jobs.

COLLECTOR IS ROBBED

Insurance Man Says He Accepted
Invitation to Ride.

Finis Esch, 506 Warren Ave., collector for the Public Savings Insurance Company, told police three men invited him into their auto near Maywood, Ind. The men turned onto a side road and robbed him of $50, he said.

Edgar Haunes, janitor at the Athenaeum, Michigan and New Jersey Sts., saw a colored man take three rugs valued at $35 from the building. Haunes was outdistanced in the chase.

MAIL DRIVER ESCAPES

Truck and Auto Badly Damaged in Collision.

J. E. Moore, Greenfield, Ind., driving a United States mail truck escaped injury Tuesday night when the truck turned over at New Jersey and South Sts., after it was in collision with an auto driven by Vern Love, 226 E. Michigan St. Both autos were badly damaged.

FEW ARE EAGER TO VIEW LISTS OF TAX FIGURES

However, Many Business Men Seek Federal Returns of Competitors.

Hoosiers are not extremely curious to know what their neighbors are paying in income taxes was seen today in the small number of persons who call at the office of M. Bert Thurman, collector of internal revenue for Indiana, to view the returns.

Among the persons calling at the office to look over the income tax payments, Tuesday was a woman who wished to know what income tax her husband paid.

"We have been separated almost two years," she said. "But he swore he would claim the exemption of $2,500 allowed a married man."

She said her husband's tax assessment and decided he had been only bluffing.
