

WOMEN ROUT FOUR BURGLARS WITH SCREAMS

Two Maids Prevent Robberies—One Intruder Found Drinking, Police Say.

Four women routed burglars Thursday night, police reports showed today.

Sarah Fall, colored, maid at the home of S. C. Crozier, 342 Harvard Pl., fainting when she surprised a man in the home. He fled.

Miss Hazel Stevens, maid at the home of W. J. Ryan, 119 E. Forty-fourth St., answered the door bell to face a gun in the hands of a bandit who told her to hand over her money. Instead she slammed the door. He ran.

Turns on Gas
Mrs. Joseph Hottenroth, 501 N. East St., Apt. 12, was on the front porch Thursday night when she smelled the odor of gas coming from her front door. E. O. Woods, the same address, investigated and found Edward Corvill, 350 N. Liberty St. He was drinking white mule, police said, and had turned on all the gas stove jets. He was charged with blind tiger and entering a house to commit a felony.

A colored man who had removed laundry valued at $100 from the clothes line at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Day, 1208 Central Ave., dropped the bundle when she screamed.

Hide and Seek
A prowler played hide and seek with Harlan Smith, 646 Ft. Wayne Ave., elevator man at the Davian Apt., 430 Massachusetts Ave., finally escaping. Nothing was reported stolen.

Dr. A. L. Rust, 921 N. Rural St., reported narcotics stolen from his office.

Schnull & Co., 2603 E. Washington St., was entered, according to police and cigarettes valued at $300 taken.

Sneak Thief

A sneak thief entered the room of V. B. Smith at the Spencer House and took $31 and checks. Kathleen Hogan, 623 N. Rural St., who works in Room 121 the State house, reported her purse containing $5 and a pearl valued at $25, taken.

Mrs. Claude Hardin, 610 S. Pennsylvania St., reported jewelry valued at $44 taken: Mrs. Nellie Jones, 1531 N. Senate Ave., $20, while she was upstairs and Mrs. Lizzie Jackson, 613 W. Thirteenth St., $20, while she was in another room.

BANDIT GETS POUNDED

Intended Victim Wields Hammer on Hold-Up Man

Police have failed to hear of any further activities of a hold-up man who ran into a bit of opposition Thursday night and came out of an encounter with an intended victim, the loser.

Russell Endlow, a farm hand, living near New Augusta, Ind., was driving along the Dandy Trail near Wall St. Pike, when a man leaped on the running board and thrust a gun at him. Endlow said he seized a hammer from the seat and brought it down on the bandit's head. He tumbled and Endlow kept going.

AUTO DRIVERS CHARGED

Speeding, Failure to Stop and Intoxication Are Alleged.

Victor Braun, 19, of 1214 S. Sheffield Ave.; Roger Carlin, 24, Y. M. C. A., and Ray Herron, 18, of 1933 1/2 Ashland Ave., are charged with speeding by police today. Herron is also charged with failing to stop after an accident.

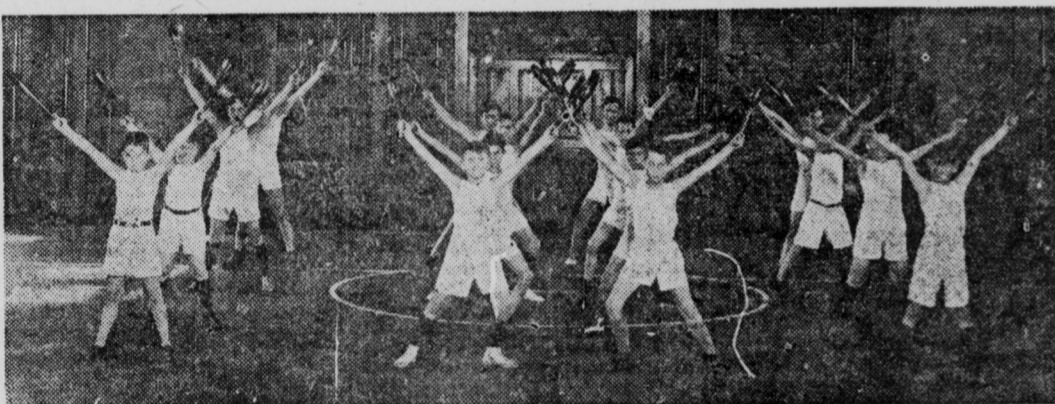

Ernest King, 24, of 1203 Harlan St., and Ernest Ray, 42, city, are charged with driving while intoxicated.

PRITCHARD WILL SPEAK

Disciples of Christ Education Official to Give Address.

The Rev. H. O. Pritchard, general secretary of the Disciples of Christ, will speak at the College of Missions at 7:30 tonight on the subject, "Can Europe Pay Her Debts?" Rev. Pritchard recently returned from a tour of the continent.

Hoosier Athletic Club to Open Season Saturday

Two gymnasium classes at the Hoosier Athletic Club.

The Hoosier Athletic Club will open its fall season Saturday evening with a formal dinner dance at 6:30 p. m.

Next week the club will observe open house, and will be open to the public on Monday evening. Guest cards and tickets of admission are being sent out.

With the adjoining house in the last stages of being finished for open house week, the enlargement plans of the club begun this summer are rapidly being completed. The annex to the club will include additional card rooms and entertainment space.

George W. Lipps, physical director, announces that classes are filling up for a season of gym work, ballet dancing, classic and character dancing. Last year

Lipps had sixteen classes of men, women and children besides six classes in ballet dancing.

From six to sixty is Lipps gym class motto, and his classes range from tots like these above to men and women who intend to keep fit and healthy.

Harold Hampton, president, has planned a big season for the club, which has 1,200 male members.
