

TIMES' RADIO PARTY SUCCESS, SAY LISTENERS

Musical Artists and Airplane Guests Heard on Initial Program.

Artists of this city and aviator guests aided in making the first radio party of The Indianapolis Times an enjoyable success, according to reports received from many who listened in Friday night.

For one hour and a half The Times Friday night broadcast its first program over WFBM, Merchants Hotel and Light Company, from the Times' studio at the Hotel Severin.

Dr. Frank S. C. Wick, pastor of All Souls Union Church, as guest announcer, introduced the artists.

The Victor Herbert Ensemble, composed of musicians of this city, who play for their own pleasure and musical advancement, registered one of the big melody hits of the evening. They were heard in many finely played numbers, but the collection of old-time songs seemed to meet with the general approval of those who listened in.

Encore Asked
The ensemble was such a hit that the Times air patrons have asked they appear next Friday night in another program.

Ona E. Talbot was introduced by Dr. Wick as a woman who has done wonderful things for music in this State. Mrs. Talbot spoke for about twenty minutes, the first oratorical talk ever put on the air.

She had the assistance of Walter Flannery, pianist, and Edwin Jones, violinist of the Metropolitan School of Music. They illustrated Mrs. Talbot's address on "Wagner."

Dr. Wick, who closed the evening was Tom Broadstreet, baritone of the North Methodist Church choir, accompanied by Mrs. James Wynn, organist. Broadstreet sang three numbers.

A Baldwin Grand was used during the entire Times radio party and will be heard over the air every Friday night.

Air Guests

The guests included members of the party making the flight on the Ford reliability airplane journey. They included Capt. H. A. Bruno, chairman of the aviation committee of the Newspaper Club of New York; "Casey" Jones, pilot of the Curtiss Carrier Pigeon; E. Platt, pilot of the three engine Fokker biplane; and Capt. H. A. Bruno, pilot of the Martin plane; Princess Charlotte Bowhan, the only woman-passenger on the trip and Anthony H. G. Fokker, famous Dutch aircraft constructor.

BOND NOT TO BE REDUCED

Driver Held After Crash, Fatal to Boy.

Claude Porter, 30, colored, of 848 Edgemoor St., whose auto late Friday struck and fatally injured Warren Murray, 12, colored, of 215 W. Sixteenth St., will be held on $5,000 bond to face charges of manslaughter and speeding. Coroner Paul F. Robinson said today.

The boy, an Indianapolis Times carrier, was struck at Eighteenth St. and Boulevard Pl. while delivering papers on his bicycle. He died two hours later at Methodist Hospital.

It has been Robinson's custom to reduce the $5,000 manslaughter bond if evidence gained at the scene of the accident by police showed the driver to be blameless. Motorpolice Babke and Baker, who investigated, were told Porter's auto was traveling forty miles an hour. His bond will not be reduced at present, Robinson said.

ATHLETES ARE 'SMART'

Bloomington Disproves Charge Studies Are Neglected.

By United Press
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 3.—Theory that college athletes neglect their academic work for their physical education was given a rap today in a survey of the Indiana University athletes as compared with other students.

Scholarship of 300 athletes at the university was equal to that of other students, according to grades on file in the dean's office. In fact it is better in some cases and is steadily improving.

The "C" plus grade of the Indiana University athletes is shown to be developing into a "B minus." Three of the athletes last year were top grade men in their academic work.

MAN PROMISES HE'LL BE 'DRY'

Judge Suspends 180-Day Farm Sentence.

A promise from William Malone, 522 E. Miami St., that he will never have liquor around his house, won for him the suspension of 180 days on the Indiana State Farm assessed on him Friday afternoon when convicted before Special Judge H. B. Pike in Criminal Court on blind tiger charge. However, he was ordered to pay a fine of $100 and costs. Malone appealed from city court where he was fined $200 and costs and given a sixty-day farm sentence.

Pete Kiroer, 424 W. Maryland St., also succeeded in having a thirty-day sentence suspended during good behavior when convicted on a similar charge. He was fined $100 and costs.

Out of the eleven blind tiger appeals set for trial Friday afternoon nine of them were passed to later dates by Judge Pike on motion of either the State or defense attorneys.

UNION FOR WORLD COURT

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Having thrust aside a resolution for American participation in the League of Nations, the inter-parliamentary union of forty nations today proceeded with matters for perfecting the international court of justice. A report was presented by Elihu Root, noted international lawyer, urging that immediate steps be taken to codify international law.

SCHOOL LEVY IS APPROVED

Scientech Club Committee Points Out Needs.

Support the school tax levy of $1.10 was given in a report made by the school finance committee of the Scientech Club, it was learned today. The report was approved by directors of the club.

The report points out that the levy increase was needed because the school building program has not kept pace with the requirements. It is shown that between 1909 and 1919 the increase in pupils in Indianapolis schools far exceeded the increase in school rooms.

The report states that about forty school buildings are heated by stoves in class rooms, that many of the class rooms are badly lighted, that the window glass is cheap in appearance, that there are no window screens, and that the janitors are not competent to operate heating plants.

"Many pupils are back in the days of the little red school house in the country districts," the report said.

Income Tax Correction

In line with its promise to rectify any mistakes in the printing of the income taxes of thousands of Marion County citizens, The Times gladly prints this correction: The item "Charles J. Oval, 3827 College Ave., $75.88," was incorrect. It should have read: Charles J. Oval, 3827 College Ave., $75.88.

Freeman said the city waited ten years for the railroad company to buy the street for extension of its yards and then ordered it paved at request of persons living on the thoroughfare.

CITY EXPLAINS SUIT

"Weary of Waiting for Big Four to Act," Says Freeman.

"We're weary waiting for the Big Four Railroad to buy Alabama St. from Virginia Ave. to South St." That was the explanation offered today by William H. Freeman, board of works member, for ordering of works member, for ordering of paving on the street, which the railroad company charges was a violation of the track extension agreement. The board is temporarily restrained in Superior Court Two, from proceeding with the work, and will not pursue the matter until the court decides the issue, according to Freeman.

Freeman said the city waited ten years for the railroad company to buy the street for extension of its yards and then ordered it paved at request of persons living on the thoroughfare.

FLAG FLUTTERS HELPLESSLY IN COUNTY DESPAIR

Courthouse Too Poor Even to Rescue 'Old Glory,' Upside Down on Pole.

Do You Know?
Cost of the flood prevention project are designated as follows: City, 45; county, 45 and property owners, 10 per cent.

In the municipal tug of war, Mr. Fixit will pull on your rope. He is the Times representative at the city hall. Write him at The Times. Although Marion County is depleted, broke, a financial wreck, John Kitley, president of the board of county commissioners, believes money can be found to rescue the flag on the courthouse dome, Mr. Fixit was informed today.

DEAR MR. FIXIT: I have noticed on the top of the courthouse in our city the American flag. Well, it should be there, but not as it is. The flag is caught on the courthouse dome, not on the pole at all, as far as I can see. Yesterday it was flying most any way, with the ends of the stripes fastened and the stars upside down.

It may be discarded, but that is no place for it. Do we love the flag and what it stands for? No, if we allow this kind of treatment.

ALBERT L. BENDER.
1550 E. Vermont St.
Custodians tried in vain to rescue the flag and appealed for funds to employ a stepladder, but their request was denied by the commissioners. Now Kitley has promised to renew the attempt.

DEAR MR. FIXIT: Won't you try to get Capitol Ave. south of Morris St. graded down for us? New sidewalks have just been laid in front of our house. The street is sixteen inches higher than the curb. The water over our new sidewalk is nearly a foot deep and there is no outlet, as we have no cisterns. Anything you could do would be greatly appreciated.

MRS. FRANK OTTO.
1406 S. Capitol Ave.
W. P. Hargan, clerk of the street commissioner's office, will investigate at once. An inquiry also will be ordered into the following condition:

DEAR MR. FIXIT: We live at 1449 S. Lee and it has been a mud hole all summer. I would like for you to do something before winter comes. Can't we get some men down here to put a ditch through to the sewers. The water stands all the time.

MRS. MARY BLACKETTER.

TO PROPERTY OWNER.
READER OF THE TIMES AND RESIDENTS IN THIS VICINITY: There's no hope for additional electric lights this administration. Board of works members say that funds are exhausted.
